Auto Salesman Badly Beaten by 'Customer'
Robert Jewett, 42 years of age, a salesman for the Walter Murphy Motors Company, drove out yesterday evening with a rather rough looking man who wanted an automobile demonstration.
An hour later police were informed by telephone that an unconscious man had been found on the Coronado streets. The prospective customer, police reported, had been driven Jewett into unconsciousness and had driven off with his car.
DIRECTORY ISSUED OF REALTY BROKERS
Publication and distribution of the supplement to the California Real Estate Directory for 1926 was announced yesterday by State Real Estate Commissioner Gabbert, who declared this is the earliest date the supplement has been published. The distribution among brokers, the issue contains 321 pages, and is supplemental to the directory of 1925, which was issued last May. It is the only directory published by the state administration of the Real Estate Department.

RAN STILL FOR MATE

CHICAGO, Aug. 26 (AP)—A still in the basement of Harry Bowler's home was purchased and operated by Mrs. Bowler, she told a Federal commissioner, so that her husband, a confirmed drinker, could be sure he was getting "good stuff." But she was held to the grand jury.

TWO DIE IN OUTBURST OF MANIAC

Madman Terrorizes Crowd at Chicago Rail Station as He Wounds Four

CHICAGO, Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—An alien Sicilian maniac, armed with a shotgun and 100 shells, was shot and killed tonight in front of the terminal of the Illinois Central Railroad after he had terrorized hundreds of passengers going into the station and wounded four men, one of whom died a short time later.

A World War veteran, Charles Danloff, owner of a barber shop nearby, heard the shots and the screams of women and the warning shouts of men as the crazed killer ran out from the station platform, where he had wounded one railroad official and engaged in a battle with a policeman whom he forced to flee.

Seizing his pistol, Danloff ran to the street. The madman had just fired into the Parkview restaurant, wounding two Pullman porters and a waiter. As he turned and saw the barber he cried out an inarticulate warning and swung his gun to meet Danloff's attack. He fired and missed. Danloff fired and a bullet crashed between the madman's eyes, killing him instantly.

He was identified as Joseph Mazza, 36 years of age, a track laborer employed by the Illinois Central. Louis Kikakos, the waiter in the restaurant, was the man who was wounded fatally.

Plan Starts to Select Mitchell Air Club Head

NEW YORK, Aug. 26. (AP)—Friends of former Brig.-Gen. Mitchell today launched a movement grooming him for the post of president of the National Aeronautic Association.

The move to make the former assistant chief of Army Air Service president of the association, according to Frank A. Tichenor, president of the New York chapter, is a part of a plan to raise the membership of the organization to 100,000 members and make it capable of exerting influence in air matters.

"The agitation stirred up by Mitchell," Tichenor said, "is indirectly the cause of what progress has been made recently in aviation. He will bring aviators and those interested in aviation rallying to him."

INQUIRY ON BANK BOMB FRUITLESS

Pittsburg Detectives at Loss in Continued Effort to Identify Dynamiter

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 26. (AP)—Detectives found themselves against a blank wall again tonight after having spent their second day running down clews in an effort to establish the identity of the man who Tuesday exploded a bomb in the Farmers' Deposit Savings Bank, killing himself and a policeman and injuring more than a score.

A telephone call from a suburb said a man had occupied a shack there early this week and that he had departed Tuesday morning with a small satchel. Police investigated but said the report was without foundation.

George Chill, a contractor whose telephone number, written on a small piece of paper was found in the bomber's watch pocket, called at the morgue but said he had never met the man.

Bertillon measurements of the body were sent to Washington, D. C., for comparison with available records there.

The seven victims of the explosion who were taken to hospitals were reported as recovering.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26. (AP)—Washington authorities today forwarded to the Pittsburgh police a story told here by Erving H. Burdyne, who said he believed the Pittsburgh bank bomber formerly was an inmate of the Soldiers' Home at Sawtelle, Cal. While he himself was there in 1924, Burgoyne said, one of the other inmates proposed to have attempted to blow up a Sawtelle bank and last April he saw the same man in New Mexico, bound east, with a satchel containing a bomb. He could not give the man's name.

Estate Offered as Boys' School by C. W. Gibson

OAKLAND, Aug. 26. (AP)—C. W. Gibson, Long Beach and Oakland capitalist, today offered his resort near Middletown, Lake county, north of here, to be used as a home and training home for "unprivileged, needy and neglected boys."

The offer was made by an attorney representing Gibson, who said the gift will "have no strings attached to it," and that it was a "purposeful gift to the world."

The property comprises 160 acres and includes a hotel building, cottages, swimming pool, gardens and live stock.

The proposition was submitted to the Board of Supervisors. The County Probation Committee and the District Attorney's office will decide whether acceptance of the offer legally is feasible.

Italy to Study Economies by Laboratory Use

ROME, Aug. 26. (AP)—Premier Mussolini has appointed a committee headed by Minister of National Economy Belluzzo to arrange for the utilization of all physical, chemical, mechanical, metallurgical and electrotechnical laboratories in Italy to study means for the achievement of great national economies.

The committee also has been authorized to study a way of co-ordinating the activities of scientific laboratories in all Italian colleges and universities to the same end.

English Queen Wields Duster During Holiday

LONDON, Aug. 26.—(Exclusive)—Queen Mary of England is spending a two weeks holiday as a housewife with a duster, forgetting the formalities of being a queen. Appearing in ordinary working women's clothes, she is spending her holiday at Sandringham, watching the transformation of Queen Alexandra's house there into a modern country mansion for the present royal family.

Accompanied only by one lady-in-waiting, Queen Mary forgot the cares of state and busied herself about the house with a duster and broom sweeping and cleaning pictures and furniture and performing other tasks, which apparently gave her great pleasure.

Hectic Career of Broker Ends During Inquiry

NEW YORK, Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—Jared Flagg, stock broker, real estate promoter, author of a scheme to "beat Wall street" who many times was in trouble with the authorities for his methods of making money, died suddenly as he was being questioned by Dep. Atty.-Gen. Winter. He was 70 years of age.

Flagg was maintaining to Winter that his transactions was perfectly legal when he suddenly faltered, began to choke and sank into a chair. For a minute Mr. Winter hesitated, thinking that Flagg was feigning illness to close an unpleasant interview.

Then he summoned Dr. Barth of the Broad-street Hospital, but Flagg was dead when the doctor arrived. Death was due to heart disease.

NEW TESTS MAY WARN OF QUAKES

Government Engineer Will Conduct Experiment With Gravity in Hawaii Islands

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—Measurements of the earth's gravity which may result in scientists being able to predict volcanic eruptions are to be made in Hawaii by Lieut. E. J. Brown of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, who sails from San Francisco for Honolulu next week. Just what relation the pull of the earth has to volcanic eruptions and earthquakes has not yet been determined, but seismographical students hope by these measurements to establish some connection.

"The spinning of the earth on its axis has caused the flattening of the globe at the poles and preventing it being a true sphere. Because the poles are nearer the center of the earth than other portions of the surface, the pull of gravity is strongest at the poles. Surveyors have been able to determine pretty well the shape of the earth or its curvature by measuring with a pendulum, the force of gravity at various points.

"This work has been carried so far that when any one spot shows a variation in the gravity from what is to be expected at that place, it is an indication of an unusual condition. Such a deviation usually indicates either a mineral deposit or salt dome. Engineers have been able to find oil, which is indicated by salt domes, by testing to see whether there is any change in the gravity of a given spot of ground."

TUCSON (Ariz.) Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—Filipe Martinez has been fined $200 in the Federal court here, but the sentence has been suspended, though he pleaded guilty of violation of the immigration laws. The suspension was not on any motion favored by Filipe, but is for the purpose of handing him over to the Mexican authorities. He is wanted on a charge of murder of his wife at Naco, Son.

VALENTINO RESTS IN PEACE

Disturbances at Bier Ended With Barring of Throngs; Funeral Service May Be Delayed

NEW YORK, Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—The body of Rudolph Valentino lay undisturbed today in the gold room of the Campbell funeral church, while outside thousands of curious, barred from viewing the dead film actor, paraded up and down. Irreverence of the mobs which marched past his bier Tuesday and Wednesday caused S. George Ullman to close the doors to the public last midnight after nearly 100,000 had viewed the body.

Although plans went forward today for a simple funeral service Monday morning at 11 o'clock in St. Malachy's Catholic Church, there was a possibility that the services would not be conducted before Wednesday when Valentino's brother, Albert Guglielmi, arrives from Europe.

Mr. Ullman disclosed that a radio message from Guglielmi had requested postponement of the funeral until his arrival, but that the health regulations prohibited so long a delay. He said he had requested an extension of the burial period, but had not yet received an official reply from the municipal health department.

Final disposition of Valentino's body had not been determined late tonight. Mr. Ullman said it would be placed in a vault at Woodlawn Cemetery temporarily, the decision between Hollywood and the actor's native Italy as a burial place being left to Guglielmi.

BURIAL HERE LIKELY

From other sources it was indicated that Hollywood probably will be selected. Assistant State's Attorney Romano of Chicago, who arrived today to act as one of the pallbearers at the funeral, said that Guglielmi had radioed that he would be guided by the wishes of Valentino's American friends.

"We are hopeful, therefore," Mr. Romano said, "that Valentino's body will be buried in Hollywood."

This also is known to be the desire of Pola Negri, reported engaged to the dead screen star, who is hurrying here from Los Angeles.

A police detail today again numbered almost 200, assigned in the fear the barring of the public would mean a riot.

"I was so deeply grieved at Mr. Valentino's death that I thought the whole world would be, too," Mr. Ullman said today. "I made a mistake."

SUBTERFUGE FAILS

A subterfuge which yesterday enabled a young woman to get to the bier without standing in line two or three hours as others did was attempted today by a score of young women. They brought small bouquets, purchased from street vendors, and asked permission to deposit them

DOZEN BODIES RECOVERED IN MINE SHAFT EXPLOSION

Thirteen Believed Still Trapped in Debris-Strewn Chamber of Pennsylvania Workings

CLYMER (Pa.) Aug. 26. (AP)—Eight bodies were removed fro mthe debris-swept interior of Clymer No. 1 mine of the Clearfield Bituminous Coal Corporation just before midnight, making a total of twelve known dead in an explosion which late today trapped what officials said was approximately thirty men. Four bodies were recovered previously and at least five escaped alive.

The eight bodies, as yet unidentified, were badly scarred, and for the most part their legs and arms were broken, indicating that the explosion had battered them about the workings.

A. J. Musser, vice-president and general manager of the corporation, in a statement said he has reasons to believe that at least a score of the fifty men in the mine at the time of the blast had escaped through the main opening or through the ventilator shaft, which was equipped with a "man-way" leading to a hillside. He said he could not substantiate this theory because the men he believed to have found safety scattered as soon as they emerged from the workings and could not be traced tonight.

Four of the men known to have escaped were in a hospital at Dixonville, but doctors said they probably will recover. The fifth was unhurt.

Practically all hope for the entombed men was abandoned tonight after Dr. W. E. Dodd, company physician, explored the mine as far as possible. He said the blast caused widespread devastation and that the tunnels were so heavy with gas that no human could survive.

He said that within the stope, under piles of rock, he saw the bodies of six miners. Some were badly mangled, while others, he said, bore no marks, indicating that they were victims of the gases.

Volunteer rescuers, who entered the gas-filled stope in their heroic effort to rescue the entombed underground toilers, were driven back time and again.

BODIES BROUGHT OUT

Great crowds of men, women and children flocked to the mine from nearby villages shortly after they were startled by the heavy explosion, which was felt a half-mile away. The crowds hampered the volunteer rescuers at the outset, but State troopers from Greensburg finally controlled the throng, forcing the onlookers to take to the hills flanking the mine mouth. Here, on the outer edge of the crowd, stood many women and children whose husbands and fathers were trapped in the mine.

Veteran coal diggers, familiar with mine explosions, expressed the belief that the blast was caused by the ignition of gas. General Manager Musser said that normally the mine employs more than 400 men, but that recently it had been working only part time and the force was reduced a hundred.

SALVATION ARMY AIDS

As nightfall settled over the village, Salvation Army lassies from Johnstown arrived. They established temporary first-aid headquarters in a mine shack and fed the hard-working rescue crews. A temporary morgue was fitted up in another shack.

A few hours after the explosion came the rescuers on hand found the underground passageways filled with gases. They could work only a few minutes. Finally, with the arrival of a United States Bureau of Mines team from Pittsburgh, the rescuers were ordered out, and the rescue chief ordered that brattices of canvas be erected. It was hoped that with the aid of brattices every few feet the rescuers could combat the gases and advance into the farthest reaches of the mine.

The rescue work was well organized. Experienced teams, led by the Bureau of Mines men, worked in shifts in the battle against the ever-creeping gases. Every mine in the region rushed in rescue teams and safety apparatus.

AMERICAN FLYERS AID NICARAGUA

As Majors in Government Army They Drop Bombs at Gun-Running Ship

MANAGUA (Nicaragua) Aug. 26. (AP) Capt. J. C. Rutledge and L. J. Clay, former American aviators and now majors in the Nicaraguan constabulary, within the past two days have made airplane attacks on a gun-running vessel flying the American flag.

Scouting along the Pacific Coast of Nicaragua in search of revolutionary forces, the aviators located the vessel off Corinto and began dropping bombs. The ship put to sea, closely followed by the airplane. One bomb exploded near the ship, but caused no damage. The crew turned a machine gun on their pursuers, who returned the fire from their own machine gun. After following the vessel for twelve miles the plane ran out of ammunition.

Returning to Corinto last night, the aviators again discovered the vessel at Cosiguina, near the Gulf of Fonseca, discharging arms. The aviators again dropped nine bombs near the ship and used their machine gun, only to be met with a return fire from machine guns and rifles. The plane later was forced to withdraw because of darkness.

Revolutionary forces, numbering 150, have overpowered the small garrison at Cosiguina, killing four men, and have begun a march inland with arms obtained from the vessel attacked by the airmen. The government has sent a force of 1600 soldiers with light artillery to meet the revolutionists, and a battle is expected at any time.

First news yesterday that American aviators had made an attack on a gun-running vessel in Nicaragua mystified the United States authorities at Washington in the absence of definite information as to what standing the Americans involved had. The fact that the Americans are the private employees of the Nicaraguan government is in line with the Navy Department statement that no American naval planes were known to be in the vicinity of Nicaragua.

Tax Reductions from War Debt Interest Taboo

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26. (AP)—The Treasury has no intention of changing its present fiscal policies so as to use war debt interest receipts to bring about another tax reduction.

Taking note of suggestions for such a change, Acting Secretary Winston said today it was considered necessary that the $150,000,000 coming in annually from these interest payments be applied to retirement of the public debt. The payments usually are made in United States bonds, which were thereby automatically retired. If these payments were to be available for tax reduction, it would be necessary to resell these securities, and the Treasury holds such a step impracticable.

The Treasury faces a severe task furthermore, in retiring the third liberty loan bonds, which mature in 1928 and of which $2,500,800,000 are outstanding. All of the money in the sinking fund now is being used for retirement of these bonds.

Gooding Defends Changed Stand on World Court

BOISE (Idaho) Aug. 26. (AP) — In explaining his changed attitude toward the World Court, expressed in his speech at the Republican State convention at Weiser yesterday, United States Senator Gooding declared that he now is opposed to the court or any other alliance with world powers because of the attitude of the French people toward the United States on the World War debt.

"Changed conditions have caused me to change my opinion on the World Court," said Senator Gooding, who accepted renomination for the United States Senate on a platform irrevocably opposed to the court or other alliances with European powers. "Had I the opportunity to vote over again it would be against the World Court." Purported connection of the court with the League of Nations was given as another reason.

Another French Pair Off to Seek Record in Plane

PARIS, Aug. 26. (AP)—Capts. Le Maitre and Bares, aviators, left the Le Bourget airdrome this morning in an attempt to beat the nonstop long-distance flying record.

They are to lay their route in the direction of the Persian Gulf. Weather conditions when they took the air were good.

HURRICANE KILLS FOUR

Louisiana's Loss $2,000,000

News from Isolated Districts Battered by Gulf Storm May Increase Toll

Railroad Traffic Disrupted; Morgan City Hardest Hit; Crop Damage Heavy

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 26. (AP)—With four persons known to be dead and property damage estimated in excess of $2,000,000, Louisiana tonight apprehensively awaited further news from outlying districts of the passage of the tropical storm which swept in from the Gulf of Mexico last night.

Morgan City, near the mouth of the Mississippi, appeared to have borne the brunt of the storm as it raged inland. Virtually every house in the town was damaged, boats were carried away and a ferry boat swept from its moorings and crashed into a railway bridge. Damage there was estimated at $1,000,000.

One man was electrocuted in New Orleans while attempting to repair a high-voltage line, and a sailor was killed at Gulfport when he came in contact with a live wire. Another man was drowned at Frenier, fourteen miles south of Pontchatoula, when his store was inundated by flood waters.

WOMAN DROWNED

A woman was drowned in the Mississippi River above Covent. The body had not been identified late today.

By far the greater property damage was done to the rice, sugar cane, cotton and corn crops. The New Orleans States placed this damage at approximately $1,000,000. Houma, Morgan City, Pontchatoula and Hammond property damage was believed around the $500,000 mark, but no definite estimate could be made.

Graphic stories of the sweeping force of the storm were related as news came into New Orleans from outlying districts from which no communications had been received before. Plate glass windows crushed, houses swept away and many more unroofed, miles and miles of flattened sugar cane and other miles of splintered telephone and telegraph poles gave testimony of the ferocity of the storm.

Seventy passengers who spent the night aboard ferry barges in the Mississippi River when they were grounded in a mud bank as two tugs lost control of them in the storm, reached shore today when the ferry tugs loosened the barges and brought them to the east bank of the river.

CROPS DESTROYED

At Pontchatoula the gale reached a velocity of 100 miles an hour, reports said. There, at Hammond, near by, at Morgan City and at Houma residences and stores were shattered or unroofed or by the storm. Light and telephone wires were blown down and in the country districts crops were greatly damaged, in many cases rendered a total loss.

Entering the State near Morgan City, the storm swept up through the heart of the sugar-cane district, flattening the cane upon the ground. The rice crops were greatly damaged by salt water which came in from the gulf.

Trains arrived in New Orleans at intervals throughout the day after being detained from five to thirteen hours by the storm. An Illinois Central train, after spending the night at Burnside, La., arrived with windows riddled by the wind. The train was able to reach New Orleans after frequent stops for the crew to clear the track of telegraph poles and other debris. The conductor said the upper story of the railroad station at Burnside was carried away by the wind while he was in the lower floor.

At Montegut, La., the Argyle sugar refinery was reported wrecked. Vir-

GRAFT INDICTMENT LOOMS

San Diego Grand Jury Expects to Name Prominent Business Man in Fraud Investigation

BY ALBERT NATHAN
"Times" Staff Correspondent

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 26.—The first indictment in the graft investigation now being conducted here by the grand jury will probably come late Monday afternoon, according to reliable and authentic information obtained today. A local business man high in financial circles and connected indirectly with city and county business and whose name so far has not appeared in connection with the present investigation, is slated to be the first person to be indicted.

The information as to the first indictment to be returned by the grand jury leaked out this morning and was not denied by Richard Kittrelle, special deputy Attorney-General in charge of the investigation, and Mrs. M. E. Firman of the Firman Detective Agency, heading the detective forces which have been conducting the investigation here since last April.

REFUSE TO NAME HIM

Both Mr. Kittrelle and Mrs. Firman refused to name the man whose indictment is expected, and both declined to make any statement relative to the report of the coming indictment. However, they did not deny that they expect the grand jury action Monday.

In an official statement to the press Mr. Kittrelle declared that the grand jury probably will be called together by him Monday, and that evidence and testimony will be placed before that body.

"I am quite sure," stated Mr. Kittrelle, "that we will begin to take testimony and present some evidence to the grand jury Monday morning. At this time it seems impossible to get matters in shape to begin before then. I cannot say that any indictments will be returned at that time. The first few matters which will be presented to the grand jury should take more than one day, however, and some kind of action may be expected."

At the local hotel where Mrs. Firman and her force of detectives are living it was learned this morning that Harold Flemming, the superintendent of the detective agency, and two of his operatives left this city secretly late last night.

From Mrs. Firman it was learned that they had left the State for the purpose of bringing here the final link in one of the cases which they have been investigating. She declared that they will be back with the evidence within a week or ten days. No information could be obtained as to the nature of the evidence sought by Flemming.

HOLD LONG CONFERENCE

Early this morning Mr. Kittrelle and Mrs. Firman had a long conference with members of the special committee of the grand jury which has been handling the investigation and it was after this conference that the announcement was made that the entire grand jury would be called together probably Monday. From what could be learned the evidence

REGIMENT AT PLATTSBURG INSPECTED BY PRESIDENT

Coolidge Motors From Woods Camp Past Cheering Throngs to Review Citizen Troops

PLATTSBURG BARRACKS (N. Y.) Aug. 26. (AP)—Citizen soldiers—1600 strong—passed in review before President Coolidge at Plattsburg Barracks today. Carrying for the first time before the Commander-in-Chief the new colors of the Citizens' Military Training Camps, the second regiment to be trained here this summer and comprising youths from New York, Delaware and New Jersey, swung down the parade ground and by the canopied reviewing stand under which the President stood for the ceremony.

With the President on the stand were Maj.-Gen. Charles P. Summerall, commanding the Second Army Corps Area, who had come here from his headquarters, Governors Island, for the event, and staff officers attached to the President and to the general. At the head of the regiment was Col. John H. Hughes, commanding the regiment and post. All the troops were in field equipment, the new colors with their blue field, United States coat of arms and the embroidered words "Citizens' Military Training Camps" waving proudly above them in the breeze of a clear sky.

RECEIVES SALUTES

It was the first appearance of Mr. Coolidge at a public function since he left Washington on his vacation more than seven weeks ago and as he came here by automobile from his Adirondacks camp more than sixty miles away, he received a warm welcome from the citizens.

Entering Plattsburg he passed the memorial to Commodore MacDonough of the war of 1812 that was unveiled a week ago, and upon arriving at the military reservation found drawn up at present-arms the regular Twenty-sixth Infantry that won fame in France with the First Division in the World War.

The massed bands of the Twenty-sixth Infantry and the Citizens' Military Training Camp regiment played "The Star Spangled Banner" while a twenty-one-gun salute boomed out from a field battery as he alighted from his automobile to enter the home of Col. Hughes and be greeted by the post commander and Gen. Summerall. Leaving the commandant's house in a few minutes, Mr. Coolidge proceeded 100 yards to the reviewing stand and after the review entered his automobile for a drive through the company streets and an inspection of the camp.

INSPECTS MESS MENU

Upon entering a mess hall just before regular noon mess he found the tables ready for the men and the food almost prepared.

He indicated his interest by obtaining from Mess Sergeant James Harrison of the Twenty-sixth Infantry the menu for the meal, the sergeant emphasizing with pride that lemon meringue pie that was listed for dessert.

Mr. Coolidge then returned to the commandant's house for a luncheon as the guest of Col. Hughes. Those present in addition to Gen. Summerall included Col. S. A. Cheney, military aide to the President; Lieut.-Col. R. T. Finey, executive officer of the Citizens' Military Training Camp regiment, and Maj. James F. Coupal, personal physician to the President.

Mr. Coolidge left after the luncheon for the Adirondacks as a twenty-one-gun salute again rang in his ears.

CROWDS LINE ROUTE OF COOLIDGE TO PLATTSBURG

PAUL SMITH'S (N. Y.) Aug. 26. (AP) A warm welcome was accorded President Coolidge today as he passed by automobile through the Adirondacks for 140 miles in going to and returning from Plattsburg, where he reviewed the Citizens' Military Training Camp regiment.

Going over the northern route in the morning by way of Bloomingdale and the Saranac River Valley, he went through a sparsely settled region in which log houses are seen frequently but, although little advance notice of his coming that way had been given, he found the people at the doors of their houses and along the roads in villages to greet him.

The return from Plattsburg was by the southern route through a more settled but fully as picturesque region and at many places the villagers were out in force to meet him. Traveling on the return trip in the afternoon for miles along the historic shores of Lake Champlain with the Green Mountains of Vermont rising high in the distance across the water, the route took him by Ausable Chasm and through Lake Placid and Saranac Lake to Paul Smith's.

ANSWERS PLAUDITS

At Ausable Forks and at Wilmington, at the base of White Face Mountain, the greetings were especially warm, while the President found Lake Placid residents out in force with the American flag decorating the street through which he rode.

To all the greetings the President responded by raising his straw hat and bowing and smiling.

Notwithstanding his trip to Plattsburg, Mr. Coolidge found opportunity to visit the executive offices here twice during the day and attend to government business. He went there just before leaving for Plattsburg and again upon returning at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

William P. Jackson, former United States Senator and present Republican National Committeeman for Maryland, will be a guest with Mrs. Jackson of the President and Mrs. Coolidge at luncheon at White Pine Camp tomorrow. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson are spending the summer at Loon Lake, near here.

JOHNSON IN ATTACK ON GOVERNOR

Senator in Bay City Talk Says Real Fight Between Richardson and Young

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26. (AP)—United States Senator Johnson, in an address here tonight, said the real contest for the nomination for Governor at the forthcoming primary election is between Gov. Richardson and C. C. Young, and that the election will determine whether "transportation and power companies and public service corporations shall continue in control or whether California's government shall be returned to the people."

Speaking before a gathering in the Dreamland Rink Building, Senator Johnson said:

"It's the old, old contest between the people on the one hand and the exploiting corporations upon the other; the contest is narrowest to one between Richardson and Young. There are no other real contenders."

Senator Johnson charged that California's humanitarian agencies and institutions have been crippled under Gov. Richardson's administration and that Gov. Richardson's claim to an "economic" schedule are without foundation.

He also said that World War veterans have been denied recognition and that aid to agriculturists "has been cynically refused."

"There has been enthusiastic and ready compliance with the request of but one class, the public service corporations."

Senator Johnson, who is stumping the State in opposition to United States Senator Shortridge and in advocacy of Judge Robert J. Cloke, Republican aspirant, said "the same elements contend in the State of California for the United States Senatorship. Here a record is presented in the page of the Congressional record by Senator Shortridge that shrieks allegiance to insidious corporate power and sinister aggregations of wealth demanding exploitations of government."

DEATH TOLL IN STORM IS FOUR

tually all roads in that section were under several feet of water and considerable loss of life was feared.

Two Morgan City ferry-boat watchmen who had been missing, were accounted for tonight. They had not been injured. Several telegraph and telephone lines were also in operation again tonight.

MORGAN CITY SUFFERS GREATLY

MORGAN CITY (La.) Aug. 26. (AP) Morgan City is a wreck tonight. Damage estimated at $1,000,000 was wrought by the storm which swept Morgan City from the Gulf of Mexico last night, bringing winds which attained a velocity of 100 miles an hour and tides which swept away boats anchored at what were considered safe spots.

Buildings were torn away, windows smashed, roofs thrown off and even bricks torn out of the walls by the force of the wind. In the height of the storm fire broke out and but for the torrent of rain which accompanied the storm would have made the destruction of the city complete. Two buildings were destroyed before the fire was extinguished.

The ferry boat plying between Morgan City and Berwick was torn from its moorings, swept into the steel bridge of the Southern Pacific and demolished.

Virtually every building in the city, both business and residential, was damaged by the storm.

JANITOR KILLS WOMAN AND ENDS OWN LIFE

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 26. (AP)—J. W. Atkins, 50 years of age, a janitor, today shot and killed Viola Wells, 28, his landlady, and then killed himself. He left a note saying: "I'm leaving for good. I cannot help it. I am responsible. No one else is to blame."

LINER HITS ROCKS AT SPANISH PORT

CORUNNA (Spain) Aug. 26. (AP)—The French trans-Atlantic liner Espagne suffered considerable damage to her hull today when she struck the rocks on entering the port here. There were no casualties. Passengers and crew were reported all well. The steamer will remain here for repairs before proceeding.

SHIP BOARD TO SELL TWO LINES

Purchase or Charter Bids to be Called For

Leviathan and Washington Are Included

Offers Must be Received by November 8

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—The Shipping Board today approved plans of its ship-sales committee providing for advertisement for sale or charter of the United States Lines and the American Merchant Lines. The advertisement will be published throughout the United States beginning some time next week. Bids may be submitted up to noon November 8.

Although the advertisement calling for bids will be published next week, the specifications on which bids must be submitted will not be ready for prospective bidders until September 15. The reason for the delay is that there are so many details to incorporate in the specifications, officials said.

Chairman O'Connor, after the meeting of the board today, announced that the board had considered and authorized advertisement calling for sealed bids from American citizens "for the acquisition by purchase or charter of the vessels now operated for the Shipping Board on the United States Lines as follows:

LIST OF SHIPS

Leviathan, George Washington, Republic, President Harding and President Roosevelt.

And for the following vessels now operated for the Shipping Board on the American Merchant Lines:

American Trader, American Banker, American Merchant, American Farmer and American Shipper.

The advertisement will also call for sealed proposals from American citizens for the purchase or charter of the America, Mount Vernon and Agamemnon, ex-German passenger liners, "as is" and "where is." These vessels all need reconditioning and the purchasers will have to recondition them before putting them in service. The America was seriously damaged by fire and withdrawn from service with the United States Lines. The other two vessels have been laid up for months. The board recently decided to withhold action on reconditioning the America and Mount Vernon until it was developed whether private interests would buy the United States alone and the America and Mount Vernon for operation in the North Atlantic passenger service.

REQUIRE GUARANTEE

In authorizing publication of the advertisement, the board announced that in the event of unsatisfactory bids or in the event that no bid is accepted, the United States Lines and the American Merchant Lines will be continued in operation.

Officials said today that bidders would be required to guarantee ten years of service on either of the lines. The terms will be 25 per cent and the balance in ten years.

Irrevocable letters of credit may be given in lieu of cash. Prospective bidders may come to Washington and inspect the results of operation of the lines.

Bidders will be invited to submit offers on the basis of outright purchase, charter, or on the basis of any other proposal bidders may desire to submit.

The date for receipt of bids was set as November 8, next, to give prospective bidders an opportunity to inspect the ships of the two lines at New York. Each of the vessels will have been in New York by that time.

Andrews Calls Regional Chiefs for Conference

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26. (AP)—Returning here today from a trip to Vermont, Assistant Secretary Andrews, of the Treasury, in charge of prohibition enforcement, sent out the formal notification to prohibition administrators of the enforcement conference to be held here September 20.

Gen. Andrews intends to map out finally at this conference his plans for the future administration of the law.

After a meeting with Acting Secretary Winston today, Mr. Andrews indicated he will await the trial of Col. Green, San Francisco administrator, on a charge of embezzlement of liquor before taking further action in that case. Green is under suspension.

aliers, were greeted by cheering thousands along the three-mile line of march.

At the head of the division was Dwight Murphy, owner of most of the mounts and president of the fiesta board of directors.

William Gibbs McAdoo, himself an excellent horseman, was next in line with Congressman Arthur M. Free. Adolfo Camarillo on his Arabian stallion and A. L. Hobson, wealthiest man in Ventura county, headed the Ventura unit.

Behind the horsemen came a division of vehicles used in the early Spanish era. First were two ox carts, carritas, laden with beautiful senoritas. Following were several donkey carts and phaetons such as were used when Spain was at its height of power.

FREMONT'S FORCES

The Bear Flag Party, Native Sons, formed the first American section of the parade, but the entrance of Gen. John C. Fremont, whose army raised the Stars and Stripes, brought forth a ringing ovation. Santa Barbara Lodge of Eagles formed the Fremont army. Behind them came miners, covered wagons, early-day scouts, guides and trappers.

The old stage coach, owned by Joel Remington Fithian, said to be one of two of the original coaches used in the days of '49 still in private hands, was entered, filled with early-day pioneers.

The program has been arranged with something doing every minute until midnight Saturday.

CLIMBS TO 'HEAVEN'S EDGE'

Thrilling Mount Through Frigid Space in Height Record Flight Described by French Birdman

BY JEAN CALLIZO

[Copyright, 1926, in United States and Great Britain and all other countries by North American Newspaper Alliance.]

PARIS, Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—My record has been verified and it is now certain that in my altitude test Monday I reached a height higher than any ever attained before by a flyer, a height of 12,442 meters (about 40,820 feet,) 376 meters higher than the previous record.

I began my flight on Monday because the government meteorological bureau advised me that atmospheric conditions were ideal for my attempt. I felt in marvelous physical condition and I realized that the day I had prepared for for a year had come. I only decided to fly at the last minute because until then I was afraid of the clouds, but at 2000 meters I saw a hole in the clouds toward the east and headed toward it. This closed as I approached, but I then saw another hole to the north and at 4000 meters I was in fair weather.

EARTH BECOMES CONCAVE

I could no longer distinguish cities from countrys; only the rivers appeared like silver threads. At 10,000 meters they too disappeared and the entire earth appeared dull-colored, concave and saucer-like. A little farther up mist blotted out everything. Experience had taught me to use my oxygen mask beyond 4500 meters. Above that height I breathed pure oxygen just as my 450-horsepower Lorraine Dietrich motor did. It is always sunny up there but very cold. My last observation on my thermometer showed the mercury at 50 deg. below zero centigrade (58 deg. below zero Fahrenheit.) I couldn't see how much colder it got because the mercury sunk out of sight below the armature holding the thermometer. I was 11,500 meters up when I last saw the mercury.

Although I wore four pairs of gloves, silk, wool and a leather and fleece combination, my fingers were numbed. My feet were in paper socks covered with boots lined with lamb's wool. I wore paper underclothes and three woolen sweaters. However, the intense cold caused shooting pains in the frontal sinus and the back of my neck ached furiously as if a great load were resting there, causing me to stick my head forward like a turtle. I kept my eyeballs from freezing with wool-edged goggles. However, my eyes felt heavy and I had a consuming desire to sleep.

GREAT INTERNAL PRESSURE

Up there one has a feeling exactly the reverse of that of a diver deep under water. The pressure inside me was greater than the atmospheric pressure outside. I felt myself puffed out and deformed. Nevertheless, I was always conscious and I saw the queer, deep, dark blueness of a cloudless and mistless sky; a far deeper blue than that seen from the earth's surface.

I constantly watched the writing of the barograph. I could feel the tightening of the contracting metal parts of the plane. When the barograph read close to 12,800 meters I knew that despite any inaccuracies that might be checked on it I had broken the record. I might possibly have gone higher, but I was uncomfortable enough where I was. My ears buzzed and rang and my lungs, face and head seemed to be bursting. Gliding down into a constantly denser atmosphere my sleepiness left me and I became excited somewhat as one does in the early stages of intoxication.

I can't sleep properly yet and I feel everything mixed up inside me. Over the air field I was compelled to hang a long time at 500 meters. It was necessary to readjust my entire perspective confused by the physical effects of the altitude, otherwise I might have crashed. Mounting to the edge of heaven is not an easy job.

Condemned Los Angeles Slayer Will Leave Money to Charity When He Hangs

SAN QUENTIN, Aug. 26. (AP)—A man who is sentenced to be hanged September 10, next, at San Quentin prison today decided to give more than his life in expiation of his crime.

Isaac Wolfgang, elderly slayer of a Los Angeles policeman, told Warden Smith that he wishes to give all of his worldly possessions, $64 in money, to charity, preferably to some little orphan.

"And, by the way, warden, it might be just as well not to let anybody know where the money came from," Wolfgang said.

now in Mr. Kittrelle's hands involves so many different angles of the San Diego political and official life that it will be presented to the grand jury as eight or nine separate and distinct cases. As a result, it is said here that the expected indictments will be returned one at a time over a period of a number of weeks.

Members of the special committee of the grand jury seen at their offices today declined to make any statements. All of them, however, declared themselves as satisfied with the investigation so far and stated that it will be carried through to a conclusion.

With the exception of another political advertisement which appeared in all the local papers this morning and signed by Dist.-Atty. Kempley, no statement was forthcoming from the Kempley camp.

JURY FINANCES INVESTIGATION

Early in the day, however, Mr. Kempley, who was declared by Atty.-Gen. Webb to be "disqualified" to carry on the present investigation, announced that he probably will make a statement to the press within the next few days. He declined to comment in person on the actions of the grand jury, but announced that he knows of no reason why he should be disqualified to handle the investigation. The present investigation was put under way, according to various members of the grand jury, early in last April. The Pirman Detective Agency was employed and the expenses made up by the grand jury and a number of prominent business men. After a large amount of evidence had been gathered, it was placed before Atty.-Gen. Webb by the grand jury and it was then that Mr. Kittrelle was selected by Mr. Webb and appointed to take full and complete charge of the entire matter. Kittrelle came to San Diego last Saturday.

According to rumor and report here, and not denied by the grand jury, Mr. Kittrelle or Mrs. Pirman, at least eight city and county officials have been under investigation, as well as a number of local business men who have had dealings with the officials. No direct information relative to the nature of the investigation or the evidence gathered has been given out by any of the authorities. However, all of the authorities involved in making the investigation say that a number of indictments will, in all probability, be returned.

FILM WORLD TO PAUSE AS ITS TRIBUTE

Valentino Will be Honored by Industry Monday at Hour of Funeral

In tribute to Rudolph Valentino, every member of the motion-picture industry in Los Angeles will pause for two minutes Monday at 10 a.m., the hour at which funeral services for the actor will be conducted in New York.

Decision to pay this honor to Valentino's memory was reached yesterday by the Association of Motion-Picture Producers, Inc., and the word has been passed on to all the studios.

It will be the first time in the history of the film industry that such a tribute has been paid to a former member.

An earlier memorial service will be conducted at the Breakfast Club this morning. The hour has been set at 8:30 a.m. According to President Maurice DeMond, Valentino's riderless horse, led by two of his closest friends, Norman Kerry and George Fitzmaurice, will play an important part in the memorial.

A prayer will be offered, Alexander Kisselberg will sing "Adieu," and the Orpheus Four will render "Lead, Kindly Light" and "Nearer My God, to Thee." There will be a vacant seat at the open-air horseshoe table, with a wreath of flowers in honor of Valentino's memory.

John H. Blair will be host of the morning and among other guests will be Secretary of Labor Davis, former Mayor Armstrong of Pittsburgh, former Mayor Browning of Baltimore, Albert H. Ladner, potentate of the Lulu Temple of the Mystic Shrine in Philadelphia, Judge Dondes of Camden, N. J., Rex Goodcell and Superior Judge Holizer.

Check to Pay Insurance on Rudy Arrives

Just fifteen months ago Rudolph Valentino was examined by eight Los Angeles physicians headed by Dr. H. E. Schiffbauer, medical referee for the Missouri State Life Insurance Company, and found to be in perfect health. This became known yesterday when Roy Denny, local manager of the Missouri company, announced that his company is ready to pay a $200,000 life insurance policy which was taken on the life of the motion picture star by the Feature Productions, Inc.

The actor was named in the policy as Rudolph Valentino Guglielmi, which is his real name.

Mr. Denny said the policy was placed with the Missouri Life Insurance Company through Behrendt-Levy Company of this city. The Feature Productions, Inc., paid $6860 on the policy. John Considine, Jr., is president of the motion-picture company that held the policy.

Officials Deny Thompson Will Look Over China

PAUL SMITH'S (N. Y.) Aug. 26. (AP) Published reports from Manila that Carmi Thompson of Ohio, who is making an economic survey of the Philippines for President Coolidge, was soon going to China for a similar survey led officials at the summer White House to say that any such plan was unknown to the President. Mr. Thompson, it was added, is not going to China on any mission for the President, and no investigation there has been authorized or is desired.

California Subjects to Invest in Mexico

TOKIO, Aug. 27. (Exclusive)—Japan has not changed her emigration policy, as cabled abroad and lauded in England and America and elsewhere. She has merely been forced, temporarily, to abandon her assistance to her emigrants because of impecunity, says the Osaka Maipichi, Japan's largest paper, in its English edition today.

"Japan has an emigration policy," it says, "decided upon as the result of a thorough-going study of all phases of the question by an especially appointed body, but on account of the present retrenchment policy it has not been operated."

It adds that Japan is concentrating on emigration and enlarging her manufacturing enterprises in South America and Mexico.

Several Japanese residents of California are planning to invest $1,500,000 on colonization in Mexico. Others plan a $500,000 plantation project on 14,000 acres in San Luis Potosi, Mex., and others are planning similar projects near Mexico City.

Preparations are being made for extensive emigration to Mexico, and 6000 adults are expected to be sent to Brazil this next year.

The last Diet voted 800,000 yen for Brazilian emigrants, despite retrenchment, and it is expected to be greater this year.

The same newspaper features on the front page a story that many California-born Japanese are being forced to renounce Japanese citizenship to avoid persecution of all kinds at the hands of Americans. It says that those California Japanese retaining dual citizenship often are appealing to Tokio to intercede in their behalf. This story is based on letters received by the families of such Japanese here and therefore should be taken with a grain of salt as the Japanese who renounce their Japanese citizenship are despised by family and former friends. So they write home that they must take such action to avoid "persecution" to retain the family respect.

Chugai Shogyo, leading Tokio business men's paper, is highly incensed by Mr. Davis's Vancouver speech, calling it an attack upon Japan immigrants in a third country and therefore a breach of international comity.

Investigation of Fed Brings General Ef Under Federal Eye

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26 (AP)—Investigation of the radio industry being undertaken by the Federal Trade Commission in connection with its general inquiry into conditions in the Senate of a General Electric monopoly in this country.

While officials of the commission declined today to discuss the inquiry, it is known that they are especially interested in a new contract entered into by the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, the Radio Corporation of America, the General Electric Company and the Western Electric Company and the Westinghouse Company.

The principal target of the commission's contract is reported to be the one given to the American Telephone and Telegraph to develop the broadcasting of telephone.

Relinquishment by the Westinghouse company of its broadcasting station at Washington and New York to the Radio Corporation came at about the same times the new agreements were entered into.

near the coffin. But the plan did not work.

The young women were told they might leave their flowers if they wished but they could not enter the room where Valentino lay. Invariably the flowers were left but there were grudging expressions on the faces of the donors.

The Fascist guard which had stood beside the bier was withdrawn today as the police brought peace to the threatening situation which had developed when anti-Fascists remonstrated.

"I permitted the Fascists to stand guard," Mr. Ullman explained "only because I thought Rudy would have liked it. He was always afraid that Mussolini didn't approve of him and this seemed like proof that there was no basis for this fear."

Only a handful of Valentino's friends will be admitted to the funeral services. St. Malachi's Church has room for only 543 and Mr. Ullman has decided to limit cards of admission to 500 persons.

An offer by Natacha Rembova, Valentino's second wife, to permit his body to be placed in the family vault of Richard Hudnut, her foster father, was declined by Mr. Ullman.

A complete list of the honorary pallbearers made public by Mr. Ullman includes Joseph M. Schenck, Adolph Zukor, Marcus Loew, Hiram Abrams, Will H. Hays, Nicholas Schenck, Joseph M. Quirk, Michael Romano, Frank Menillo, Douglas Fairbanks, Sidney Kent, Richard Rowland, Rex Ingram and Mal St. Clair. The Italian Ambassador to Washington also has been invited to serve.

The casket was closed at midnight tonight and it will not be reopened unless the dead actor's brother desires to view the body before burial. Mr. Ullman said the casket will not be reopened for anyone but the brother.

ACTRESS FRIEND OF RUDY FOUND DEAD

LONDON, Aug. 26. (AP)—The Daily Mirror says Peggy Scott, an actress 27 years of age, who was a friend of Rudolph Valentino, was found dead in her flat in London yesterday. The newspaper does not give the cause of the young woman's death, but it says she had been intensely affected by the death of Valentino, whom she greatly admired.

The Mirror quotes a friend of Miss Scott as saying that she and Valentino met while spending a vacation at Biarritz, that they were often together and at one time there was a rumor of a love affair between them.

Many autographed photos of Valentino were found in the woman's flat, according to the newspaper, which adds that the police took possession of a number of letters.

The Daily Mirror says that Miss Scott, who had acted in motion pictures as well as on the stage, had been in London only a short time.

CATHOLIC BURIAL FOR VALENTINO EXPLAINED

NEW YORK, Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—It was explained today by the Catholic authorities that the reason why Rudolph Valentino, motion-picture actor, can have a requiem mass in a Roman Catholic Church although he was twice divorced by the civil courts, was because he had on neither occasion contracted a valid marriage, according to the Catholic Church, as far as could be learned, and also because before his death he saw a priest and made confession.

Mr. Valentino was married to each of his two wives by a civil ceremony only, so in the eyes of the Catholic Church he was not married to either. Had a priest performed either ceremony the marriage would have been binding, under the church laws.

The canon law also is that when a Catholic shows sorrow and asks forgiveness for a sin and promises on recovery to cease that sin, he receives a pardon. Having received the last sacraments he is entitled to Catholic burial.

CHICAGO GROUP PLANS FOR SERVICES

CHICAGO, Aug. 26. (AP)—At the time of funeral services in New York Monday for Rudolph Valentino, memorial services for the dead actor will be conducted at a large Chicago ball room, the Rudolph Valentino Memorial Association of Chicago announced today.

The services will be coincidental with those in New York.

The association was organized today, with a judge, the State's Attorney and three others as its incorporators. It plans to erect a monument to Valentino in some city park.

"It is there as proof positive ... there has been economy, ef... and business methods in the ... government during the past three years and a half. It has been saved to the taxpayers by the wise use of a veto of appropriations and the curbing of expenses in all the various departments of the State.

"It has been charged that a portion of this money came from the franchise tax suits; but in any event the amount has not been squandered and is in the Treasury. Further, the amount received from the franchise tax suits was $6,316,000, so that there still remains almost $10,000,000 of surplus which was obtained from sources other than that."

GIRL STUDENT KILLED BY AUTO IN OAKLAND

OAKLAND, Aug. 26. (AP)—Miss Georgie Grimshaw, 18 years of age, of Hanford, a student at the Fresno State Teachers' College, was killed here today by an automobile when she was alighting from a street car. The driver of the machine, David Dunn, a Chinese, was held.

AMERICAN AVIATOR RETURNS TO SANTIAGO

SANTIAGO (Chile) Aug. 27. (AP)—Lieut. James H. Doolittle, the American aviator, has returned to Santiago from his flight to La Paz, Bolivia, by way of Antofagasta and back. Going and coming the aviator had to cross the Andes Mountains at an altitude of 15,000 feet.

GRANDMA, 90, BUT "SHE'S MY BABY"

So Sings Grandpa West After Sixty-five Years of Marital Harmony

CHICAGO, Aug. 26. (AP)—"Yes, sir. She's my baby," Grandpa West, 89 years of age, sang to Grandma West, 90, while they celebrated their sixty-fifth wedding anniversary. "Music, that's the stuff," grandpa said. "We've always had harmony in the home, never discord, and life's been just one grand symphony for us."

EMISSARY OF HEAVEN DISDAINFUL

Young Hindu Disapproves of American Materialism and Advises Culture

NEW YORK, Aug. 26. (AP)—Followers of Jiddu Krishnamurti, whom theosophists hail as the bearer of a message from God, reclaimed him today from reporters and photographers who formed the greater part of his "reception committee" when he arrived in America.

After a day spent walking about the lobby of his hotel and giving interviews to reporters the Hindu, whose advent is planned to bring a spiritual rebirth to America, was greeted tonight by theosophists at a private meeting in the Princess Theater.

Culture is the greatest need of Americans, Krishnaji—as his followers call him—told reporters.

Mrs. Annie Besant, president of the International Theosophical Society and discoverer of the "vehicle of the voice of the Godhead," did not attend the press levy at which Krishnamurti voiced his disapproval of "the materialism of America."

"There are thousands of lawyers and only a few hundred artists here," he said, "students are turned out of college like machines. You neglect education and art, but as a people you are blind."

The "harbinger of a great spiritual revival" will leave tomorrow morning for Chicago in a private car. With him will travel Mrs. Besant and followers who accompanied him from India. His own cook will prepare his vegetarian meals en route.

ANGELENO DIES AT CARD GAME ON BOAT

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—George W. Paugh, 76 years of age, a resident of Los Angeles, dropped dead while playing bridge with fellow passengers on the steamer H. F. Alexander, en route to this port from Seattle Wednesday afternoon. Death was due to a heart attack. The body was turned over to the local Coroner's office upon the arrival of the vessel here this morning. The man's Los Angeles address was found to be 2035 West Forty-ninth street, according to private papers on his person.

CRISSY FIELD MAY GET AIR-MAIL SERVICE POST

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26. (AP)—The San Francisco postal authorities were notified by the Postoffice Department today that Verne Gorst, who holds a contract for an air-mail service between Seattle and San Diego, may establish an intermediate stop for his service at Crissy Field, the military airport here.

TWO MAY DIE IN STRIKE WAR

Violence Again Flares Up in San Francisco

Terrorist Squadron Makes Vicious Attacks

Nonunion Men Set Upon and Beaten by Mob

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—Two men may die and three others are suffering from serious body injuries as a result of a new flare-up of the smouldering carpenters' strike today in which a flying squadron of fifteen men perpetrated the most vicious assaults in the long list of strike violence and terrorized the nonunion carpenters who escaped unhurt.

The injured are: Giovani Chiaffe, contracting builder, possible fracture of the skull, multiple cuts and bruises of the head, face and body; John Guffo, carpenter, possible fractured skull, multiple lacerations and abrasions of the head and body; Eugene Chiaffe, contractor, brother of Giovanni, lacerated scalp, body bruises; D. N. Grove, carpenter, multiple cuts, bruises and abrasions, and P. A. Dorcett, carpenter, cuts, bruises and abrasions of the face, head, body and limbs.

VICIOUS ATTACK

The two Chiaffe brothers and Guffo, an employee, were waylaid at Chestnut and Leavenworth streets this morning by the squadron of three terror cars filled with strike sympathizers. The occupants of the three machines, estimated at fifteen men, set upon the three and beat, kicked and tramped them viciously.

Chiaffe and his brother and a carpenter fought in a desperate triangle against the mob but soon went down to the ground under the boots of their attackers. Eugene Chiaffe rose and was able to run for aid. He found a policeman but before they could return to the scene, both of the men had been beaten and kicked into unconsciousness and their assailants fled in the three automobiles.

Police believe they have a clew to the perpetrators of the outrage and expect an arrest tomorrow. Nino Cicilio, 10-year-old school boy, witnessed the beating and marked down the license number of one of the strike sympathizers' cars on his school tablet.

TWO BEATEN

The next violence scored by the fifteen attackers was at Maple street and Geneva avenue where Grove and Dorcett were viciously beaten in front of the partially completed bungalows on which they were employed.

Both men were taken to St. Luke's Hospital. They are feared to have more serious internal hurts than the first diagnosis revealed.

The third outbreak of the day was the attack of an automobile load of strike sympathizers upon a bungalow in construction at Seventeenth and Alabama streets. The four or five occupants of the car jumped out and seized rocks and pelted the building where a dozen carpenters were at work.

SYMINGTON DISREGARDS TRIAL ORDER

Refuses Service on Writ Issued in New York to Halt Divorce Action

BELAIRE (Md.) Aug. 26. (AP)—A messenger with a document purporting to be a New York court order made an unsuccessful attempt to halt testimony in Thomas H. Symington's suit for absolute divorce from Mrs. Ida May Symington in Harford county Circuit Court today. The messenger approached Symington on the Courthouse steps, offering the document.

"See my lawyer," the club man snapped, and sidestepped.

Two witnesses were called at the afternoon session of the court. Byron Kadle, a consulting engineer, testified that it was necessary for Mr. Symington to live in Maryland for business reasons. Dr. Edward Pope of New York, who was identified as a friend of the Symingtons, testified that Mrs. Symington had once told him she had been unfaithful to her husband and asked him to intercede with Symington for her.

The Harford county suit is Mr. Symington's second attempt to obtain a divorce. His first was filed in New York but dismissed.

Mrs. Symington has filed no answer to the Maryland suit but is attempting through the New York courts to halt it.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26. (AP)—Justice Walsh reserved decision today on the application of Mrs. Ida May Symington for a Supreme Court order restraining her husband, Thomas H. Symington, from proceeding with his divorce action in the courts of Maryland. Symington's suit in New York county will be on the fall calendar for a second trial, his application for permission to discontinue it having been denied. At the first trial Justice Ford directed a verdict in favor of Mrs. Symington, but this was reversed by the appellate division and the second trial ordered.

Japanese Sect Founder Will Visit America

HONOLULU, Aug. 26. (AP)—Tenko Nishida, founder of "Ittoen" and known as the "Socrates of Japan," is here to spread the doctrines of his sect. He teaches that there should be life without conflict and that "labor is prayer and prayer is labor."

The 66-year-old exponent of the life of Ittoen, or life of repentance, expects to invade the United States with his doctrines, sailing for San Francisco September 28.

Although he had paid for his passage he helped wash decks and did other work en route, practicing his preachments of labor. His wife performed similar work, cleaning the smoking room of the s... each morning on the trip here from Japan.

FEARS TRIP MAY UPSET BUDGET

Rumanian Cabinet Frowns on Proposed Journey of Queen Marie

LONDON, Aug. 26. (AP)—The Rumanian Cabinet is making a hard fight against the proposed trip of Queen Marie to the United States on the ground that the Rumanian currency is so low that the trip would unbalance the year's budget. Many a family man has advanced that argument time out of mind on certain trips of his better half, and he never made any headway. So the betting favors Queen Marie.

Kin of Vallejo Denies Charges of Check Deal

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 26. (AP)—Mrs. Mauria Correa, grand niece of Gen. Vallejo, first military Governor of California, protested her innocence today when she was arraigned before United States Commissioner Brown here, on a charge of cashing a worthless check under the guise of being attached to the United States Shipping Board. Mrs. Correa also strenuously objected to the "alias Hazel King" used in the complaint. The hearing will be continued tomorrow.

Mrs. Correa, who is said to have been socially prominent in the bay cities and Northern California, was modishly gowned in court today. L. D. Wine, special agent of the Department of Justice, testified that Mrs. Correa had passed a check for $44 on a San Francisco shop last May. Wine said that Mrs. Correa had admitted in jail this morning, that she had passed the check knowing it was worthless. She vehemently denied this.

Commissioner Brown fixed Mrs. Correa's bail at $10,000.

Albania Denies Press Reports of Revolution

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26. (AP)—The Albanian Minister has made public an official cablegram from Tirana denying reports that a revolution had developed in Albania. The message, sent by the Albanian Minister of Foreign Affairs, said:

"The news published by the Italian newspaper Corriere Della Sera that a pretended revolution has broken out in Northern Albania and that detachments of the Albanian army have crossed the frontier and entered Jugo-Slavia is absolutely baseless and defamatory. In Albania reigns perfect tranquillity and we give to this news a decided denial."

AMERICA-PARIS FLIGHT TO BE SEPTEMBER 21

NEW YORK, Aug. 26. (AP)—Capt. Rene Fonck, French ace and Lieut. Allen P. Snody of the United States Navy have named September 21 as the tentative date of their hop off for Paris. This date was chosen because, if weather conditions are favorable, there will be a full moon to light them on their way. If the weather is unfavorable they will start as soon as possible after September 21 they said.

BURNS OF HOT SPRING FATAL TO MINISTER

LIVINGSTON (Mont.) Aug. 26. (AP) Wandering into a hot spring while walking in the dark, Rev. Gilbert A. Eakins, 27 years of age, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church at Saratoga Springs, Wyo., received burns from which he died. Forest rangers rendered first aid but Eakins died in an ambulance on the way to Mammoth.

CANDIDATES WARNED TO FILE COSTS LISTS

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 26. (AP)—Candidates for nomination at next Tuesday's primary election were reminded by the Secretary of State today that they must file reports of their campaign expenses within fifteen days after the election. A blank form for receipts and expenditures was mailed to each candidate.

SPAIN DEMANDS TANGIER REIGN

Asks French Release of Rights in District

Threaten Appeal to League If Request Denied

Italy Takes Hand Pointing Treaty Conditions

PARIS, Aug. 26. (AP)—The French government has received a memorandum from Spain expressing the desire of that country that the international district of Tangier be attached to the Spanish zone in Morocco.

The French Cabinet is considering the question brought up by Spain, but it is generally conceded in political circles that France's reply will be an absolute refusal.

The Spanish memorandum says that if it should be found unfeasible to make a transfer of authority in Tangier from international to Spanish administration in any other way, that Spain will ask the League of Nations to give her a mandate over the district along with the whole Spanish zone in Morocco.

POINT NEED OF RULE

Spain's request that administration of the district be confided to her alone, instead of to an international body, is based on her feeling that it is necessary for the Spanish government to have such control of Tangier as to enable her to prevent the smuggling of contraband arms, which were largely responsible for the prolongation of the Riffian war.

The document reached the French Foreign Office on Tuesday evening, but was kept secret until today because of the desire to give the Cabinet a chance to act on it before it was discussed in the press.

It is understood that the memorandum was handed to the United States and other signatories of the Treaty of Algeciras, by which Tangier was internationalized, except Germany, Austria and Russia, a few days before it reached Paris. The delay in transmission to the French government thus far has not been explained.

SULTAN IS INDEPENDENT

Comment in official circles today indicated that it was impossible either to hand over administration of Tangier to Spain alone by direct action of the powers interested or for the League of Nations to accord Spain a mandate.

It was pointed out that the Sultan of Morocco is an independent sovereign, who, alone is able to delegate powers of administration over his territory. A protectorate was granted France by the Sultan over all of Morocco. France then came to an understanding with Spain as to the zone which should be attributed to her. It was recalled today that responsibility for the exercise of a protectorate, as far as the Sultan is concerned, rests on France. The Sultan and the French government, therefore, it is held, are the parties with whom Spain must deal regarding the zone outside Tangier. As to the city itself, the Sultan, France and the powers interested in the agreement by which it was internationalized may have their word in the matter but the question is entirely outside the jurisdiction of the League.

QUESTION EXCITES INTEREST

The question of the future of Tangier has become of keen interest in European circles, especially since the Spanish Premier, Gen. Primo De Rivera, gave out an interview in which he expressed the belief that the international city should be included in the Spanish zone in Morocco.

Italy reacted quickly to the interview, a Cabinet member declaring that any solution of the Tangier question which does not include consideration of Italy's rights as a signer of the Treaty of Algeciras and as a Mediterranean power would be protested to the League of Nations.

Recent dispatches from Tangier indicated that there is a general discontent among the Spanish and native populations. A dispatch to the Daily Mail on the 19th inst. said that a British destroyer, the Splendid, was at Tangier and that French warships were expected to arrive from Casa Blanca. Great Britain, France and Spain were the central negotiators in the treaty which provided for the international administration of the city and district.

PARK BODY HAS BIRTHDAY

National Service Marks Tenth Anniversary of Its Founding by Act of Congress

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—The National Park Service of the Department of the Interior yesterday celebrated its tenth anniversary.

The national park service was created by Act of Congress August 25, 1916. Within the year following its creation the present head of the park service, Stephen T. Mather was appointed by Secretary Lane. Since that time Dr. Mather has spent all his energy and time in expanding the work of the park service and the improvement of the national parks. He has made the parks the playground of the people. It is impossible to disassociate the parks and Director Mather.

PRIOR TO 1916

Prior to 1916 the administration of the national parks and national monuments was delegated by the Secretary of the Interior to one of the subdivisions of his office. In that year there were fourteen national parks and eighteen national monuments. The creation of the National Park Service in 1916 brought them under the administration of a superintendent. Since 1916 the number of parks has been increased until now there are nineteen national parks and thirty-two national monuments. In addition four other national parks have been authorized by Congress as soon as certain conditions can be complied with.

The national parks began to grow in popularity as soon as the new bureau was established. The close of the 1916 travel year saw a total of 356,097 visitors to the parks and monuments. Travel in such proportions was then considered large. While complete travel figures for the 1926 season will not be available until October it is estimated that this year there will be more than 2,300,000 visitors, making a tremendous travel movement in this country with the national parks as the objective.

During the past ten years special emphasis has been placed by the National Park Service in establishing facilities such as hotels, camps and transportation for the convenience and comfort of the public.

Free public camps have been installed in the parks and with the co-operation of the Public Health Service, modern sanitation has been provided. Roads and trails have been developed and improved to facilitate travel by motor car and horseback. These are being expanded as rapidly as possible in order to meet the terrific increase in automobile travel.

Special attention has been given the past few years to the development of the educational opportunities in the parks by the establishment of museums and a nature guide service notably in Yosemite Park, Cal., which have met with popular approval. The use made of these educational facilities indicates that they will become part of the most valuable developments in the National Park Service.

—how many times have you had this thought?

If I were sure that a beach club had enough frontage, so that I and my family could be assured of a certain measure of privacy---and that the people I would meet would be my kind of people---that if I was hungry I could get some good food at a reasonable price, and served fairly quickly---also that I could park my car at or somewhere near my club, I would join.

The Crystal Pier Club is such a club.

It has the right location, midway between Ocean Park and Santa Monica Piers, 457 by 165 feet of beach frontage, is planned correctly, and offers you and your family a lifetime of healthful recreation.

It is a sound investment and will pay enormous dividends in health and happiness.

GREEK PEOPLE SEEK COALITION

Cabinet from All Factions Asked at Meeting

Obstructors to Plan Face Lynching by Masses

Gen. Condylis Asserts No Compromise Possible

ATHENS, Aug. 26. (AP)—A huge mass meeting in Constitution Square has passed a resolution demanding that there shall be a coalition Cabinet in Greece. The chairman of the meeting, M. Hadjikiriakos, later presented the resolution to Admiral Coundouriotis, who has resumed his Presidential powers. He told the President that the meeting had commissioned him to say that the people of Greece will repudiate any party leaders who obstruct the formation of a coalition government, which it is believed alone can save the country from further catastrophes. He said there are even some persons among the crowd prepared to lynch obstructors of the demand.

Admiral Coundouriotis replied that he fully shares the people's desire, but that unfortunately there is little prospect of agreement between the political leaders.

MINISTERS OPPOSE MOVE

The leaders later conferred at the Presidential Palace. There was a large attendance. The insistent demand of the people apparently influenced some of them to favor the demand, but Constantine Demerdjis, former Minister of Marine, and M. Tsaldaris, former Minister of Communications, opposed it. Tsaldaris declared he will only agree if M. Demerdjis is made Premier, in which case he himself will accept the portfolio of War and Marine.

Gen. Condylis, through whose coup the Pangalos government was ousted, maintains that a coalition can only be formed under his premiership. All his efforts to move his opponents failed, and Admiral Coundouriotis thereupon announced that the only course is to intrust Condylis with the formation of a business cabinet on condition that elections be held not later than October.

EXILE RETURNS

Gen. Plastiras, who headed the revolutionary committee which deposed King Constantine in 1922 and expelled King George in 1925, but who subsequently was himself deported on suspicion of plotting against the government, is to be allowed to return to Greece. It is said that he arrived at Gratzko, Jugo-Slavia, traveling toward Greece, but the Jugo-Slav government stopped him and consulted the Greek legation. The question was referred to Gen. Condylis, who replied that now that tyranny had been abolished in Greece Plastiras may return home.

Gen. Pangalos has been interned at the fortress prison Izeddin on the Island of Crete. Gen. Pangalos was transferred to the fortress in order to frustrate any possible effort to effect his escape. He had been held on the Island of Aegina since his arrest several days ago.

London Music to be Broadcast in This Country

LONDON, Aug. 26. (AP)—David Sarnoff, general manager of the Radio Corporation of America, today announced that he has completed arrangements with the British Broadcasting Company by which regular radio programs will be broadcast for the United States from London early this fall between the hours of 2 and 7 a.m., London time.

It is felt that these hours, which are from 9 p.m., to 2 a.m., Eastern Standard Time, will permit American audiences to listen in at a most suitable hour for them.

Mr. Sarnoff said that his chief object in visiting Europe was to arrange for American radio fans to tune in on European artists, soloists and famous dance bands which they cannot hear at home.

THOMPSON IN DANGER ZONE

Moros and Filipinos Near Clash as Coolidge Envoy Arrives at Port of Zamboanga

ZAMBOANGA (P. I.) Aug. 26. (AP)—Two companies of United States Infantry stood by today to prevent trouble between Filipinos and Moros when President Coolidge's representative, Carmi A. Thompson, arrived on his tour of the islands to investigate conditions. Col. Luther Stevens, commander of the Philippine constabulary, said that many of the Moros had been disarmed by his men before they were permitted to enter the city. Many others, however, carried concealed knives which they were eager to use on the Filipinos.

To allay the friction which long has existed between the Filipinos, whose representatives act as local administrators, Representative Bacon of New York introduced in the last session of Congress a bill which would provide for separation of provinces chiefly populated by Moros from the remainder of the Philippine archipelago. Mindanao Island, of which Zamboanga is one of the chief cities, is comprised of several of these provinces, and there have been many clashes between the Filipinos and Moros on the island.

When Thompson's steamer arrived today the Presidential envoy was told by Col. Stevens that trouble was threatened, the Moros accusing the Filipinos of breaking an agreement whereby each was to share equally in welcoming Thompson. Instead of remaining in the Plaza in the position agreed on, 2000 Filipinos rushed to the pier and displayed placards which demanded independence.

The Filipino Governor spoke to the crowd at the pier, urging the people to retire to the Plaza. He then turned to Mr. Thompson and said:

"We want you for our next Governor-General."

Thompson, who had delayed landing while there was danger of causing a disturbance, later addressed the Moros at the United States military reservation. Placards displayed by his audience asserted that the Moros are "not with the Christian Filipinos in asking independence," and asked that the Moro country be segregated from the remainder of the Philippines, with or without independence.

LOVE BALM SUIT BEGUN BY MERRITT

Son of Capitalist Accuses Englishman of Alienating Wife's Affections

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26. (AP)—Hullett Clinton Merritt, Jr., former army aviator and son of a Pasadena and Tulare county capitalist, brought suit against Daniel McKinlay, an Englishman, in Superior Court here today, demanding $50,000 for the alienation of the affections of Mrs. Lou Craig Merritt.

McKinlay was mentioned indirectly by Merritt when he recently contested a divorce suit brought by Mrs. Merritt. The divorce case is awaiting trail in Tulare county. The wife is asking $5000 monthly alimony and a share in community property estimated to be worth $1,000,000.

In the action brought today Merritt charges that McKinlay represented himself "as a man of much culture and wealth and as a world traveler," made love in a "suave and enticing manner" and "alienated the affections of Mrs. Merritt so that her love for her husband turned to repulsion."

The complaint also charged that Mrs. Merritt and McKinlay met by agreement in the Hawaiian Islands in August, 1925, and toured the islands in an automobile bought by her with funds obtained from her husband.

BELGIUM TO ASK COUNCIL SEAT AGAIN

Foreign Minister Denies Desire for Any Increase in Membership of Group

BRUSSELS, Aug. 26. (AP)—M. Vandervelde, the Foreign Minister, yesterday officially announced that Belgium intended to seek re-election to the Council of the League of Nations, but would not support the proposal to increase the number of permanent members.

The Belgian delegates are going to Geneva, M. Vandervelde said, first to assist in solving the difficulties that confront the League according to the spirit of the covenant and secondly to insure by Germany's entrance into the League the full application of the Locarno treaty.

On the question of the increase of the number of permanent members of the Council of the League, Belgium must maintain her present attitude regardless of compromise or sympathy. The ideal solution according to M. Vandervelde, and his opinion reflects that of the Belgian delegation, would be to have no permanent members but to have the whole Council elected every year by the Assembly. That, however, would entail a revision of the covenant which Belgium is not prepared to propose, but would support.

M. Vandervelde intends to support Lord Cecil's resolution at the June sitting of the special commission against any increase of the number of permanent members of the League, and maintaining all the elective rights of the Assembly.

Harvey Named Defendant in Damages Plea

REDWOOD CITY, Aug. 26. (AP)—Suit for $28,600 for personal injuries, hospital expenses and losses resulting from an automobile accident was filed here today against Byron Harvey, grandson of Fred Harvey, Santa Fe System restaurant owner, by Miss Dorothea M. Wilson, a Stanford University student.

The accident occurred July 18. Miss Wilson was pinned beneath Harvey's car after it had collided with a milk truck at Mill Brea, near here. She was severely burned when the machine burst into flames. The complaint charges Harvey with negligence.

NEW ENTRY IN HOPKINS WILL FIGHT

Riverside Girl Declares California Rail Pioneer Her Foster-Father

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—A new claimant to the estate of Mark Hopkins, pioneer railroad builder, in the person of "an adopted daughter," who signs her letter as "V. F. Clement, 178 A Prospect avenue, Riverside," today set forth her story in a long letter to Superior Judge Dunne, who will hear next Monday the application for probate of a recently discovered document asserted to be a will made by Mark Hopkins in 1874.

The writer says her father was a civil engineer employed in the construction of the Central Pacific Railroad, and was killed in an accident, leaving her an orphan.

"The details of the accident were often told to me by Mrs. Hopkins and Governor and Mrs. Stanford, who happened to be on the same train at the time of the accident," says the letter.

The writer says Mark Hopkins and his wife took charge of the property and effects of the dead man and promised his friends they would take care of his orphaned daughter by adopting her.

"Whether any legal adoption was carried out according to promise I do not know," says the letter, "but it was affirmed to me many times that this was done. And if the records of the early steamers leaving San Francisco for New York are looked up they will show among the passenger lists, 'Mrs. Mark Hopkins and daughter.'"

The writer asks Judge Dunne "to see if any papers may be found among the effects of Mark Hopkins showing the legal adoption which they promised to make and which they many times stated had been made."

Man Sentenced for Fraud Asks Trial Reversal

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26. (AP)—Gordon Campbell, who was sentenced to two years in prison and fined $1000 after conviction last year in Montana of using the mails to defraud in connection with oil operations, today petitioned the Supreme Court to set aside the verdicts of the lower courts.

In a brief accompanying the petition for a writ of certiorari, he charged that the District Court had misstated the evidence, misstated the law and misdirected the jury. The petition urged the court to hear argument looking to a reversal of the judgment of the Circuit Court of Appeals, which upheld the verdict of the District Court, and award a new trial.

Santa Fe and Espee Surgeons to Meet Today

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—The annual meeting of the Pacific Association of Railway Surgeons, which opens tomorrow in this city, embraces an exceptionally ambitious program, according to Dr. W. T. Cummings, secretary. Prominent physicians and surgeons of the Southern Pacific and Santa Fe, with headquarters in San Francisco and Los Angeles, will lecture on and demonstrate some new and interesting surgical experiences.

Dr. Howard Morrow of the University of California will explain his latest ideas on skin cancer and its treatment. "Trachoma," one of the chief causes of defective vision and blindness among the poorer classes, especially Indians and Mexicans, will be discussed by Dr. W. F. Blake, of the Southern Pacific General Hospital; Dr. J. S. Perkins of the United States Public Health Service, and Dr. John Osborn of the Santa Fe.

Back injuries will be discussed and illustrated by Dr. W. B. Bowman, radiologist of the Santa Fe lines in Los Angeles.

ITALIAN WOMAN MAY LOSE VOTE

Fascist Decree May Abolish Municipal Elections

Right of Feminine Suffrage Almost Nominal

Suspension of All Balloting May be Legalized

ROME, Aug. 26. (AP)—Italian women may lose the right to vote before ever they have had a chance to cast a ballot. They won the right to vote at municipal elections at the last legislative session of Parliament after many years' struggle. But a Fascist decree probably will abolish all municipal elections. This decree, according to a semiofficial statement, will be adopted at a meeting of the Council of Ministers next Tuesday.

The right of suffrage which the women lose is nominal because the suffrage measure not only restricted the women's right to vote in municipal elections but alowed the privilege only to a very small proportion of women. Only women who might be styled "prominent," "official," "war widows," and the like were to have the right to vote, which, as was plainly pointed out in the legislative debates, was granted as an honor to certain deserving classes of women rather than a step toward political enfranchisement of all women.

A more important aspect of the Cabinet's coming decree is that it is a confirmation of the government's purpose gradually to legalize the temporary suspension of all elections recently ordered by Mussolini to enable the Fascist party to crush the turbulence of certain local elements who were refusing to accept the dictates of a central authority.

Loan Plan for Chinese Farmer Lightens Burden

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26. (AP)—The poverty-stricken Chinese farmer, who for generations has been unable to even to meet his family requirements on account of briganda, usurers and military tax gatherers, finally has a chance to hope for better times.

Advices to the Commerce Department say a system of co-operative credits, under which the Chinese grower may obtain funds at a much lower interest rate than the usual 36 per cent, has been set up by the China International Farming Relief Commission.

A. H. Evans, commercial attache at Peking, informed the department that success of the plan would mean an increasing demand for American agricultural machinery adapted to Chinese requirements and for small village power plants.

NEWLY-INVENTED STEEL HAS GREATER WEAR RESISTANCE

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 26. (AP)—The development of a new steel product—steel with a great wear resistance surface, but a soft core—was announced here last night by the Jones & Laughlin Steel Corporation.

Metallurgists described the product as "A combination of steel elements never before obtained." The product, named "jalcase," will reduce production costs and speed up output of parts for automobiles, washing machines, other household appliances, typewriters and adding machines, shoe and textile machines and equipment where steel of great wear resistance is required for moving parts, company officials said.

Turks Will Die for Conspiracy Against Kemal

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 26. (AP)—Four men, including prominent unionists who took part in the revolt against the late Sultan Abdul Hamid, today were sentenced to death for conspiring to slay Mustapha Kemal Pasha, President of Turkey.

Those sentenced today were Djavid Bey, long a prominent unionist; Dr. Nasim Dey, one of the leaders of the 1906 revolt against Abdul Hamid; Nail Bey and Hilmi Bey. Their execution was fixed for a week hence.

Gluttony Held Larger Menace Than Drinking

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 26. (AP)—Prohibition of unrestricted eating is more important than prohibition of drinking intoxicants, the International Dental Congress, in session here, was told yesterday by Dr. John T. Buckley of the University of Southern California.

"People today are living artificial lives," he said, "and are expecting natural results. It simply cannot be done. When people have the moral courage to admit to a physician that their ailments are caused by vicious habits, such as overindulgence in food or drink, anger, worry and lack of personal hygiene, then only will the physician be able to diagnose with accuracy.

"A constitutional amendment restricting people's eating is more important than that restricting their drinking."

MORE FOOD SPACE

MORE ICE CUBES

MORE for your dollar—in a Kelvinator

Let's get down to facts about this question of Kelvinator prices.

You know that when you buy a Kelvinator you get something better. But do you know that you get it for less money, and get something bigger as well?

Dollar for dollar, Kelvinator gives you greater food capacity—more ice cube capacity—more downright quality and beauty combined, than any other system you can buy.

Model for model you will find Kelvinator prices actually below others.

This being the case—and it is—why be satisfied with any other system but Kelvinator? It costs less at the start; much less in the long run, and there's an attractive household budget purchase plan for those who desire to use it.

ASIATICS DEFIED BY SHORTRIDGE

... in Speech Asserts Ordinance Ban Will Stay

... of Chinese Backing for Opponent Shown

... City Told of Fight for Future of State

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—"The doors of the Pacific have been closed to oriental immigration and they shall be kept closed." In ... words, uttered earnestly and ... determination, Senator Shortridge tonight at the Auditorium Theater defiantly sounded his defiance to the challenge implied by the action of the organized Chinese of the ... in ordering one of his opponents for the Republican Senatorial nomination.

Senator Shortridge electrified the ... gathering at the theater by his ... reaffirmation of the policy ... by the amendment which ... to the immigration act ... from America the Asiatic ... ineligible to citizenship.

"I ... by the press," Senator ... said in his address, "that ... Chinese organization ... me and indignantly ... to endorse me for renomination ... has, instead, conferred its ... upon one of the candidates opposing me."

DISCOUNTS FIGHT

"... tell you why they have taken ... It was I who introduced ... amendment excluding the Japanese, the Koreans, and ... Asiatic peoples from our ... I fought in vain for the ... of that amendment in committee ... carried the fight to the ... of the Senate. The fight went ... through devious legislative channels ... finally the victory was won. ... was that amendment which ... the famous letter of Hanihara, ... Japanese Ambassador, protesting ... the exclusion of his ... and speaking of 'grave consequences' that would ensue if the ... accepted my amendment. That ... clinched the fight. It was as ... a hurricane swept through the Senate and the amendment was carried with but few dissenting votes.

"The United States has committed itself to the policy of excluding the orientals, not because of hatred or prejudice, but in order to preserve our type of civilization and our standard of living from the impairment that would otherwise certainly ensue. There are less than 2,000,000,000 human beings on the face of the earth and more than half of them live there in the Orient.

"The action of the Chinese of the State in opposing me is easy to understand. I have of recent months been besieged by letters and telegrams and personal solicitations seeking to bring about a relaxing of the restrictions incorporated in the immigration law by my amendment.

THREATS OF DEATH

"I knew that the Japanese were against me. I have received letters threatening me with assassination should I ever set foot in Japan. But it was not until I returned to California after the adjournment of Congress that I learned the Chinese were also actively opposing my candidacy. They want to break down the immigration wall so as to permit Chinese to return to China and bring back Chinese wives. It is their aim and fond hope to bring about such a weakening of the law as would afford a loophole for these unassimilable millions.

"I here and now restate with all the emphasis I can command that the doors of the Pacific are closed and they shall be kept closed."

Senator Shortridge was introduced by Joseph R. Knowland, publisher and former Congressman. Dr. O. D. Hamlin presided as temporary chairman.

The meeting was the climax of a day of hearty greetings for the Senator on a tour of Contra Costa and Alameda counties. He was welcomed at noon at Richmond at a luncheon meeting of the Richmond Shortridge Club at the Carquinez Hotel.

REDS AND FRENCH AT GRIPS

PARIS, Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—A controversy which may result in France breaking off relations with the soviet of Russia is going on between Premier Poincare and Commissar Rakovsky, and is becoming more embittered daily. The trouble arose when the Reds placarded Paris with posters announcing a gigantic international fair in Moscow the last of March, urging the French manufacturers to send their exhibits to be represented.

A number of concerns here leased stalls and show ground through the commercial attache's bureau of the soviet embassy, prepared the products for shipment to Russia to show at the affair and arranged their personnels to proceed to Moscow to take charge of the exhibits and take orders for the wares.

The soviet government then refused to give passport visas or to import licenses, so that the visitors were unable to participate. When the firms asked for reimbursement of the money paid in advance, the soviets refused.

A combination of swindled exhibitors then started suit to recover 8,000,000 francs ($228,000) and the soviet embassy asked the court to dismiss the case on the ground that it was entitled to enjoy diplomatic immunity.

The director of the Red institute, M. Trajonsky, has arrived in Paris to seek a settlement with the French claimants and conferred with Premier Poincare this afternoon.

...ith the Czar government debt conference deadlocked and the commercial treaty at an impasse, the new development may have a most important bearing between the governments.

BAN ON OIL POLLUTION INSTITUTED

Shipping Board Vessels Ordered Not to Discharge Petroleum Offshore

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26. (AP)—United States Shipping Board vessels have been prohibited from discharging oil or oily mixtures within fifty miles of the coast of the United States by action of the Shipping Board yesterday. This action is part of the plan for reducing oil pollution on the shores of this country.

Recommendations were made to the Shipping Board to take this step by the committee made up of members of all the Federal departments interested in the reduction of the offshore oil abuse. The committee is known as the 'interdepartmental committee of oil pollution of navigable waters."

The president of the Fleet Corporation, supervising the operation of American ships, was instructed to carry out the recommendations of the committee making a "no-oil discharge" zone fifty miles from the American coast.

Efforts are being made to obtain international co-operation on this plan. It is believed that if foreign shippers also will observe this rule either voluntary or by treaty, the coastal oil pollution will be materially lessened.

FLORIDA SENATOR TO FACE NEW OPERATION

BATTLE CREEK (Mich.) Aug. 26. (AP)—Senator Duncan U. Fletcher of Florida, who underwent an operation for an infected bladder here two weeks ago, will go under the knife again within a few days his physicians have announced here. The first operation, which was in the nature of a preliminary treatment, was pronounced entirely successful by the physicians, who said little fear is felt regarding the outcome of the major operation.

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 26. (AP)—In the State of Guanajuato there are two rival legislatures, but one set of statesmen are all in jail. The successful coterie of politicans had their rivals arrested and jailed, but the incarcerated ones insist they are the only proper law makers of the State and busy themselves enacting statutes in prison.

TULARE FLAMES UNABATED

Col. White, Park Superintendent, Plans Relief for Crews of Fire Fighters

FRESNO, Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—With the forest fire which for two weeks has been burning over 110 square miles between Badger and the Sequoia National Park in Tulare county threatening to spread to the heavily timbered areas of the park, Col. White, park superintendent, today announced plans for conducting a long and intensive fight to curb the flames.

A replacement camp will be established at park headquarters and a base camp will be established at the foot of Black Oak Trail, it was announced. Through this medium fresh fire fighters will be available at all times to relieve the men on the lines. A ground telephone line will be maintained between the two camps and Col. White will personally direct the work of the crews.

FOUGHT SCIENTIFICALLY

After a thirty-five mile ride along the fire lines yesterday White said today that "the fire is a big one and a bad one, but not what would be called a dangerous one."

Because of this situation Col. White said the blaze will hereafter be combatted along scientific lines, with sixty or seventy men at work continuously at points along the ten-mile front where the fire is the most serious. When the fire broke from control Tuesday and jumped established lines, it burned through timber along Pine Ridge and is now burning along Lower Cactus Creek, while crews are holding it along upper Cactus Creek as far as Crystal Cave and across to the north fork of the Kaweah at the Colony Mill road.

White said it is doubtful if the road will halt the fire. Five thousand acres of black oak and pine were swept by the fire, which burned through so rapidly that the timber is not believed to have been killed.

The fire front is two miles from the Muir grove of giant redwoods and eight miles from the National Park headquarters, White said.

CHEMICALS SENT OUT

Three crews of men sixty-five in all, are working along Cactus Creek, the North Fork Road and Black Oak Trail as well as along the north fork from Colony Mill to Burdick's ranch.

White said today that attempts are being made to divert the fire from Colony Mill, to which chemicals and fire extinguishers were sent by the Visalia fire department for use in protection of the building, there against falling embers. A crew of twenty men accompanied the equipment. Col. White said that the facilities for recreation in the park have not been curtailed by the fire and that none of the visitors has been and probably none will be impressed into fire-fighting service, as there is an ample crew of volunteers available.

HOPE FOR CONTROL OF FIRES REPORTED

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—While numerous forest fires raging in scattered districts of Northern California continued to burn today, reports tonight from the fire lines were encouraging and it is believed the most serious blazes will be brought under control soon.

The Forest Service office at Truckee this afternoon received word that the fire in the Texas Hill region, northeast of Alta, has broken out anew, after it was thought to have been checked. The large force of men available for fighting it and the fact that the wind that fanned it today subsided gave assurance that it will again be controlled.

Although the fire in the Big Bend district near Cisco is in check, Forest Ranger Charles Hurst has not released the men who have been battling it. The wind, which has been blowing for two days, subsided today.

Rain that fell on some of the fire areas Wednesday night materially aided the work of the fire fighters.

The destructive fire that has been burning near Buck's ranch, in Plumas county, is in hand, after having burned a camp of the Feather River Power Company, making fifty families homeless. The greatest danger from the fire near Doyle, Lassen county, is over, according to officials, but a number of ranch houses and valuable timber land have been destroyed.

One thousand men are engaged in fighting a fire in the Antelope Mountain region, near the California-Nevada line, which is burning through heavy timber. A minor blaze was reported in the vicinity of Independence Lake.

A crew of forty men, trapped by a fire near Sequoia National Park, backfired to the line of the main conflagration and when the two lines of fire had met, dashed through to safety.

BAIL DENIED FOR HALL-MILLS DUO

Carpender and Stevens Sent Back to Their Cells

Pair Must Wait in Jail for Grand Jury to Act

Widow of Minister to Stay at Liberty on Bonds

SOMERVILLE (N. J.) Aug. 26. (AP) Henry De La Bruyere Carpender and Willie Stevens, charged with the murders of Rev. Edward W. Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Mills, were remanded today by Supreme Court Justice Parker without bail to the County Jail to await grand jury action.

State Senator Simpson, special prosecutor, said he is undecided as to what steps he will take for the convening of a grand jury to investigate the charges against the defendants.

Whether he will ask for a special grand jury or await reconvening of the regular grand jury on the third Tuesday of September will be decided after a conference with Justice Parker on return of the latter from his interrupted vacation on September 8, the Senator announced.

Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall, widow of the murdered minister, who is free in $15,000 bail on the same charges, will retain her liberty.

"She waived hearing," Mr. Simpson said, "and was admitted to bail by Chief Justice Gummere, and was not bound by the testimony taken at the preliminary hearing of Carpender and Stevens."

The three-hour hearing before Justice Parker, sitting with County Judge Cleary, who presided at the commitment proceedings, was opened with the surprising announcement by Senator Simpson that a card found at the heel of the minister's body in possession of the State and finger-prints found on it are those of Willie Stevens.

The court, however, refused to let the prosecution submit this testimony or any other which would supplement that taken at the hearing before Judge Cleary.

Robert H. McCarter, chief of defense counsel, introduced an affidavit of J. Carter Rice of Highland Park, asserting that Carpender and his wife spent the evening of September 14, 1922, the night of the murders, at his home. The couple arrived at 7 and stayed until 10, the affidavit stated. The State fixed the time of the slaying of the rector and his choir singer at between 9 and 10 p.m.

The Rice home is more than two miles from the deserted Phillips farm, scene of the crime.

Senator Simpson objected to the reading of the affidavit.

"You had better read it," said Justice Parker, over-ruling.

"I'm objecting to everything," Simpson replied.

Pope Approves Stand Taken by Mexico Church

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 26. (Exclusive) The Mexican episcopate's firm stand in its present conflict with the government has the full support and approval of the Pope, who has granted the episcopate full powers to determine its line of conduct in the present controversy.

A cablegram direct from the Vatican was received yesterday signed by Cardinal Gasparri, in which the Pope manifests to Dr. Jose Maria Mora y Del Rio, Archbishop of Mexico, his approval of the clergy's decision not to resume services and to continue the present policy.

The Pope's message reads, in part: "Your attitude is authorized and your determination has brought the admiration of Catholics the world over."

WORDING OF CHINA NOTE EMPHATIC

State Department Sends Protest Against Evasion of Obligations

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26. (AP)—The State Department has published the note of "emphatic protest" which Minister MacMurray has delivered to the Peking government in an effort to induce the payment of obligations due American banking, shipping and industrial houses and to prevent the pledging of customs surplus moneys as security for a new domestic loan.

After reciting by name the American institutions to which the Chinese government has been long obligated, the note said the American Legation in Peking had been compelled to deny specifically "the justice of the position adopted by the Chinese government to the effect that the consolidated domestic loans enjoy a preferential right to the use of customs surplus funds after services of the pre-Boxer loans, the Boxer indemnities and the reorganization loan of 1913 have been met.

"The American Legation," the note added, "therefore insists that the Chinese authorities concerned have no right to utilize as the security for new domestic financing the amount of approximately $11,000,000 per annum to become available upon the extinction of the ninth year domestic loan and could only regard any such action taken by the Chinese authorities as a further failure to observe good faith toward the American creditors of China. The American Legation therefore emphatically protests against the issuance of the reported $25,000,000 domestic loan bonds."

FEDERAL OFFICE NEEDS IN ARIZONA SURVEYED

PHOENIX, Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—The Federal building needs of Phoenix and several other Arizona cities are being surveyed by Phil J. Mullins of the office of the supervising architect of the Treasury Department, Washington. Here he has found the Weather Bureau, Internal Revenue Office, Biological Survey, Veterans' Bureau, Federal Highway Office, Forest Service, prohibition service and most of the postoffice housed in rented quarters outside the Federal Building, which was ample for all needs thirteen years ago. It is proposed to erect two wings on the building, more than doubling its capacity. Plans have been made for new buildings at Prescott, Globe and Tucson.

CONFERENCE CALLED TO FIGHT RED SPIDER

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 26. (AP)—The State Department of Agriculture today called a conference of fruit growers and county officials, scheduled for September 10, next, at Sacramento to consider methods for control of the red spider. The red spider is one of the most important fruit pests with which growers in Northern California have to contend.

CONFESSION IN DEATH DOUBTED

Prosecutor Says Admitted Slayer Hides Facts

Farm Hand Admits Taking Life of Employer

Others Implicated, Illinois Attorney Believes

VANDALIA (Ill.) Aug. 26. (AP)—The confession which Frank Sparr, farm laborer, made when he pleaded guilty yesterday to a charge of murdering his aged recluse employer, Peter Rosenberger, was challenged today by the prosecutors as only a partial statement of his guilt.

While Carl Preihs and W. P. Welker, State's attorneys of Christian and Fayette counties, prepared to question the document, the wife of Sparr, still living with her four children on the Rosenberger farm, to which they moved the day after the killing, ignored the confession and asserted her confidence in his innocence.

She did not know until today of his plea of guilty.

Still held as possible accessories in the slaying are Roy Walker, Sparr's brother-in-law, and William Sparr, a half-brother. The attorneys declare a belief that both men were implicated in the death of Rosenberger, for which Sparr yesterday claimed full responsibility.

Sparr has confessed that he quarreled with the hermit, for whom he had worked two weeks, and said he struck the old man with an automobile jack as they repaired a tire on the bank of the Kaskaskia River on their way to Shobonier. The day after the killing, June 30, Sparr told neighbors that Rosenberger had gone east and had disposed of his crops to Sparr, a story disproven when the recluse's body came to the surface of the stream.

Sparr and his family moved into the Rosenberger home on the farm near Assumption, Ill., when the recluse disappeared, and were living there when a Coroner's jury recommended Sparr's arrest after the finding of the body. Their oldest child is 8.

The prosecutors plan to challenge the confession formally when Sparr is arraigned tomorrow before Judge Dove. Sparr says he struck in self-defense.

DRAGS EVIL-EYE IN IRISH COURT

Mother Says Foe Doomed Child to Lifetime of Bad Luck

DUNDALK (Ireland) Aug. 26. (AP)—"The evil eye," a superstition which plays a large role in the Orient, has been dragged into court here by Mrs. J. McDonald. She charged Mrs. Mary Martin with having cast "the evil eye" upon her child and doomed it to a life of illluck.

A witness testified that a third woman cut the fringe from Mrs. Martin's shawl and burned it under the child's nose in the belief that the spell cast upon the infant would disappear with the smoke.

The magistrate refused to take the case seriously.

CANTON JURORS HEAR INFORMER

"Mystery Witnesses" Testify in Mellett Hearing

Tell About McDermott, Elusive "Key" Man

"Squealer" Says He Was Paid to Kill Publisher

CANTON (O.) Aug. 26. (AP)—In the wake of Detective Ora Slater's testimony, the Stark county grand jury investigating the murder of Don R. Mellett, Canton publisher, today heard some of Slater's "mystery witnesses" tell about Patrick Eugene McDermott, elusive "key man" in the murder mystery, who has been the object of a nation-wide search for four weeks.

One fo the "mystery witnesses" required the whole morning for the unfolding of his story. It was largely for him, it was learned, that the wall of secrecy and court protection has been thrown around the grand jury deliberations. He is being shielded from intimidation that might impair his story and from possible retaliatory attacks by the supposed conspirators against Mellett.

Steve Kascholk, the informer who has been kept in Stark County Jail for five weeks so that he will not be attacked for "squealing," was the next to testify.

Kascholk has told investigators that he and McDermott were hired to "slug" Mellett because of his continued attacks on the underworld, that he himself backed out after looking over the scene of the contemplated crime, but that so far as he knows McDermott went through with the proposition.

Kascholk's story, investigators say, implicates Ben Rudner, Massilon and Loui Mazer, Canton, the only man so far formally charged with the murder.

Joseph R. Roach, Chicago criminal attorney, is to go before the grand jury Monday. He was to have appeared tomorrow but other witnesses have required so much time that his appearance has been delayed. Tomorrow H. C. Pontius, attorney for Mellett, who has been active in the inquiry, and who is understood to have known of threats made against the publisher before his death and also of enmities Mellett incurred through his activities, will tell his story.

Shortly thereafter, the grand jury will recess for the week-end.

Prosecutor McClintock said tonight he expects ten more days to be consumed in hearing testimonies. He said six new witnesses have been subpoenaed.

ADVENTISTS IN ANNUAL MEET

Tent City Cares for Many Thousand Churchmen

Main Pavilion Accommodates Great Crowd

All Modern Conveniences for Campers

GLENDALE, Aug. 26.—The annual camp meeting and conference of the Seventh Day Adventists of Southern California opened tonight in the huge canvas auditorium erected on the camp grounds on Verdugo Road, and when Elder A. G. Daniels of Washington began his opening sermon it was estimated that over 8000 persons were present.

The vanguard began coming two days ago and the number of tent early arrivals last night was placed at 5000 and today the new arrivals reached Glendale by train and auto from all over the Southland to participate in the religious convocation that will last until September 4. Thirty-four rows of tents have been erected in the camp grounds, which lie at the foot of the San Rafael hills, and a mammoth pavilion affords seating accommodations for 8000 persons. Ten other smaller tents will house the activities of the junior kindergarten and primary departments and the German and Spanish branches of the denomination, business office, information bureau, the publicity department, the commissary, telephone booths, the police and other executive branches of the tent city that has sprung up for the camp meeting. The dining tent has a capacity of 600 per hour and a camp commissary permits the visitors to purchase the supplies at reasonable cost. The layout of the canvas city have been planned, the tents have been numbered, and everything possible has been done by F. W. Paap, camp superintendent, to insure the comfort of the visitors. A hospital tent is maintained by the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital, and another has been erected by the White Memorial Hospital of Los Angeles, in which to care for any of those who may become ill during the meeting.

A detail of Glendale police has been assigned to supervise the grounds at all times. Arrangements have been made for the baptismal service that will form a part of the camp meeting. Officials of the church estimate that at least 200 persons will be immersed during the services.

In his opening address tonight Daniels spoke on "The Great Need of the Hour," stressing the importance of preparation for the second coming of Christ. Among the features of the conference schedule that are expected to arouse more than passing interest will be the launching of an aggressive warfare against the cigarette evil by James A. Walton of the Anti-Cigarette League, and Dr. George Thomason of the L.A.C.A., on Saturday night and the discussion of the prohibition question last Wednesday night by Dr. A. S. Briggs, State superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, and Alonzo Baker, editor of Signs of the Times, official organ of the church.

The program today started with early worship immediately following breakfast, a Bible study conference, a junior meeting at 10 o'clock, a ministerial meeting at 2 o'clock, and kindergarten and junior meetings during the afternoon. Among the speakers present is President E. K. Slade of the North American division of the Seventh Day Adventists, vice president of the Pacific United States, who will take an active part in the meeting.

NEW RECTOR EXPECTED FOR VAN NUYS CHURCH

VAN NUYS, Aug. 26.—Rev. Robert Archer, appointed by Bishop Stevens of the Episcopal diocese, will take charge of St. Mark's Mission here on September 5 as rector. He formerly was assistant rector at St. James and St. Barnabas Church in Los Angeles. Archer will succeed Rev. A. Cotter, who has been acting rector at the local church. Mr. Cotter is founder of the McKinley Industrial School for Boys, south of Van Nuys. The new rector will be given a reception by members of the church on September 9.

RESEDA MASONS MAY LATER ERECT TEMPLE

RESEDA, Aug. 26.—Twenty-four members of the Masonic order, with affiliations in other towns, have formed a "High Twelve" club, with the purpose later of organizing a Masonic lodge here. Officers of the club, who are among leaders in the order, are Gail Bonney, Claude Davis and Thomas B. Turner. If a lodge is formed here, it is probable that a Masonic temple will be erected.

INVESTIGATI

Conditional Stories Concer... in Grand ...

SAN BERNARDINO, Aug. 26.—A San Bernardino county grand jury investigation by police officers today.

The inquiry will not be reopened unless evidence which links officers with criminal acts more conclusively is found. The testimony from a dozen witnesses yesterday is introduced, it was announced by Charles E. Showeth, secretary of the jury.

No indictments were returned and the jury is dismissed if additional testimony is found, it was admitted by District Attorney George H. Johnson. Indictments cannot be returned in misdemeanor cases, it was explained, but in the only arrest in the police department's shake-up, the charge of grand larceny. In this case, Frank ..., who resigned last week, is charged with the theft of steeline a diamond ring valued at $250 from Lee Wong's home on the night of July 31. Dunson admitted the ring the next day, he

MADE CITY JAIL TOO CLEAN

Fumes of Formaldehyde Cause Unanimous Collapse of Inmates of Pasadena's Municipal Resting Place of Evil-Doers

PASADENA, Aug. 26.—Cleanliness may be next to Godliness, but its pursuit can be carried too far, as prisoners in the Pasadena City Jail will testify today after a disastrous early morning experience which resulted from an excess of zeal in dealing with dirt.

Fumes of undiluted formaldehyde, used as a disinfectant, filled the cells of the jail, overcame fifteen prisoners, and brought officers on the run to remove the semiconscious men from the cells and apply restorative measures.

The mistake of Bill Brock, negro trusty, caused the unanimous collapse. Instead of diluting the formaldehyde with 75 per cent of water, as is customary, Brock began to scrub the cells with the full-strength liquid. He mopped the floors and walls thoroughly and a few of the more wakeful prisoners, in their anxiety to be at least outwardly pure, applied the potent fluid to their skins.

They sank into their bunks, content, but when they began to experience difficulty in rising again, a few of the more vigorous succeeded in calling for help. The police quickly emptied the jail, and revived the men, none of whom suffered any lasting ill effects.

TAKE TROUBLES TO DAVIS

Imperial Valley Citizens to Discuss Mexican Problem With Secretary of Labor

CALEXICO, Aug. 26.—A delegation of Imperial Valley business men headed by W. W. McEuen, president of the El Centro Chamber of Commerce, is to leave for Los Angeles tonight to protest to Secretary of Labor Davis against the proposal of the United States Immigration Service to discontinue issuance of identification passes to laborers under a plan inaugurated by the department last winter.

Unless relief is granted, Imperial Valley and all farming sections in California will be confronted with the threat of a labor shortage this fall and winter, according to McEuen.

During the past six months more than 5000 Mexican laborers who either entered the United States illegally or had no papers showing their eligibility to remain in this country, have been given the opportunity to pay their head tax and establish their lawful residence in this country through a special agency known as the Standard Labor Bureau of Imperial County, organized at the suggestion of I. F. Wixon of the Immigration Department.

Announcement of District Director Walter E. Carr this week that no more of these identification cards to have appeared before the City Council to tell the members all about his disagreement with Patrick, and to demand that the Chief co-operate with him in his liquor-raiding activities. Cass, however, did not appear. He stayed in his office and with the dove of peace hovering over his head dictated routine reports to his stenographer. He said he had abandoned plans for his appearance at the City Hall.

The Councilmen waited a short time then decided that probably the row had been settled. A fair-sized crowd that had assembled to hear the remarks of the dry agent went away disappointed.

The "war" started yesterday when Patrick complained about the way Cass is said to have treated some of Patrick's men. Cass gave the Chief a candid opinion on the subject of Patrick's brain power, and this was answered by the Chief in kind. One word brought on two, and finally the pair agreed to disagree and each told the other to stay out of his way in the future.

Now Cass says the whole incident is closed, and this appears to be the first statement by the dry agent since the battle started. "It is also closed as far as I am concerned," says the Chief.

Prohibition Officer and Police Chief at San Diego Forget Differences

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 26.—It appeared here today that the verbal duel between Charles Cass, prohibition agent, and James Patrick, Chief of Police, is over. Yesterday afternoon Cass was to have appeared before the City Council to tell the members all about his disagreement with Patrick, and to demand that the Chief co-operate with him in his liquor-raiding activities. Cass, however, did not appear. He stayed in his office and with the dove of peace hovering over his head dictated routine reports to his stenographer. TO RELIEVE TRAFIC

Railway to Move Water Tank at Pomona

POMONA, Aug. 26.—Pomona motorists are rejoicing today over the fact that the Union Pacific Company has ordered the removal of the water tower at Gibbs street, one block east of its present location, which fact will prevent trains from blocking the Garey-avenue crossing while taking on water. Announcement that work was to be started Monday on the new tank which will replace the present one was made today from the local office through Madison H. Fowler, passenger and freight traffic agent.

Garey avenue is the main thoroughfare through Pomona, being used for practically all interurban traffic and tie-ups while long trains were taking on water have added considerably to the increasing traffic congestion during the past few years until the fact was brought to the attention of railroad officials and action obtained for relief.

GOOD WALNUT CROP EXPECTED IN VALLEY

LANKERSHIM, Aug. 26.—Frank J. Cornwell, auditor of the Valley Walnut Growers' Association, states today that from present indications valley walnut growers this year should yield about 350 tons. According to price records, this crop should bring growers from $175,000 to $200,000. The harvest this season will include nuts from several new large groves that are producing in commercial quantities for the first time.

Chiropracters Ask for Ward in Hospital

SANTA ANA, Aug. 26.—Orange county chiropractors want a department reserved for drugless practice in the proposed new County Hospital if such an institution is built, claiming that such a hospital should be built to serve the needs of all the taxpayers and that fair and constitutional rights be granted equally to drugless practitioners as well as the medical doctors. The Orange County Chiropractors' Association has addressed a communication to the County Supervisors setting forth their position, citing passage of legislation in 1922, licensing the chiropractors to practice in this State.

The communication charges that the privileges legally granted to the chiropractors have been denied them by officials and those in charge of institutions, despite the expressed wish of the voters that the chiropractors should be allowed to practice. "Experience has shown," continued the communication, "that the chiropractors cannot get co-operation from nurses and those in charge where there is medical supervision." For that reason, the chiropractors asked that a separate department of the proposed new hospital be established for drugless practitioners and that it be conducted under "drugless" supervision.

ADMISSION DAY TO BE OBSERVED AT GIRARD

GIRARD, Aug. 26.—Athletic sports and aquatic contests will have the center of the stage here in the Admission Day celebration on Saturday. One of the features will be a golf tournament between members of the Recreation and Athletic Association of Southern California. Ten teams will contest. The players are groups from industrial concerns in the metropolitan district of Los Angeles. The Admission Day program will be presented by employees of the City Engineer's office. More than 300 are expected to take part in the various events. One of the features of the day will be a big barbecue, to be served at noon.

VOLUNTEER FIREMEN ARE GIVEN SHAKE-UP

RESEDA, Aug. 26.—A "shake-up" has occurred in the Reseda volunteer fire department by Capt. Otto Schmucker of the paid department at Van Nuys. Nobody lost his job, because all are volunteers and there weren't any jobs to lose. The shake-up followed a fire at Reseda to which none of the volunteers responded because none was handy who knew how to operate the apparatus. As a result the Van Nuys department, six miles away, had to be called. Capt. Schmucker and several of the paid men are now putting the Reseda volunteers through a short course of instruction.

NEW RAILWAY STATION

BRAWLEY, Aug. 26.—A new railroad passenger station is to be erected in this city within a year according to the statement made by Division Superintendent G. E. Gaylord of the Southern Pacific Railway in a letter to Brawley Chamber of Commerce this week. The new station will be built large enough to take care of the future growth of the city, Gaylord said.

REVIVAL OF WORK IN MINES

Production in San Diego County Gives Encouragement to Investors

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 26.—Increased production in all the mineral industries in San Diego county together with the prospects of many new developments in both the metallics and nonmetallics, has resulted in immediate preparation for the formation of a Chamber of Mines in San Diego it was announced here today by Sidney E. Mayer, chairman of the minerals committee of the local Chamber of Commerce.

By-laws for the organization, which will co-operate with the State and National Bureau of Mines, are being drawn and will be presented to a general meeting of representatives of all mining interests in San Diego and Imperial counties September 15.

This activity is inspired by the recent work done at the Golden Chariot, completely financed by Berkeley capital and which has produced $10,000 in gold since May; the Hollywood Mining Company operations, International Gold Mines Company, Last Chance, Ready Relief and North Hubbard Mines. According to State Mining Bureau reports, San Diego has tied with Los Angeles county in point of the greatest variety of usable minerals. The revival of gold mining, however has stimulated unusual activity here in mineral circles and some big development projects are underway embracing minerals from the metallics to building and China clays.

Low Water No Menace to Valley Farms

EL CENTRO, Aug. 26.—Although Imperial Valley will be using practically all of the water in the Colorado River before the end of this week, Engineer M. J. Dowd of the Imperial Irrigation District does not anticipate a shortage according to his statement today.

Dowd stated that a brush dam had already been installed to divert the entire flow of the stream into the Imperial intake, and that there is plenty of water available for both domestic and irrigation use. The river guage at Yuma yesterday showed a discharge of 7200 feet while the Grand Canyon discharge was reported at 7400 feet. This indicates a further drop in the stream at this point as considerable water is lost through evaporation and seepage between Grand Canyon and Yuma, but Dowd still believes that there is plenty of water for valley use. He pointed out that the demand for irrigation purposes will diminish steadily during the next few months.

REAL ESTATE MEN HOLD JOINT MEET

VENTURA, Aug. 26.—A turnout of approximately 100 persons, members of the Ventura and Oxnard realty boards and their families and friends, gathered last night at Camp Bartlett at a joint realty board barbecue and program. The principal speaker of the evening was Judge Merle J. Rogers, who stressed upon the guests present that by the organization of such boards, they should ever strive to put their businesses on the highest plane.

PARENT, TEACHERS HOLD CONFERENCE

BAKERSFIELD, Aug. 26.—The first sectional conference of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers for this year will be held in Bakersfield September 28 under the direction Mrs. J. W. Voorhies, second vice-president of the State organization, according to plans made at the state board meeting in San Francisco. Mrs. Voorhies and Mrs. F. G. Matteson, president of the seventh district, represented this district at the northern meeting.

SANTA ANA, Aug. 26.—The horse show to be given in connection with the tenth annual Orange County Fair, September 6 to 11, will compare with any similar events held on the entire Pacific Coast, according to John Ragan of Villa Park, in charge of the arrangements for the equine event. Ragan said that the very best show horses in Los Angeles had been obtained and that the total in prize money would compare favorably with that offered at any other Pacific Coast horse show.

Miss Ione Reed, motion-picture actress, playing leads in western pictures, will ride one of the famous horses the last night of the fair as the representative of the Santa Ana Junior Chamber of Commerce. Miss Reed is one moving-picture actress who does not have to use a double in her riding scenes. She was born and reared on the plains of Texas and it is a mean mustang that can unseat her, it is said.

Another feature of the fair is the production of the historical pageant "The Birth of an Empire," under the direction of Mrs. Holly Lash Visel of Orange. The best singers, dancers and actors in Orange county will take part in the allegory, based on the history of Orange county. Miss Eunice Pringle of Garden Grove is one of the featured Spanish dancers.

The fair this year is to be held at the new permanent location, on the State highway between Anaheim and Santa Ana.

Fix Amounts of Bonds for Office Holders

SANTA ANA, Aug. 26. — In compliance with a State law the bonds of various county officials have been fixed by the County Board of Supervisors, it was announced today. The law requires that such bonds must be fixed on or before the first Monday preceding the election of such officials. In cases of those who will be elected at the primary the bond had to be fixed not later than next Monday.

Only one change has been made in the bond required of Orange county officials, that of the County Assessor being increased from $25,000 to $50,000. This was said to be due to the great increase in tax collections handled through the assessor's office.

The various bonds fixed by the Supervisors are as follows: Treasurer, $150,000; Tax Collector, $100,000, Assessor, $50,000; Public Administrator, $15,000; Sheriff, $15,000; Clerk Recorder, Auditor, each $10,000; District Attorney, Surveyor, Superintendent of Schools, Coroner, each $5000; purchasing Agent, $2000; County Physician, $1000; Justice of the Peace, $1000; constables, $1000.

AGED WOMAN DIES

Blind Sister Rings Hand Bell Until Help Arrives

UPLAND, Aug. 26. — Receiving no response to repeated calls to her sister, Miss Nancy Theresa Whiting, with whom she lived alone at 257 O street and unable to see her on account of being totally blind, Miss Julia Whiting, after ringing a small hand bell for several hours, finally attracted the attention of neighbors, about 8:30 o'clock last night, only to find the elder sister had been stricken with paralysis and was unconscious. An ambulance was immediately summoned and the paralyzed woman was rushed to the San Antonio Hospital, where she died late this morning without regaining consciousness. As near as could be determined by the blind woman, her sister was stricken about 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The two sisters have made their home here for the past fifteen years and the deceased is said to have been in poor health for many months.

IODINE NOT FATAL

ONTARIO, Aug. 26. — Miss Laura Frisbee of 420 West F street is reported as out of danger at the San Antonio Community Hospital, this afternoon where she was rushed late yesterday following her swallowing a considerable quantity of iodine, at her home.

Miss Frisbee was alone at the time she took the drug, but it is asserted by relatives that she swallowed the potion through error. Neighbors, who were attracted to the house by the woman's groans, found her writhing in agony and immediately summoned physicians, who administered antidotes and had her removed to the hospital.

TRIO OF BOLD BABY BANDITS

Would-be Yeggmen of Tender Years Confess to Knocking Combination From Safe in Effort to Open and Rob Strong Box

PASADENA, Aug. 26.—The criminal aspirations of three youthful Pasadena desperadoes, the oldest of which is 12 years of age, were checked again today by Detective Sergeants Collins and Cropsey of the local police department, who arrested the trio after they had all but succeeded in accomplishing a safe-cracking "job" at Swanson & Peterson's cabinet shop at 920 South Raymond avenue.

The boys, sons of John Jeramillio, 964 South Fair Oaks avenue, admit their guilt, detectives say. They are Paul, 12 years of age, said to be the ringleader; Andrew 10, and Felix, 8. Detectives report that after breaking into the cabinet shop through a window Sunday night, they succeeded in knocking the combination off a large safe with a hammer, but could not open it because they were unable to remove the heavy hinges.

The three youths, together with four companions of like age, were arrested last April and admitted a half-dozen burglaries in various shops near their home. At that time they were released to their parents. All are Mexicans. Local detectives turned the infant yeggs over to Juvenile Hall authorities this afternoon.

RANCH WORKER KILLED

Unusual Accident Costs Life of Laborer in Ventura County Beet Fields

OXNARD, Aug. 26.—Marino Ranjel of Westminster, Mexican laborer, was struck in the eye with a pitchfork tine yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock while loading beets on the Leon Lehmann ranch. The tine went through the eye socket and into the brain. Ranjel was rushed to St. John's Hospital but died at 9 o'clock last night, despite all efforts made to save his life.

Ranjel was loading beets on the wagon on the Lehmann ranch, near Hueneme together with other laborers. He finished the side he was working on and was walking around the rear of the wagon to the other side. He got in the way of another workman who was pitching a fork load of beets. Ranjel was working for Faustino Trujillo, the contractor. A fine question of insurance liability has been raised on account of the unfortunate accident as to who is responsible, the contractor or the rancher. In this case the contractor carries no insurance, neither did Mr. Lehmann have special insurance for the contract job.

Rudolph Beck, insurer, asked to answer the question of liability, said that the contractor is liable in the first instance. But as usually happens when the contractor is not in position to pay, the rancher is also liable. Ranjel came here to work in the fields from Westminster, in the Santa Ana district and leaves a widow and two children, who are here with him.

This is the first time in the history of the beet industry in the Oxnard district that any sort of near fatality has ever occurred in the harvesting of sugar beets.

TO HONOR FOUNDER OF RIVERSIDE

Civil War Veterans Erect Monument in Memory of Louis Rubidoux

RIVERSIDE, Aug. 26. — When the monument to Louis Roubidoux and Gen. John C. Fremont is unveiled at the site of the old West Riverside fort, September 9, honor will be paid the memories of the two men who exerted a great influence in shaping the early history of this section. Erected by the Riverside Camp, Union Veterans of the Civil War, the marker is formed of portions of the stone from the first grist mill in Southern California, installed by Rubidoux about 1840, and used by him to provide food for American soldiers in the Mexican War.

In histories of this section of the State Rubidoux is credited with being the original colonizer of what are now Riverside and San Bernardino counties. He purchased a huge tract near here in 1847 from Isaac Williams and converted most of it into small farms, which he sold to settlers.

Born in France, Rubidoux came to the United States with his father, Joseph, emigrated to Southern California, became an influential citizen and a member of the first Board of Supervisors of the territory now including Riverside and San Bernardino counties.

At the close of the Mexican war Gen. Fremont came to this section. He made many excursions of the region, and is said to have been associated with Rubidoux in most of his activities. Efforts are being made by the organization to insure the presence at the ceremonial of Fig Tree John, Mission Indian of more then 100 years of age, and a scout for Gen. Fremont during the war. Fig Tree John now resides in the Coachella Valley.

Among the speakers at the event will be Miguel Estudillo, Riverside attorney, a descendant of Rubidoux, and Isaac Rubidoux, a grandson of the early Riversider.

JUMPS TO SAFETY

Somis Woman Leaps From Car Before Crash

OXNARD, Aug. 26.—Had it not been for her cool judgment Mrs. Robert Lefevre, prominent Somis woman would have met instant death this morning when her sedan was stalled on the Southern Pacific tracks, between Somis and Moorpark.

As it was she jumped for her life just as a passenger train struck the car and smashed it into bits. It took the train from Los Angeles that reaches Oxnard at 10:15 a.m. and was nearly an hour late.

The accident occurred on the Underwood crossing near the Tom Bard residence. Mrs. Lefevre, though she jumped in time, is suffering from the terrible shock.

BOY BURGLARS COME TO GRIEF

VENTURA, Aug. 26.—Quick action by operatives of the Sheriff's office resulted in the arrest of four boys the oldest of whom was 9 years old, a few hours after they had broken into a store room at the John Peirano home and stolen a watch and several articles of jewelry out of a trunk.

The boys were picked up by Deputy Sheriff White. They were playing on the beach. The watch they had used for a game of catch until it had become lost in the ocean after a wild throw. The other jewelry was recovered. According to the officers it was the first time that any of the boys had ever been in trouble, and after a warning of the possible consequences of such action, and assurance that they would not be dealt with lightly in the future, they were released.

CLUB CORNER-STONE LAID AT LANKERSHIM

LANKERSHIM, Aug. 26.—The corner-stone of the new Lankershim Woman's clubhouse was laid with ceremony today at 3 p.m. Rev. Glenn R. Phillips was principal speaker. Mrs. Ada Dabney, a charter member, read a history of the club. Mrs. D. C. Coates, president, presided as master of ceremonies. Moving pictures of the ceremony will be preserved in the archives of the club.

NEW SCOUT TROOP

LANKERSHIM, Aug. 26.—A new Boy Scout troop has been formed at Hewitt, Lankershim suburb. Robert Ledger and Gorman Charles are the new scoutmasters. The troop, sponsored by the Lankershim Kiwanis Club, will be part of the San Fernando Valley Boy Scout Council.

MIKE LEAVES HOSPITAL COT

County's First Patient Dies at San Bernardino

Was Confined to Sick Room Thirty-five Years

Never Discouraged, Was Loved by Everyone

SAN BERNARDINO, Aug. 26.—Mike O'Brien, the county's first hospital patient and who has laid on a cot at the General Hospital for thirty-five years, is dead.

Mike never quit smiling, even up to the moment his smile was set in death, though in his thirty-five years at the hospital no friend came to see him. For Mike was in a strange land, alone, when he was stricken.

In the past twenty years, Mike never left his bed. After fifteen years in bed from a mysterious ailment that baffled physicians, nurses and even Mike himself, he was stricken with paralysis. There was nothing left for Mike but to await death.

But Mike met his plight with a smile. He couldn't read nor write, so he spent the long hours looking out the window at the green field, watching the years pass, and wondering if, perhaps, a miracle would not come to pass and he could walk again—walk along the itinerant paths that he recklessly followed in his youth.

Mike's illness, he regarded lightly. Always he would inform a new nurse—hundreds came and went while Mike occupied the same ward—that he "would be feeling fit, just as soon as he rested a little longer."

And Mike's rest is over. He left the hospital last night in death. As Mike left, the hospital was gripped with a profound grief that spread to every ward. For Mike had kept the pain-racked patients smiling.

Mike himself didn't know how old he was. Mike thought, however, that he was near 80. The exact place of birth, he did not know, but always claimed Ireland as his native land, explaining that "that is where all the O'Briens came from, so I guess I came from there, too."

In 1891 Mike was received at the old three-room hospital the county maintained. There was something wrong, Mike said, but no physician could ever diagnose his illness. And when the county built a new hospital two years later, Mike and another patient, long since gone beyond, were moved along with the furniture.

Mike outlived the hospital and in 1917, the present General Hospital was erected. Mike referred to the hospital while it was under construction as "my new home." Mike was accorded the honor of being the first patient carried into the new hospital.

On Mike's chart, the words were written, thousands of times, "condition, about the same." But late yesterday as the sun dropped toward the west, a nurse noticed that Mike was dropping too. Mike was on his way west with the sun that he followed around the world as a boy.

Physicians were called and as they stood beside his little cot helpless to stave off the end, Mike—the beloved Mike to nurses and patients—left his ward.

Mike had always spoke of the days when he could "roam around a bit." Today, Mike may be roaming in another world.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow, scores, whose days of pain were relieved by Mike's cheeriness, doctors and nurses will attend.

CITY OFFICIAL DEAD

Long Illness Fatal to Alhambra Citizen

ALHAMBRA, Aug. 26.—D. W. W. Benedict, former president of the Alhambra City Commission and a prominent civic leader, passed away at his home here this afternoon, aged 66 years. He had been in failing health for several months. Funeral arrangements have not as yet been completed.

Mr. Benedict came to Pasadena in 1887 from Marshalltown, Iowa, and entered into the real estate business with his father under the firm name of W. G. Benedict and Son. After his father's death he continued to conduct the business. Four years ago Mr. Benedict moved to Alhambra, where he built a home in a tract at Alhambra road and Olive street which he subdivided. In August, 1924, he was appointed as a city commissioner from the third district and in June, 1925, he was elected to the presidency of the governing body. He resigned in February of this year because of poor health. At that time he was also an ex-officio member of the planning commission.

He is survived by his widow, a sister, Mrs. Mae Hinman of Pasadena, and a brother, Charles V. Benedict of Los Angeles.

Many Mourn at Bier of Kern County Pastor

BAKERSFIELD, Aug. 26.—Beautiful and impressive funeral and burial services marked the last rites for Rev. Edgar R. Fuller, pastor of First Congregational Church of this city, whose death Tuesday, took from the city of Bakersfield one of the most noble and sincere characters of the community.

Hundreds of friends from all sections of the State were in Bakersfield today to attend the services, and by 1:30 o'clock this afternoon, the church, where for so many years Rev. Fuller was pastor, was filled.

The church services opened with organ music by Mrs. H. G. Mattly of this city. At 1:30 o'clock, a male quartet from the radio broadcasting station, KNX, of Hollywood, sang "Softly and Tenderly," by Thompson. There followed the invocation by Rev. Carl S. Patton of the First Congregational Church of Los Angeles.

Preceding the eulogy and prayer by Rev. Patton, Harold Proctor, Los Angeles tenor, sang "There's a Beautiful Land on High," and the eulogy followed.

Rev. Patton opened his tribute to the pioneer pastor by giving the time and place of his birth and outlining his education at Hiram, O., university and the Oberton Seminary.

"Rev. Fuller was well born for he was a descendant of the famous Dr. Samuel Fuller, who came to America on the Mayflower in 1621, as physician for the community and deacon of the Pilgrim church," Rev. Patton said.

SHOCK KILLS WIFE

SANTA MONICA, Aug. 26. (AP)—Thirty minutes after hearing police pronounce her aged husband dead, Mrs. W. J. Hampson, 67, who has been blind for years, herself died of shock. The cause of Hampton's death was undetermined. He was found sitting upright in a chair by a customer who had entered the store, operated jointly by himself and wife.

MARS NO PLACE TO LIVE

Scientist Concludes Water Is Scarce Article and That Thermometer Is Erratic

PASADENA, Aug. 26.—If any form of life exists on our celestial neighbor, the planet Mars, it is probably only the lowest forms of planets, such as moss and lichen, for ultra-arid conditions prevail throughout the planet, says Dr. Walter S. Adams, director of the Mt. Wilson Observatory here, in a report to the Carnegie Institution of Washington.

Even a camel would shun Mars, Dr. Adams indicated, as he declared today that the quantity of water in the Martian atmosphere at the time of his observations was only 6 per cent of that over Mt. Wilson, or 3 per cent of that over Pasadena.

Coupled with the extreme aridity is the scientifically established fact that there is a drastic daily change in temperature on Mars, from something like 75 deg. at noon to 40 deg. below zero at midnight, which strengthens the scientist's conclusion that only the very lowest forms of life can exist there.

Moreover, Dr. Adams has established that the quantity of oxygen in the Martian atmosphere is only 16 per cent of that in the air over an equal area of the earth's surface, or about two-thirds of that in the atmosphere over Mt. Everest. Explorers who have tried to scale Mt. Everest required oxygen tanks after they climbed only a small portion of the distance to the summit.

Thus it is a virtual certainty that animal life such as we know it on earth cannot exist on Mars, but it is possible that forms of life unfamiliar to humans and developed through long periods of adaptation to environment, may exist on the planet.

What appear to be ice-caps on the poles of Mars encouraged early astronomers to believe that the planet had snow and ice, and consequently water. Later scientific opinion, however, holds to the belief that the white caps may be either hoar frost or frozen carbonic-acid gas.

Knowledge of the desert atmosphere on Mars was established by means of spectrum lines considered together with the relative motions of the earth and Mars. The report says:

"Because of the relative motions of Mars and the earth of eleven miles a second at the time of the observation, equal amounts of water vapor in the two atmospheres would have required displacements of lines six times greater than those actually observed."

INVESTIGATION BLOWS UP

Sensational Stories Concerning Police Fail to Develop in Grand Jury Session

SAN BERNARDINO, Aug. 26.—After a day of taking testimony, the San Bernardino county grand jury dropped its inquiry of asserted misconduct of police officers today.

The case will not be reopened unless new evidence which links officers with the crime more conclusively than the testimony from a dozen witnesses today is introduced, it was announced by Charles E. Showorth, foreman of the jury.

The witnesses were returned and told that if additional testimony was desired it was admitted by District Attorney George H. Johnson.

The case cannot be returned to the grand jury then, it was explained, unless there is the only arrest in the police shake-up, the charge of conspiracy. In this case, Frank Dunson resigned last week, is accused of stealing a diamond ring from the safe on Lee Wong's home on the night of July 31. Dunson was arrested the next day, he confessed to the chief of police, but maintained that he found the ring on the lawn at the Chinese's home where it had been lost by Wong.

Chief of Police A. A. Burcham, who demanded the resignations of Dunson and W. F. Reynolds, was the first witness called to testify. Reynolds was not involved in the ring case. Dan Murdick, night desk sergeant, and other police officers were called.

Mayor Grant Holcomb appeared before the jurors and asked a thorough inquiry in charges of misconduct, which were circulated after the shake-up hit the police department last week.

The inquiry was called, the district attorney said, to permit the circulators of reports involving the police officers, an opportunity to tell their stories. No stories, other than those involving the ring case, were heard.

AFTER CAPTURING THE FORTS THAT GUARDED PORT ROYAL SOUND, THE FEDERALS STRENGTHENED THEM AND BEGAN BUILDING A GREAT NAVAL BASE ON HILTON HEAD. TO GAIN A FIRMER FOOTHOLD ON THE COAST OF SOUTH CAROLINA, STRONG EXPEDITIONS WERE DISPATCHED TO DRIVE THE CONFEDERATES FURTHER INTO THE INTERIOR.

ON NOVEMBER 9, 1861, UNION TROOPS CAPTURED THE NEARBY CITY OF BEAUFORT, WHICH WAS FOLLOWED BY THE DESTRUCTION OF CONFEDERATE STORES AND CANNON AT THE BEAUFORT ARSENAL BY SAILORS FROM THE GUNBOAT "SENECA".

AT PORT ROYAL FERRY THE CONFEDERATES HAD PLANTED MASKED BATTERIES AND EARTHWORKS AND ON DECEMBER 31 MADE A DETERMINED STAND AGAINST THE FEDERAL MILITARY AND NAVAL FORCES SENT TO DESTROY THESE FORTIFICATIONS.

AFTER A SHARP FIGHT, THE SOUTHERN GUNNERS WERE DRIVEN FROM THEIR EMPLACEMENTS BY THE HOT FIRE OF THE GUNBOATS AND THE ABANDONED WORKS WERE SEIZED AND DEMOLISHED BY THE UNION INFANTRY. THE EXPEDITION THEN RETIRED TO BEAUFORT.

"WHY I TURNED PROFESSIONAL"—BY SUZANNE LENGLEN

THE greatest feminine tennis player that ever lived starts her absorbing story in Sunday's Times—a story as fascinating and colorful as the author herself. For twelve years almost unchallenged queen of the courts, Suzanne Lenglen is coming to America on a professional tour. Se will play in Los Angeles during the late fall. The world's champion wastes no time beating about the bush in her opening article. She declares that amateur tennis players have to be rich or liars. It is her contention that it is virtually impossible to take part in amateur tournaments unless the players are—but read the entire first installment in Sunday's Eight-Page Sports Section of The Times.

Had little Johnny Kerr been possessed of underpinning to uphold Doc Crandall's frail form, or even had he had stretched between the pair of legs he now wears, the Hollywood Stars would not have lost to the Mission Monks by a 4-to-3 score in the eleventh inning yesterday at Wrigley Field.

Angels Ragged As Seals Win 12-6 in North

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—The Seals turned on the Angels today and gave them a fine pasting. The score was 12 to 6, and the league leaders looked almost as bad as the Seals did last Tuesday. Glazner started for the Angels and used up a lot of time. Something should be done to speed up this blond boy and he should be told that not one man in a million dies from overwork. Fortunately Glazner pitched only two innings or the game might not have been finished before dark. Glazner was slower than cold molasses and the umpires let him get away with his stalling tactics until the customers were disgusted.

WEIS HOMES

The Angels opened on Dick Moudy for two runs in the first inning, Statz beating out a bunt and scoring when Weis hit the ball into the left-field bleachers. Weis is a left-handed hitter. Later Jahn, a right-handed hitter, drove the ball over the right-field fence, for a homer.

The Seals opened briskly on Glazner, finding him for five hits and three runs the two rounds he worked, but the third was their big inning. Pearidge Day was pitching then and the kids upset the veteran team by a bunting game. Hood failed to hold one thrown ball and Day threw another ball away after fielding a bunt, and these miscues, combined with six hits, netted the Seals seven runs. Gus Suhr was up twice in that round, getting a single and a triple.

Day settled down after that and allowed only one run. That was a home run by Mulligan in the seventh.

FANS THREE

Moudy struck out Hood, Staley and Sandberg in the fourth, but he lost control in the fifth and the Angels scored three runs. He struck out Day to start the inning, but Statz and Hemingway

PERSSON TRIMS JOHNNY RISKO

Swedish Heavy Impressive in Gotham Debut

Hansen in Knockout Victory Over Argentine

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER

NEW YORK, Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—Harry Persson, heavyweight champion of Sweden and claimant of a share of the highly unimportant European championships, tonight gave Johnny Risko a robust smacking and won the decision at the end of a ten-round bout, which topped off a display at the new garden of some 2000 pounds of ham on the hoof. This was Persson's first fight in the United States, and, although he outweighed his opponent by twenty-two pounds, Risko is too tough a man to be regarded as a set-up for any heavyweight, foreign or domestic.

There was much interest in Persson, because Jimmy DeForest, who trained Jack Dempsey to beat Jess Willard and Luis Firpo to knock Dempsey out of the ring, was handling the Swede and endeavoring to eradicate the European tatelliness of his style. Most of the male Swedes in the metropolis seemed to have been present among the 10,000 customers who paid $26,000 for the entertainment and the garden atmosphere resounded from time to time with raucous Scandinavian equivelents of the enthusiastic American osky-wow-wow.

Persson, weighing 206 pounds to Risko's 184, came out with the stance of a Japanese wrestler and the American customers were highly amused at the first glimpse of him with his long legs bowed just so and his arms held crabwise in front of him as though

LABARBA SIGNS FOR PEORIA GO

MILWAUKEE (Wis.) Aug 26. (Exclusive)—Fidel La Barba, world's flyweight champion, was today matched to meet Paul Millnar, flashy St. Paul boxer, in a ten-round bout at Peoria, Ill., September 2. Arrangements are also being made to match the Los Angeles lad with Harry Su Quong Bill, Chinese flyweight.

La Barba's invasion of the East and Middle West has been successful thus far, having scored convincing decisions over Emil Paluso and Happy Atherton in his two fights here.

CORONADO BEACH, Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—Youth slapped experience all over the Coronado Country Club golf course here today, and as a result, four of the best youngsters in the State will meet in the semifinals of the third annual Spreckels cup tournament here tomorrow.

Allen Moser, Eddie Meyberg, David Martin, all of Los Angeles and Ward Edmunds, of this city, won two title flight matches today, and while Moser and Meyberg are battling 36 holes to go into the upper bracket of the cup finals, Edmunds and Martin will be golfing over the same long champions hip route also.

Waner Hero of 15-to-7 Victory Over Giants as Lowly Phillies Trip Cardinals

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 26. (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates regained first place in the National League race today, hammering three Giant hurlers for twenty-one hits that were good for twenty-eight bases to take the opener of the series with New York, 15 to 7. Grantham and Traynor each had three singles and Waner collected six hits, including two doubles and a triple. Morrison relieved Meadows when the Pirate pitcher weakened toward the close. Score:

HUDKINS BATTLES TONIGHT

Ace Fights Phil McGraw in Fifteen-Round Scrap at Coney Island

NEW YORK, Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—One of the most important lightweight battles of the outdoor season is scheduled to take place Friday night, when Ace Hudkins, Nebraska wildcat, clashes with Phil McGraw, the Detroit Greek, in the feature bout at the Coney Island Stadium. The contest, set for fifteen rounds, has aroused keen interest and the seashore officials are prepared to accommodate a crowd of more than 18,000.

Ace Hudkins

Both Hudkins and McGraw wound up training today, primed for their best battle. Hudkins, who had trouble making weight for Loayza, losing his forfeit because he came in a pound over the limit, promises to be inside the 135-pound mark tomorrow night.

Another interesting bout on the card will be the semifinal, in which Johnny Wilson, former world's mid-

NEWPORT (R. I.) Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—While William Tilden, Manuel Alonso and Brian Norton were gaining their brackets in the semifinal round of the invitation tennis tournament at the Newport Casino today William Johnston, winner of the challenge cup last year, was still confined to his bed, recovering from an attack of the grip. Although his temperature had gone down to normal, the Californian was still in need of rest, and he stated tonight that he will default to Alfred Chapin in the singles, but continue in the doubles.

It is not very often that tennis of so high an order is played under miserable weather conditions as was furnished in the three singles and one doubles match that were put on this morning. Tilden and Cranston Holman were the first to go on, both prepared with spiked shoes. The champion won at 6-4, 6-3, and got a lot more enjoyment out of the play that might have been expected under the circumstances.

PYLE SAYS DAVIS CUP STAR TO OPPOSE LENGEN AS PRO

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 26. (AP)—A tennis star of international prominence, at present a member of the American Davis Cup team, will be one of the opponents of Suzanne Lenglen on her professional tour this fall, it was announced here today by C. C. Pyle, her tour manager. Pyle declined to name Suzanne's opponent at this time. Asked if the opponent was not William T. Tilden of Philadelphia, the promoter declined to say yes or no.

"It would be unfair to name the player at this time," he said. "I will announce the name of the player on September 15." This date is immediately after the close of the Davis Cup events.

Pyle said that Mlle. Lenglen would arrive in New York on September 27 and that her first games would be played in that city October 8 and 9.

O'Brien and Demsky Head Hollywood Legion Program Tonight

FAVOR TOMMY TO WIN BOUT

Local Lightweight Out to Kayoe Australian

Georgie Gordon, Barrie in Semi-Wind-up Spot

Grandetta, Alike Akol Down for Special Event

Paul Demsky came all the way from Australia to get a shot at the lightweight champion of the world and before he can get it he must face some pretty tough opposition, part of which is his fight with Tommy O'Brien in the main event at the Hollywood American Legion stadium tonight.

The O'Brien-Demsky fight is an international bout that would fill an arena much larger than Hollywood if it had the smoke-up that some of the shots have had. O'Brien wants to fight any lightweight in the world, preferably Sammy Mandell for the champion ship. Paul Demsky is the best in the lightweight division of Australia.

There is a big chance that Demsky will beat O'Brien tonight. He didn't see anything marvelous in O'Brien when Tommy fought Tod Morgan and beat the junior lightweight champion. When Manager Tom Gallery asked the Australian who he wanted to fight next he named O'Brien. Demsky realizes that he can become famous should he beat Tommy and it is the quickest way to fame and fortune.

O'Brien's big chance tonight is for a knockout. He has the punch with a world of ring generalship. Tommy knows all the angles in the fight game. Many times victory has come to him simply because he outsmarted the other fellow at the right time. In Demsky he meets a pretty wise hombre, a fellow who is smart, a good boxer with a very good sock.

The favorite tonight will be O'Brien because he has a knockout wallop and the fans expect to see him land it. In the three fights that Demsky has had in Los Angeles not once has he been on the floor or in a bad way. If he can get past O'Brien tonight and that famous right, the world had better look out for the Australian entry in the lightweight division.

Another fight on the card that will prove a sensation is the semi-wind-up. Georgie Gordon, managed by Clyde Hudkins, is a lightweight who may be a sensation in Southern California in sixty days. He is a fellow with a great punch. He fights Buzz Barrie, a fighter with a hefty sock.

Frankie Grandetta will have his troubles with Alkie Akol. The baby sheik has been very popular with the Legion regulars but he has been matched with one of the best little Filipino fighters in the game.

Two four-round shots start off the evening's festivities and they are the knock-'em-dead type of fighters doing the milling.

OBSERVATIONS

BILL HENRY

If those St. Louis Cardinals an awful debate there's going should win the pennant, what to be over the wisdom of Manager McCarthy of the Chicago Cubs in giving Grover Cleveland Alexander the blue envelope. As we recollect it, however, McCarthy was quoted on one occasion as saying that Alexander might possibly be a winner for somebody else but that all he was doing for the Cubs was breaking down their morale. It probably took some such violent action as Alex got from McCarthy to wake the great pitcher up and make him realize that he ought to pull himself together. Since joining St. Louis, Alex has won seven and lost five. While with the Cubs he was winning about one out of five starts.

From all reports it is not going to be any cakewalk into the challenge round of the Davis Cup for our friends from France. Nobody who saw the Japanese Davis Cup teams play at the L. A. Tennis Club a few weeks ago would have picked them as a strong contender for any kind of a title, but the Nipponese are a determined and energetic race and they have been working all the daylight hours of every day to get in shape. Harada is manifestly a great player on grass and his victory over LaCoste without any doubt threw a chill into the Frenchmen. The French, however, may be expected to clinch their victory today in the doubles. If they don't win today they may be shut out of the challenge round.

Just got the inside dope on the Dempsey fight from a gent at the soda fountain—"It's this way," he said. "Dempsey could knock Tunney out in a punch, but Dempsey has plenty of dough and doesn't want to fight any more so he figures he'll just lay down to Tunney and pick himself up a nice wad of dough in the meanwhile. That way he quits well fixed and the white race keeps the title and everybody's happy. I bet a big wad on Jack against Carpentier and I know he could whip Tunney easy, but I'm not betting on this fight a-tall. Not me, big boy!" WARNER FEARS HUSKIES

PORTLAND, Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—"No, sir," said Glen Warner with emphasis today en route to Stanford. "I am not leaving the Pacific Coast at the end of this football season.

"I am not even thinking of leaving the Coast. I like the Coast, I like Stanford and I like the Pacific Coast conference and the football it plays. It's true the University of Pittsburgh has done a little flirting relative to my return at the end of my Stanford engagement, but it was entirely unofficial and I have not the slightest intention of going East. As long as Stanford wants me, I'll stay."

Warner looks for an exceptionally interesting football season this fall on the Coast, and he picks several teams to make it tough for him. His own prospects look pretty good, he admits, but he doesn't limit the other contenders to the University of Southern California, as some critics are doing, by any means.

"Southern California will be good, very good," said Warner. "It has speed and veterans and plays a sound, sane game. But there are others. In fact, I find pretty nearly all the teams are hopeful this fall.

"Oregon Agricultural College, under Schissler, looks strong and so does Oregon under Cap. McEwan. Nor can you overlook Washington State. Babe Hollingberry, the Cougars' new coach, is not a college man but a good many of our Stanford men played under his coaching at the Olympic Club and what they say about him impresses me greatly. Hollingberry is resourceful and aggressive and he teaches a sane and conservative though not too conservative game. At Washington State Hollingberry has some fine material to work with and there's Washington," continued Warner. "For some reason, I cannot understand this fall not to rank Washington as one of the favorites in the conference football race. Yet from all I have seen and can learn Washington will be exceedingly formidable."

Then Warner proceeded to give a tribute of impartial praise to George Guttormsen, the 1925 Washington quarter and 1926 quarter and captain-elect, that would have made that young man blush with pleasure could he have heard it.

"As to California," went on the veteran coach, "I fail to see any reason for reading that team out of the race, either. California may not have an outstanding team this season, but it will have a good team that's certain."

THIRTEEN HOLLYWOOD CLUB SWIMMERS TO TRY CHANNEL

Officials of the Hollywood Athletic Club are determined to get a little inside dope on the currents in the channel between Long Beach and Catalina and for that reason Coach Clyde Swendson announces that thirteen of the best swimmers in his class will on September 12 take off from Point Fernard at 4 a.m. in the morning and each man swim one mile and a half.

Swendon stated that the feat should be finished in 12 hours and if the test proves successful he will attempt the channel swim himself.

Among those that will make up the relay team of the Hollywood club are Bob French, Ted Baer, Vernon Rue, Bob Sides, Charley Fletcher, Thomas Pierce, Dan Wickland, Jimmy Graham, Austin Clapp, Lee Jarvis, Chester Floyd, Jerry Witt and Harold Ploessel.

Plans were being formulated yesterday for a similar attempt by eight Southern California stars, to be picked by Fred Cady of the Los Angeles Athletic Club. The Long Beach Junior Chamber of Commerce will stage the event. It will be for the purpose of determining exactly what would happen to a swimmer in the water. Norman Kettering of Long Beach, Hal Smith of the Ambassador plunge, Chester Floyd, Fred Wadley and Wally O'connor of Venice, George Leech of the L.A.A.C. and Mrs. Fred Cady (Viola Hartman).

MAIA DEFAULTS TO STAR 389

Churchill's Boat Wins Race But Withdraws

Wimitch Cops Three Straight to Annex Trophy

Meteor Wins from Challenger in Sloop Event

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—With a fairish westerly breeze and perfect yachting weather prevailing, one Pacific Coast championship and three regatta series titles were decided in the Pacific Coast championship regatta today. The Coast title fell to Myron Spaulding's new star-class craft, designated in lieu of a better name, as the 389.

Something of a technical blemish, however, is attached to the 389's new title of Coast star-boat champion, for the honor was bestowed only after the Maia, sailed by Commodore Owen Churchill of the Catalina Island Yacht Club, elected to default.

The Maia, by virtue of its victory in today's final star-boat series race, tied for the title with the 389 with 15 points. The regatta committee, headed by Lester Stone, decided on a fourth race between the 389 and the Maia to settle the issue, but Commodore Churchill, in no uncertain terms, flatly refused to go through with the committee's edict.

The Lady Ada, by placing second in today's final race, won first honors in the schooner-class series with a total of 12 points. The Shawnees, owned by Mark Fontana, won today's event and finished second in the series, one point behind the Lady Ada, owned by Roland Fontana.

The Wimitch made it three straight today and copped the yawl-class trophy, the Santa Barbara Yacht Club craft, amassing a total of 10 points in the series. Today the Wimitch defeated the Dolphin, the Traunt and the Pronto II remaining out of the race because of broken gear.

The Meteor, sailed by Commodore Charles Langlais, defeated the Challenger, thereby winning the handicap sloop cup. The Meteor finished the series with 6 points, one better than the Challenger. In the final of the small-sloop series, the Betty T. trimmed the Chance, but Ben Brooks's sailer, by virtue of its earlier victories, was awarded the series cup.

The Alert III was protested and disqualified for fouling the Alcatraz buoy in last Sunday's race. The committee's action deprives the Santa Barbara boat of 7 points and knots the R-class series into a triple tie between the Sir Tom, Pirate and the Machree, each boasting 13 points. The final race of the R-class series will feature tomorrow's program.

LOCAL GOLFERS STAR IN PLAY

that changed the tournament into a semicollegiate tee and greens tussle.

Clifford H. B. Little, fast stepping and often times trotting youngster from the Los Serranos club, one-putted eleven greens for an approximate medal of 71 to defeat Fay Coleman, of the California Club, 2 and 7, in the first match of the day. Coleman played very fine golf but the sensational putting of the up-state youngster dropped one of the most promising juniors in the west.

E. H. Post, Jr., still another stellar local entrant in the chase for the richest prize offered in West Coast competition came from behind with two beautiful 20 and 25-foot putts on both seventeen and eighteen to defeat Warren W. Beckwith of the Rancho Club, the senior golf champion of the United States, 1 up.

David Martin, Southern California junior champion, a youngster with a lot of tourney experience and a firm name based on the skilful teachings of Earnest Martin, his father, and Hunt Martin, an uncle, piled up a four-point lead over Frank Delcot going out this morning, won the tenth before the up-State golfing fourth horseman started driving to halve the eleventh, and then the youngster, who has a great chance of winning the famous silver-lined Spreckels pot, stood up under a barrage of five successive threes, losing as many holes, and was all square before winning the last hole with a birdie and the match, one-up.

Martin played perfect golf in his second match of the day and defeated Cliff Little, 3 and1, when the 15-year-old exponent laced two balls out of bounds playing to sixteen.

Allen Moser, medalist in the present play with a 36-hole aggregate of 147 yesterday, and winner of the prized $1000 bowl last year, had to play fine golf to defeat R. Goldwater, 1-up, this morning. Goldwater led through most of the match but broke when Moser, playing a difficult shot from a trap, carried 170 yards to the sixteenth green. Moser had little trouble winning from E. Limberg, 6-up, when the latter was unable to play his best.

Ward Edmunds, just about the class of the local tourney, carried a fine reputation to Stanford and as a result, has led his college team to high West Coast laurels. Individually he was runner-up in the California intercollegiate championship several months ago and will give David Martin a great game here tomorrow. Edmunds won his first match from A. F. Healy, 7 and 6, then scored a 72 to defeat W. M. White, 4 and 2, this afternoon.

Results in leading flights here today were as follows:

SPRECKELS' FLIGHT

Allen Moser defeated R. Goldwater, 1 up.
E. Limberg defeated A. Mathewson, 2 and 1.
R. H. Post, Jr. defeated W. W. Beckwith, 1 up.
Eddie Meyberg defeated Tommy Owens, 1 up.
Ward Edmunds defeated A. F. Healy, 7 and 6.
W. M. White defeated W. Edmunds, Jr., 3 and 2.
Cliff Little defeated Fay Coleman, 2 and 1.
David Martin defeated Frank Delcot, 2 up.

FIRST FLIGHT

E. B. Stanley defeated L. Sickler, 1 up.
H. D. MacKinnon, Jr. defeated J. I. Hast, 5 and 4.
C. N. Kelly, Jr. defeated D. S. Chisholm, 1 up.
L. S. Ketle defeated Neal Borns, 1 up, 19 holes.
E. K. Patton defeated George Carpenter, 3 and 4.
Ralph S. Dold defeated J. McGregor, 5 and 4.
E. E. Coutts defeated F. C. Stevens, Jr., 3 and 1.
F. Braddock defeated H. Pickett, 1 up, 19 holes.

Foursomes flight, second round—Allen Moser defeated E. Lunberg, 6 up; Eddie Meyberg defeated E. H. Post, Jr., 221; Ward Edmunds defeated W. M. White, 422; David Martin defeated Cliff Little, 321.

TUNNEY FORMER MARINE

Gene Tunney, contender for the heavyweight champion crown, became a boxer after joining the United States Marines when but 19 years of age.

MISS HULL IN VICTORY

CHICAGO, Aug. 26. (AP)—Miss Naomi Hull of Kendallville, Ind., put Marion Turpie, the New Orleans sensation, out of the women's western golf championship tournament by winning her third-round match, 1 up, 44m.

CARDS TUMBLE

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 26. (AP)—St. Louis today dropped back into a tie with Cincinnati for second place by losing the series opener to Philadelphia, 2 to 3. The Cardinals touched Dean for thirteen hits, but were unable to make them timely. St. Louis' defeat today put Pittsburgh back at the head of the league. Score:

Bush Garners Sixth Win for Chicago Bruins

CHICAGO, Aug. 26. (AP)—Guy Bush won his sixth consecutive victory today when Chicago ran its string of straight victories to five by defeating Boston, 3 to 1, in the first game of the series. Bush's record of scoreless innings was broken by Pitcher Wertz, who knocked a fluke home run, the ball bounding over the fence in center field. Bush had not allowed a run for twenty-five innings. REDS CLIMB

CINCINNATI, Aug. 26. (AP)—Jakie May and Dazzy Vance staged a pitching duel in the first game of the series here today, but Cincinnati bunched hits in the eighth inning and won from Brooklyn, 3 to 1. Christensen's single to right with the bases full brought in two tallies. May fanned eight men. Manager Robinson of the Dodgers announced that "Moose" Claybaugh, home-run king of the bushes, would report for duty with the team Sunday. Claybaugh has made sixty-two circuit drives this season. MONKS ANNEX IN ELEVENTH

Barfoot Bests Shellenback in Twirling Battle

McDowell's Hit Rolls Past Kerr to Settle Tilt

O'Doul and Frederick Swat Out Circuit Smashes

ty of time for a force play, but Dud dropped the ball and all hands were safe. McDowell sacrificed, Gooch making a great play on the bunt to prevent Jimmy beating it out for a hit. Instead of walking Slade, the infield was drawn in and "Oaky" promptly tapped one over Lee's head for a single, Boone and Jones counting. Walters lined to Coumbe, who stepped on first for a double play to end the inning.

Hollywood tied the score in the third when Johnny Frederick clouted one of Barfoot's offerings over the right field screen for the second circuit clout of the contest. Gooch walked and O'Doul hit into a double play. That was the only time that Lefty didn't hit safely, the star outfielder getting four bingles in five trips to the plate.

O'Doul singled to open the Hollywood sixth but got only as far as third, a great pick-up by McDowell of Jones's low throw saving the Monks a lot of grief.

BREAK THE TIE

In the seventh, though, the home guards put over a run to temporarily break the tie. Lee walked for a starter and Cook sacrificed him to second. Shellenback tried his best to win his own game by ramming a long double to center, Lee scoring. Frederick and Gooch were easy outs, so Shelly was left stranded on the sacks.

The Missions once more knotted the count in the eighth and Shellenback had to pitch some mighty good ball to keep them from getting more runs. Barfoot opened with a walk and Swanson sent him to third with a double to left center. Finn hit a sacrifice fly to O'Doul and Barfoot scored. Gillespie's infield out moved Swanson to third, where he died when Shellenback struck out the mighty Ike Boone.

Hollywood opened both the eighth and ninth innings with hits and sacrificed the runner to second, but a couple of neat catches by Boone spoiled the chances to score. In the tenth O'Doul singled and Sheehan sacrificed for a starter. Coumbe was purposely passed and Kerr made the strategy work perfectly by hitting into a double-play.

THEN THE ELEVENTH

Shellenback fanned Finn and got rid of Gillespie in the eleventh, but Boone started the dirty work with a double to right center. Jones was walked purposely, but the Hollywood strategy didn't get over because Kerr let McDowell's roller go through his legs and Boone counted. However, the official scorer ruled McDowell's rap a hit, so Johnny was saved the ignonomy of having an error chalked up against him. McDowell was out trying to steal second to end the round.

The Stars caused a slight flame of hope to flare up in their half of the eleventh when Shellenback preached first after two were out when Slade threw low. But Johnny Frederick hit a nice gentlemanly grounder to McDowell and that ended that. The score:

HOFF TO VAULT AT STATE FAIR

teur in the United States, the 23-year-old brilliant all-round field and track athlete has joined the growing column of prominent amateurs that have turned to the more lucrative professional field.

Herman Roe, president of the Minnesota State Fair, announced today that he had received telegraphic acceptance from Hoff of a contract calling for the latter's daily appearance before the grand stand at the fair, September 4 to 11.

Using a special collapsible track, his own device, Hoff will try to break his approved record of 13ft. 11 3-8in. His unofficial marks exceed 14ft.

Roe has been negotiating with Hoff for several weeks. He met him in California late in June and then proposed his appearance here as a professional, pointing to the heavy Scandinavian-talking population in the Northwest as incentives. Just what the all-important monetary incentive was, Roe did not announce.

Hoff's acceptance of the fair contract was contained in a telegram signed by his manager, H. C. Brandom, filed at Los Angeles late Wednesday. The contract will be signed when Hoff arrives here.

"For his daily appearance at the fair, Hoff will receive a flat payment that will make him one of the highest-priced performers in any State fair in the United States this year," said President Roe.

Hoff actually became a professional here some time ago, when he received money for appearing in a combined dancing and pole-vaulting act at a local theater. The vaulter, however, claimed that he was being paid for his dancing, rather than athletic ability. A.A.U. officials disagreed with him and declared him a professional, although no official action was taken. Hoff's latest move apparently indicates that he has given up all hope of retaining or regaining any amateur standing.

SILVER TO INVADE EAST

San Francisco Lightweight to Seek Mandell After Bout With DeHate at Auditorium Wednesday

Declaring that he would go East within the next few months to force Sammy Mandell into a lightweight championship match, "Long John" Silver arrived in Los Angeles yesterday to box Paul DeHate at the Olympic Auditorium next Wednesday night.

Silver is ruler of the flock when it comes to Pacific Coast lightweights and he thinks he has reached the stage where a trip East would be sure to place him at the very top of the ladder.

Jack Silver.

The matchmaker of Tex Rickard's Madison Square Garden has been negotiating with Silver to make his first start there. Jack is willing to take on anybody, but evidently the East is as hard put to find an opponent for him as Olympic officials were until they landed DeHate.

The reason why all of the good boys steer clear of Silver is obvious. He is a master boxer and a hard puncher. He would be a favorite over any man except Mandell and an even bet against him.

"Mushy" Callahan did the unwise thing of meeting Silver and he will never forget it. Jack defeated him decisively, knocking him down in the opening round.

Silver arrived yesterday on the Lark and in the afternoon took his first gymnasium workout. He confined his activities to rope skipping, bag punching, shadow boxing and set-up exercises. Tomorrow he will box.

DeHate is daily making a fine impression at the Main Street Athletic Club where he has been boxing with the fastest lightweights available. There is a fire and dash to his work that bodes no pleasant evening for the San Francisco Jewish boy.

In particular DeHate seems to be leveling with his punches. He is a terrific hitter and if he connects on Silver, "Long John" is bound to go down.

ROMANO ENTERS FRACAS

Italian Heavyweight Wrestler Arrives For Bout With Lewis; Says He'll Win Tuesday

Mike Romano, Italian heavyweight of New York, who meets Ed "Strangler" Lewis at Vernon next Tuesday night, arrived in Los Angeles yesterday afternoon to prepare for the match and before 6 o'clock had informed various and sundry regulars along Spring street that he intended to flop the headlock king in John De Palma's big show.

Romano declares that when charges and counter-charges are being hurled he must be considered, because, deep down in his heart, he believes that he is the best of them all.

The Italian champion is a big man scaling better than 200 pounds, and is firmly convinced that he will be able to beat Lewis Tuesday night in John De Palma's program. They are to wrestle for the best two out of three falls, with a time limit of two hours imposed, the same conditions that surrounded their match in Chicago, when they went the full time limit to a sizzling draw.

Wayne (Big) Munn, former star football player of the University of Nebraska, also arrived in Los Angeles last night for his match with Howard Cantonwine of Iowa. Munn will be greeted today by a big bunch of Nebraska alumni who have never seen him in action since he copped the Missouri Valley Conference honors with the Cornhuskers. Several hundred of them will be at the ringside Tuesday night to watch him on the mat. Cantonwine arrived from Salt Lake City yesterday afternoon.

Arrangements are being made for the men to work out at the Main-street Athletic Club and hours are now being assigned so that every afternoon mat fans will be able to see the men train. Ed (Strangler) Lewis however, will do no training in Los Angeles for the match. He has established training quarters at Garden Grove, where he will spend all his time until ten days before his title match with Joe Stecher, October 5, when he will come to Los Angeles. However, the big Kentuckian is in splendid shape and is quite confident that he will score a decisive victory over Romano next Tuesday night.

SEALS GARNER RAGGED CLASH

singled and Weis and Jahn were passed. The pass to Jahn forced in a run. Hood then singled to right, scoring Hemingway and when Yelle failed to stop Jolley's throw, Weis also scored.

Moudy got going after that and the Angels could not score, although they got two hits in the sixth. Jolley took a line drive away from Hemingway in the ninth with a fine one-handed catch and Moudy knocked down a hard drive from the bat of Weis for the second out. But Brazil and Jahn were both walked and Hood ended the game with a pop fly to Baker.

Brazil had a chance to do some damage in the fifth, but he popped out with the bases filled. Score:

JAP CUP TEAM SPILLS DOPE

at Forest Hills today as it started the interzone final match with Japan.

It ran into one snag in the person of Takeichi Harada, who tripped up Rene LaCoste, ace of the Frenchmen, in four sensational sets, and barely escaped another when Henri Cochet, conqueror of Vincent Richards in France this spring, was carried to five hard-fought sets by Tsumio Tawara.

Harada won his great victory by scores of 6-4, 4-6, 6-3, 9-7 and Cochet finally subdued his stubborn opponent in the first match of the play at 1-6, 4-6, 7-5, 6-3, 6-2.

The tie stands even at one match all and the winners of tomorrow's doubles match will have the edge when the teams go into the deciding singles Saturday. France has named Cochet and Jacques Brugnon for her team while Japan is depending on the two who went so beautifully today.

FEG MURRAY ON FOTHERGILL

Peach realizes that, though his eye and brain are as keen as ever, there is no need for him and his ailing legs with a triumvirate like Heilmann, Manush and Fothergill to hold down the outfield for his team. Last year when Heilmann, Cobb and Wingo were all batting around .400, the unlucky Fothergill had to sit on the bench, as his fine stick work was even surpassed by his three team-mates.

Now, however, the big boy from Massillon, O., has come into his own. And this lad (he was only 27 last week) can field as well as bat. He is known as a ball-hawk and a very fast all-around performer, in spite of his tendency to take on weight. Bob worked in the steel mills when he was a boy and first played ball with Bloomington in the Three-Eye League, then Rochester in the International. This is his fifth season with Detroit.

Three Things

In LUCKY STRIKE cigarettes you get all that can be in any very fine cigarette—also the added pleasure produced by the extra process of toasting.

You get the choicest Turkish and domestic tobaccos, properly aged and perfectly blended.

But here are three additional things:

LUCKY STRIKE tobaccos are toasted for 45 minutes in superheat. This (1) removes all "bite" and harshness. It (2) develops the hidden flavors of the world's finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos. Then (3) sudden chilling seals the moist fragrance in, insuring freshness.

"IT'S TOASTED" represents a costly extra process that adds the finishing touch to a wonderfully fine cigarette.

BECAUSE IT'S TOASTED

That's Why Luckies Taste So Good

Dempsey's Punch Too Much for Helpers

CHAMP'S AIDES LACK STAMINA

Uses Seven Partners in Five Rounds of Work

Tunney Kills Off Retainers in Road Marathon

Rickard Predicts Fight Gate of Million Dollars

ATLANTIC CITY (N. J.) Aug. 26. (AP)—Jack Dempsey engaged in his first open-air workout in the Greyhound racetrack today, driving punches at seven human shock absorbers, while a throng of 1500 paid $1.10 each for the privilege of watching him.

The world's heavyweight champion was unable to get the kind of a workout he needs, due to the inability of his sparring partners to stand up under a bombardment of heavy punches. Two of them failed to last a round; consequently Dempsey faced seven sparring mates for his five rounds of glove work. He devoted his attention to developing speed, ducking and footwork. He pulled his punches except when boxing Bill Tate, the giant Negro, to avoid a slaughter.

PUNCHES BAG

Dempsey's workout in addition to the boxing consisted of a round of tugging on the pulleys, another round of driving punches into the heavy bag and two rounds of shadow boxing.

Harry Greb, former middleweight champion, was an interested spectator. He said Dempsey needed heavier and more aggressive sparring partners to enable him to get into condition. Greb has faced the champion in training bouts and also has fought Gene Tunney, the challenger, five times, going sixty-five rounds against him.

Dempsey questioned Greb today concerning Tunney's style and punching ability and got an excellent line on the challenger, particularly his body attack.

Dempsey was late in appearing for his workout as he was at the railroad station buying good-by to his wife, Estelle Taylor. She left for Hollywood to start on a new motion picture. She has no desire to see her husband fight and will not be at the ringside when he engages Tunney in Philadelphia on the night of September 23.

GENE MISSES SHORT PUNCHES

By Jack Farrell

SPECULATOR (N. Y.) Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—A burning sun today lifted the veil of depression which had hung over this isolated community for four rainy days. And so Gene Tunney gyrated through his daily training routine with added zest and vigor.

RUNS EIGHT MILES

For the first time since he started his preparatory work for his championship battle with Jack Dempsey, the challenger was accompanied by his full retinue of sparring partners when he hit the trail through the woods for his daily eight-mile jaunt.

Gene set a merry pace and Billy Vidabeck, Bayonne (N. J.) lightheavyweight, dropped out of the procession after covering two miles, unable to keep up.

"He starts off at a lively gait and never slackens up," Vidabeck complained. "I'm used to the old running and walking game. One has to be a pretty fair cross-country runner and have a penchant for marathoning to go the route with that baby."

GORMAN QUITS

Bud Gorman yelled quits after covering four miles. Osk Till and Johnny Grosso turned back at the five-mile post, all fagged out.

When Tunney stripped for his afternoon session in the open-air ring about 1500 spectators were on hand. His over-anxiety to show some fast glove swishing seriously affected his judgment of distance during his encounter with Till, the first to oppose him. But he shortened his punches and got a real three-round workout with Gorman. He also boxed two brisk rounds with Vidabeck and Grosso, going nine rounds in all.

WALL RUSH WORK ON ARENA SEATS

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 26. (AP)—Tex Rickard's contractors who will put in the seats at the Sesquicentennial Stadium for the Dempsey-Tunney heavyweight championship fight September 23, next, will have to do some fast work.

It was stated today at the exposition offices that the job of putting down flooring on the field for the seats around the ring will not begin until September 18. This is due to the fact that several athletic events are scheduled for the stadium during the first half of September. The work will proceed day and night.

PLENTY CHECKS

The ticket sale got under way here today at three branch offices. The main office at 1420 Chestnut street will be opened tomorrow and Tex Rickard's corps of office men is preparing for a busy time. Joseph F. Boynton, Rickard's treasurer, expressed surprise at the interest already being shown in the big bout.

"The demand for reservations has been so great," he said, "that it wouldn't surprise me if there was a complete sell-out a week before the fight. Because of the steady influx of checks and cash, I cannot give a definite figure, but right now you may safely estimate the advance sale at the $1,000,000 mark."

Boynton said that 130,000 tickets had been printed for the bout.

Fifteen hundred ushers, including the 100 trained men from Rickard's Madison Square Garden organization, will be used for the record crowd that is expected in the Sesquicentennial Stadium.

ENGLISH RACE DRIVER KILLED

BOULOGNE (France) Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—A disaster overshadowed the first day of the annual automobile races here when Capt. Dick Howey, one of England's first race drivers and a former guardsman in King George's Life Guards, not knowing the Boulogne track properly, missed a hairpin bend and dashed full speed into a crowd of spectators, killing himself and one spectator; cutting both legs off a policeman, smashing one leg and arm of a young boy and injuring several other people.

DON KENNEDY WINNER OVER GEORGIE LOPEZ

Don Kennedy, former Pacific Coast flyweight champ, won over Georgie Lopez, Wilmington bantam, in the six-round main event at the Pasadena Armory last night. In the semi-wind-up Young Lancho trimmed Joe Cortez after six fast rounds.

In the other bouts Rusty Lang defeated Dick Green in a six-rounder; Richard Aguayo knocked out Billy Hause in the first, and Strother Phillips kayoed Al Dubin in the first round.

ERNIE OWENS SIGNED TO BATTLE DELANEY

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26. (AP)—Jimmy Delaney, St. Paul light heavyweight, and Ernie Owens of Los Angeles were matched today to meet here at the Dreamland Auditorium, Friday, September 3.

RISKO BEATEN BY BIG SWEDE

Harry Persson Decisively Whips Baker Boy

Montmorency Munn Puts Gob Away in a Hurry

he were singing the twins to sleep or carrying a quart of something.

But when he fired his right hand straight and sharp to Risko's head and fetched it booming against Risko's ribs as the runty Cleveland pastry cook went charging at him, the customers began to make serious notes on the Swede.

BLOCKS WITH ARMS

Persson still retains enough of his European manner to be able to block with his arms, which is something that few American heavyweights bother to do, but when crowded too closely he can spread his legs, lower his head and whip punches to the ribs and uppercuts to the face with most of the present-day also rans.

Persson jabbed some with his left in the first few rounds, but Risko learned to elude that jarring punch after the third and they then settled down to an earnest job of indiscriminate whaling. Although Johnny's left hook once caught Gene Tunney in an absent-minded mood and dumped him on his spine, that same left slid off Persson's right arm every time it started until the sixth round, when Risko shortened the range and whipped it over to the jaw three or four times. The punch that dropped Tunney did not seem to annoy Persson, though, and he counterbalanced it with a resounding right whack at the heart, which was certainly no pleasure to Risko. Persson banged Johnny with his straight right to the head half a dozen times in the eighth and ninth, and there were some moments when Risko seemed slightly wobbly from the force of the same.

There were four other heavyweight fights on the program, it being Mr. Tex Rickard's desire to whet the populus interest in the Dempsey-Tunney display by showing the populace how hard heavyweights really can hit and how entertainingly they can fall when hit hard.

Montmorency Munn, who couldn't find trouble enough to engage his quarrelsome talents while serving as a member of the Nebraska Legislature, took a quick slap at a big navy man named Jim Sigmund and knocked him out in less than two minutes.

Munn is the first legislator to fight with his fists as well as with vocabulary and what is more disturbing to those who cherish the vanishing old order of things in pugilism, he is the first prize fighter named Montmorency, and, furthermore, he is a pretty good prize fighter.

ATTRACTS NOTICE

He is a long, Lincolnesque party, with a facial get-up of a reformer and petulant manner of hurling his right fist. He also shows some petulance in the hurling of his other fist and it is about time to begin paying him some heed.

Sigmund used to hold some sort of navy championship. He came into the ring weighing 201 pounds to Munn's 213, but as soon as they put their hands up it became apparent that Munn had an overwhelming majority. Montmorency advanced down the aisle and socked Sigmund with a joint resolution flush on the chin. Sigmund's feet began to slide and Munn tossed in a straight right to the teeth that sent the navy party down by the stern. Sigmund took a count of four and rolled to his feet, but Munn pressed the debate, belting him across the ring with haphazard swings intended to open up his defense. Sigmund's guard dropped for an instant and Munn's left came up a jolting hook to the chin and started Jim jabbering to himself. A left hook then crashed into the pit of his body and he pitched forward. Munn brought up his right to the jaw, knocking him limp, face down. Lewis Magnolia, the referee, then stepped in to salvage what was left of the navy party without giving him a count. Munn was awarded a technical knockout in 1 minute and 22 seconds.

In the next demonstration, Knute Hansen, a bland, blond ski jumper from Racine, Wis., took a vast number of unrestricted throws at the exposed chin of Alfred Porzio who comes from the Argentine. Porzio went out, pitching to the canvas on his prominent nose in the second round after a stupefying attack.

AND THEN A FOLK DANCE

In a folk dance, listed on the program as the semifinal, Bob Lawson, who occupies a stall adjoining that of Tiger Flowers in Walk Miller's stable of Georgia brunettes, outmauled Sandy Seifert of Pittsburgh. They pawed and floundered through ten rounds and their own relief at the closing clang of the bell was as nothing compared with the relief of the customers. Lawson won the decision. They grossed about 400 pounds, evenly divided.

The two quick knockouts had so shortened the entertainment that Tex Rickard came out from under the settee in his office, where he had been hiding from a large number of citizens wishing free tickets to the Dempsey-Tunney fight in Philadelphia, and hired a pair of lightweights to indulge in four rounds of work, object homicide. One was Billy Wiley of New York, the other Bert Hall, habitat, Germany. Billy gave and took a lavish output of abuse and won a close decision.

HOLLYWOOD CLUB TO STAGE FIGHT SHOW

Arrangements are being made by Tom Gallery, boxing commissioner, and Bob Howard, boxing instructor of the Hollywood Athletic Club, for a mammoth boxing show to take place on Wednesday night, September 20. Howard is dickering with several top notchers and expects to have three Coast champions meet the best boys of the Hollywood club.

One of the big features of the night will be the first appearance of the championship track team and members of the club are going to show the athletes who won the national A.A.U. title for the H.A.C. their appreciation.

Two wrestling matches and some high-class vaudeville will complete the program.

ROACH BUYS POLO PONIES

Eight head of embryo polo ponies will arrive at the Hal Roach stables at his ranch on Pruess Road Monday, from Moapa, Nev. They are typical cow ponies, as yet unversed in the intricacies of the game, and will be at once turned over to Roach's trainers. They were purchased by L. A. French, assistant general manager of the Roach studios, and will be added to the producer's string.

CAPTAIN SCRAGGS by Peter B. Kyne

OUR STORY:

Three Musketeers of the Sea there are; each as strange a character as the other; each subject to the same impulses and emotions; each as stubborn, cranky, impulsive, tricky and loyal as the others—meet them:

CAPT. PIONEAS P. SCRAGGS, rat-faced, grizzle-toothed and furtive; whose chief delight is to put over a trick on the other two which will result in financial advantage to himself.

ADELBERT F. GIBNEY, a large, imposing, capable but socially inoffensive person of a somewhat adventurous experience and who is cursed with too much brains, imagination and thirst. He holds a license as chief mate of steam, any ocean or tonnage.

BARTHOLOMEW McGUFFEY is a good mariner done wrong. His three aspects that of Gibney; his mentality is on a par with the other two.

The trio, once shipmates on the little freighter Maggie owned by Scraggs, are now widely separated. Scraggs has just completed a deal with one Don Manuel Lopez to use the Maggie in running in running a cargo of arms and ammunition to Mexican revolutists. He hasn't seen Gibney or McGuffey for more than a year.

But as the Maggie is proceeding down the South Coast, the agent of the revolutionary army hoards her and proves to be none other than Mr. Gibney, late commodore in the Colombian Navy.

At 6 o'clock next morning the Maggie was rounding Point Loma, heading in for San Diego Bay, and Capt. Scraggs went below and awakened Mr. Gibney.

"What's for breakfast, Scraggsy, old kid?" asked Mr. Gibney.

"Fried eggs," said Capt. Scraggs, remembering Mr. Gibney's partiality for that form of nutriment in the vanished days of the green-pea trade. "Ham an' fried eggs an' a sizzlin' pot o' coffee. Thought a way out o' our mess, Gib?"

"Not yet," replied Mr. Gibney as he rolled out of bed, "but eggs is always stimulatin,' and I dont give up hope on a full stomach."

An hour later they were tied up under the coal bunkers, and at Mr. Gibney's suggestion some twenty tons of sacked coal were piled on top of the fo'castle head and on the main deck for'd, in case of emergency. They lay in the harbor all day until about 4 o'clock, when Mr. Gibney, by virtue of his authority as supercargo, ordered the lines cast off and the Maggie steamed out of the harbor.

Off Point Loma they veered to the south, leaving the Coronado Islands on the starboard quarter, ten miles to the west. Mr. Gibney was below with Capt. Scraggs, battling with the problem that confronted them, when the mate stuck his head down the companion-way to report a large power schooner coming out from the lee of the Coronados and standing off on a course calculated to intercept the Maggie in an hour or two.

Capt. Scraggs and Mr. Gibney sprang up on the bridge at once, the latter with Scragg's long glass up to his eye.

"She was hove to under the lee of the island, and the minute we came out of the harbor and turned south she come nosin' after us," said the mate.

"Hum!" muttered Mr. Gibney. "Gasoline schooner. Two masts and baldheaded. About a 120 ton, I should say, and showin' a pretty pair of heels. There's somethin' up for'd—yes—let me see— ye-e-es, there's two more—hold sailor! it's a gunboat! One of those doggoned gasoline coast patrol boats, and there's the Federal flag flying at the fore."

"Let's put back to San Diego Bay," quavered Capt. Scraggs. "I'll be durned if I relish the idee o' losin' the Maggie."

"Too late," said the philosophical Gibney. "We're in Mexican waters now, and she come out us off from the bay. The only thing we can do is to run for it and try to lose her after dark. Tell the engineer to crowd her to the limit. There ain't much wind to speak of, so I guess we can manage to hold our own for a while. Nevertheless, I've got a hunch that we'll be overhauled. Of course, you ain't got no papers to show, Scraggs, and they'll search the cargo, and confiscate us, and shoot the whole bloomin' crowd of us. I bet a dollar to a doughnut that fellow Lopez sold us out, after the fashion of the country. I can't help thinkin' that that gunboat was there just a-waitin for us to show up."

For several minutes Mr. Gibney continued to study the gunboat until there could no longer be any doubt that she intended to overhaul them. He made out that she had a long gun for'd, with a battery of two one-pounders on top of her house and something on her port quarter that looked like a Maxim rapid-fire gun. About twenty men, dressed in white cloth, could be seen on her decks.

Presently Mr. Gibney was interrupted by Capt. Scraggs pulling at his sleeve.

"You was a gunner once, wasn't you Gib?" said Capt. Scraggs in a trembling voice.

"You bet I was," replied Mr. Gibney. "My shootin' won the trophy three times in succession when I was on the old Kearsarge. If I had one good gun and a half-decent crew, I'd knock that gunboat silly before she knew what had hit her.'

"Gib, I've got an idee," said Capt. Scraggs.

"Out with it," said Mr. Gibney cheerfully.

"There was four little cannon lowered into the hold the last thing before we put on the main hatch and the ammunition to load 'em with is stowed in the after hold and very easy to get at."

Mr. Gibney turned a beaming face to the skipper, reached out his arms and folded Capt. Scraggs in an embrace that could have done credit to a grizzly bear. There were genuine tears of admiration in his eyes and in his voice when he could master his emotions sufficiently to speak.

"Scraggsy, old tarpot, you've been a long time comin' through on the imagination, but you've sure arrived with all sail set. I allys thought you had about as much nerve as an oyster but I take it all back. We'll get out them two little jackass guns and fight a naval battle, and if I don't sink that Mexican gunboat and save the Maggie, feed me to the sharks, for I won't be worthy of the blood that's in me. Pipe all hands and lift off that main hatch. Reeve a block and tackle through that cargo gaff and stand by to heave out the guns."

But Capt. Scraggs had repented of his rash suggestion almost the moment he made it. Only the dire necessity of immediate measures to save the Maggie had prompted him to put the idea into Mr. Gibney's head, and when he saw the avidity with which the latter set to work clearing for action, his terror knew no bounds.

"Oh Gib," he wailed, "I'm afraid we better not try to lick that gunboat after all. They might sink us with all hands."

"Rats!" said Mr. Gibney, as he leaped into the hold. "Bear a light here until I can root out the wheels of these guns. Here they are, labeled 'Cream separator.' Stand by with that sling to—"

"But, Gib, my dear boy," protested Capt. Scraggs, "this is insanity!"

"I know it," said Mr. Gibney calmly. "Scraggsy, you're perfectly right. But I'd sooner die fightin' than let them stand me up agin a wall in Ensenada. We're filibusters, Scraggsy, and we're caught with the goods. I for one, am goin' down with the steamer Maggie, but I'm goin' down fightin' like a bear."

"Maybe—maybe we can outrun her, Gib," half sobbed Capt. Scraggs.

"No hope," replied Mr. Gibney. "Fight and die is the last resort. She's eight miles astern and gainin' every minute and when she's within two miles she'll open fire. Of course we won't be hit unless they've got a Yankee gunner aboard."

"Let's run up the Stars and Stripes and dare 'em to fire on us," said Capt. Scraggs.

"No," said Mr. Gibney firmly, "my old man didn't run for the flag an' I've sailed under it too long to hide behind it when I'm in dutch. We'll fight. If you was ever navigatin' officer on a Colombian gunboat, Scraggs, you'd realize what it means to run from a Mexican."

Thirteen Light Companies of West Merged

Public-utility companies in Oregon, Washington and Arizona are linked with a system of electric, gas, water and street-railway properties of the Middle West through a merger effected by the W. B. Foshay Company.

Organized as the People's Light and Power Corporation, the new concern has as it subsidiaries the People's West Coast Hydroelectrical Corporation, People's Arizona Gas and Electric Corporation, People's Iowa City Water Works Corporation, People's Minnesota Gas and Electric Corporation, People's Wisconsin Hydroelectric Corporation, People's Hydroelectric Vermont Corporation and the Burlington Traction Company. Thirteen original companies were brought together under the consolidation.

The financial program for the consolidation executed by O. L. Ohrstrom & Co., New York, consisted of $3,500,000 fifteen-year 5½ per cent bonds and $1,600,000 six-month to five-year 5½ per cent notes. W. B. Foshay Company took $700,000 of 7 per cent preferred stock, 16,000 shares of no par value Class A common stock and 36,000 shares of no par value Class B common stock.

Coast Cattle Markets Show Improvement

Buyers from large Coast markets have reached out into mountain sections for their supplies and have several string of cattle bought for delivery during the next ten days, according to a report issued yesterday by the California Cattlemen's Association.

Cattlemen with good holding pastures have confidence in the market and beef off dry ranges is moving first at present market levels. Evidence of a healthier undertone in the market is shown in that buyers generally have a tendency to contract ahead for delivery two and three weeks later.

Good cattle of all classes attracted attention at strengthening prices and medium cattle moved into a better price position. Purchases of feeder and stock cattle have started in earnest and considerable cattle in grades that were going to slaughter a month ago are now going to feed yards or winter ranges to be carried over.

During the first fifteen days of this month more than fifty new producers joined the co-operative movement of the association, adding some 35,000 head of cattle to the organization, the association reports.

Net of Pacific Telephone Up in Half-Year

Net earnings of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company for the six months ended June 30, last, after taxes, amounted to $8,138,978, as compared with $7,654,136 in the corresponding period of last year, an increase of $484,842, or more than 6 per cent.

Gross earnings in the half-year period aggregated $26,445,279, as against $23,865,018 in the same period of 1925. Operating income amounted to $8,571,244, against $8,528,198 in 1925.

For the month of June, net earnings after taxes amounted to $1,597,364, as compared with $1,330,651 in June, 1925, while net operating income was $1,123,983, compared with $945,545 in the previous June. Gross earnings in that month of this year aggregated $4,554,438, compared with $4,154,421 in June, last year.

UTILITY TO SELL JUICE FOR RADIO

Charge for Service Put on Electric Light Bill of Customer

The Rochester Gas and Electric Corporation has perfected a plan to supply its customers with radio programs transmitted from a central station over its own power lines, according to reports from the company's field of operation.

The plan is said to be part of a nation-wide project of the North American Company in which it is expected utility companies throughout the country eventually will participate. Under the plan customers may subscribe to the service, plug their reproducing sets supplied by the company into lighting plugs and have the accommodation charged on their light bills.

MONTANA OIL DEAL CLOSED

California Petroleum Buys Two Companies in Sunburst Field; Rounds Out Refining Operations

BY EARLE E. CROWE

California Petroleum has taken another step forward in its program of expansion, the sixth in two years. Jacques Vinmont, executive head of the company, announced yesterday the completion of negotiations for the majority control of the International Refining Company at Sunburst, Mont., and 100 per cent ownership in the Northern Star Oil and Refining Company, also operating at Sunburst.

This is the deal of which the stock market has heard rumors in the last ten days, and which is responsible for the quiet accumulation of the stock by strong interests. In itself, it is not sensational news for the market, but considered as additional evidence of aggressive expansion the announcement serves to corroborate the opinion already entertained of California Petroleum by the followers of the oils.

Through this deal, California Petroleum fortifies itself in refining facilities and crude oil resources in the important Pacific Northwest territory, and further rounds out the operations of the company. The inference can also be drawn that the basis has been laid for future entrance into the marketing business in Montana, although Mr. Vinmont did not touch upon this possibility in his announcement.

As a means of reinforcing the company's position in the refining and marketing business in the northern coastal States, the aquisition of the new companies supplies important refining facilities and crude supplies to supplement the main operations at Seattle, where the Olympic-Calpet Refining Company, a subsidiary, is located. The new refining companies are operating at the full capacity of 12,000 barrels daily, which will be increased immediately to 18,000 barrels.

When the enlargement of this capacity and of the Seattle refinery is completed, the California Petroleum Corporation will have a total refining capacity in all plants of approximately 55,000 barrels daily. The expansion in refinery operations has been rapid in the last two years because of the agressive marketing campaign undertaken by the company.

How rapidly California Petroleum has actually grown in the last two years is understood from a review of the deals for new companies completed by the management. First the Mohawk Oil Company, producing then about 2000 barrels daily, and operating two refineries, was acquired. Next, the Ventura Consolidated, one of the strong independents in Southern California, came into the fold, and brought an established marketing business, about 4500 barrels of oil, and a large refinery.

The next step was into the natural gasoline business. California Gasoline Corporation, the second largest producer of casinghead gasoline in the State, was acquired, adding 60,000 barrels daily to the natural gasoline output of California Petroleum. About the same time, the Olympic Calpet Refining Company was organized to operate in the Pacific Northwest, where the fuel oil business and the retailing of gasoline offer important opportunities. Originally, California Petroleum owned 51 per cent of this company, but about a month ago required all of the outstanding stock.

In connection with the Montana deal, Mr. Vinmont announced that Louis B. O'Neil and John O'Neil, president and vice-president of the two companies, will join the California Petroleum organization and will continue to operate the properties. Louis B. O'Neil will become a vice-president and director of California Petroleum. No public financing is involved in the acquisition of the properties.

Present production in the Sunburst field, according to Mr. Vinmont, is around 28,000 barrels daily. The new refining subsidiary has substantial quantities of this oil under contract for a period of years.

Earnings Still Reflect Sound Rail Position

NEW YORK, Aug. 26. (AP)—The prosperity of the railroads in July continues to be reflected in earnings reports of various carriers over the country.

Net operating income of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul moved up to $1,468,800 from $427,054 in July last year; the Rock Island Lines to $3,097,618 from $1,544,211; the St. Louis-San Francisco to $2,130,533 from $1,852,043; the Lehigh Valley to $1,644,203 from $1,531,957 and the Pere Marquette to $837,835 from $600,893 a year ago.

London Daily Radio

BY ARTHUR W. KIDDY

(Copyright, 1926, by New York Evening Post, Inc.)

LONDON, Aug. 26. (By Wireless)—The chief feature of the markets here today was the renewed activity and strength in the oil shares. Rubbers were weaker on the slight fall in the price of that commodity.

French francs were steady but sterling was weaker at 4.85 1-4, which means a firmer discount rate here.

Vague rumors of a large loan to the mining industry are heard, but in best quarters the idea is viewed unfavorably, regarding it as an ill digested subsidy. It is considered unlikely that the reports will materialize.

CHINO VALLEY VOTES IRRIGATION BONDS

PRESCOTT (Ariz.) Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—A bond issue of $85,000 has been voted by the Chino Valley Irrigation District, authorization given by an overwhelming majority of the acreage owners. The money is to be used in construction of a dam across Willow Creek, five miles from Prescott, supplementing present storage on Granite Creek. The project lies about twenty miles north of this city. The Prescott branch of the Valley Bank has taken a $10,000 City of Williams paving bond issue, at a premium of $682.

BIG LAKE OIL PAYS

NEW YORK, Aug. 26. (AP)—Directors of the Big Lake Oil Company have declared a dividend of 25 per cent, which represents another distribution of $1,000,000 to stockholders.

SHELL HITS NEW RECORD HIGH HERE

Balance of Oils Close Comparatively Steady; Mines Irregular

While Shell-Union was establishing a new record high at 29½ on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange yesterday, the balance of the oil shares held comparatively firm. Shell opened fractionally higher at 29 1-8, advanced to the new high and closed at 29 1-4, for a net gain of 1-4 of a point.

Union Oil of California sold off to 51 in the morning, but on a large volume of shares crossing the board in the afternoon, the stock sold at 51 1-4, the same as Wednesday's close. Associates also closed firm at 53 3-8. United Oil added a fraction to 78 1-2. Rio Grande sold firm at 24 3-4, as did California Petroleum at 32 1-4, and Marine at 1.62. Julian Petroleum preferred added a fraction to 13 1-2, resting in the afternoon to a firm close at 13 3-8. The common held at 2 1-2.

Southern California Edison common sold throughout the day at 31 1-4, as did the preferred shares. Los Angeles Gas and Electric rallied again to 99. Bancitaly Corporation added a fraction to 80 1-4, while Bank of Italy sold firm at 455, and First National at 403.

Western Apex advanced 2 points to 65, North Star moved up 1-2 of a point to 9 and Sun Dial added a point to 4 1-2. Sunnyside Mining reacted 2 points to 10, Big Jim lost 1-2 of a point to 19 1-2, as did Ottman United to 4.

Survey Reports Market Week as Trade Stimulus

Quickening of trade in Los Angeles during the period of Market Week, is stressed in Bradstreet's weekly survey, which says:

Wholesalers and manufacturers report a very satisfactory volume of business during Market Week just closed. This will be a yearly event as the trade exposition and style show met with approval of public and buyers throughout Southwest. Increased immediate and future sales reported record hot weather is restricting the downtown retail store trade for the past three days. All lines are reporting better conditions although collections are still draggy. Railroads and hotels report reservations for winter points to an increase in travel over 1925. Crop conditions continue favorably. Fruit and vegetable receipts fairly heavy at lower prices. Cotton conditions are very good with indications of good crop and price.

TRUST COMPANY HEAD HAS 104TH BIRTHDAY

MORRISTOWN (N. J.) Aug. 26. (AP) John A. Stewart, founder and chairman of the board of directors of the United States Trust Company of New York, who was assistant Secretary of the Treasury during the Civil War, today celebrated his one hundred and fourth birthday anniversary.

WOOL TONE STEADY

BOSTON, Aug. 26. (AP)—The general trend of the wool market is very steady. Opportunities to trade at slight concessions from the high point may still be found, but such cases are becoming less numerous. On the other hand, sales have increased materially, with a few concerns, and they are asking stronger prices. The margin between asking prices and bids is gradually growing narrower. The mill more frequently is responsible for revising ideas of value. A number of times recently a buyer has faced the necessity of paying higher prices for the requirement.

ESPEE LINE NET INCOME SHOWS GAIN

Earnings in July 44 Per Cent Higher Than in Same Month of Last Year

Net railway operating income of the Southern Pacific Company for July, last, amounted to $5,256,564.09, as compared with $3,665,783.55 in the same month of 1925, an increase of $1,590,780.54, or more than 44 per cent, according to the monthly statement of earnings and expenses made public by the company yesterday.

Total railway operating revenues amounted to $26,194,250.71 in July, with total operating expenses reported at $18,448,237.69. Net revenue from railway operations increased $1,754,777.39 over July, 1925, to $7,746,013.02 in July of this year. The average number of miles of road operated in July was 13,235.82, an increase of 66.51 over the average of July, last year.

Net railway operating income of the Southern Pacific in seven months of this year was reported at $24,602,506.86, an increase of $5,786,392.16 over net income of $18,815,914.70 in the corresponding period of 1925. Gross operating revenues in the seven-months' period amounted to $165,383,914.67, and operating expenses $125,786,995.97, leaving net operating revenue at $39,596,918.70, an increase of $6,808,904.56. The average number of miles of road operated in the first seven months of the year was 13,227.18, an increase of 49.88 over the average in the 1925 period.

The Clearinghouse

News of Spring Street

Contrasting opinions in Continental business methods with the efficiency of American commerce, F. M. Holden, advertising manager of the Southern California Gas Company, spoke on post-war conditions in Europe before the Printers' Supply Guild at the Mary Louise Cafe Wednesday night.

Mr. Holden told of his experience in Russia and Poland with the American Relief Administration under Herbert Hoover. He described the difficulties of accounting work under constantly fluctuating money standards, and analyzed the factors contributing to the complete demoralization of Eastern Europe's financial structure. He stated that concerted reorganization under British and American business methods was inevitable, and that a coming change in such systems would open the way for American enterprise in Eastern Europe.

Course in Letter Writing

Inquiry letters, order letters, introductions, recommendations, applications, claim and adjustment letters, credit and collection letters, and reports on collateral readings are types of commercial communications to be covered in a Friday night instruction course in business correspondence scheduled for the fall quarter of metropolitan college, University of Southern California, opening next month.

Iowa Banker Here

H. R. Howell, vice-president of the Des Moines National Bank, Des Moines, Iowa, was a visitor at the Pacific-Southwest Trust and Savings Bank yesterday. Mr. Howell, with his wife, is spending a few weeks in Southern California. He reports that general conditions are on the mend in Iowa and prospects for the farmers are encouraging.

Exchanges to Close

Following the action of the New York stock and cotton exchanges, members of the Los Angeles Stock Exchange yesterday voted to close on Saturday, September 4, and remain closed over Monday, September 6, Labor Day.

BENSON ARIZONA TO FLOAT WATER BONDS

BENSON (Ariz.) Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—A $60,000, twenty-year, 6-per cent bond issue is to be made by the municipality of Benson, for installation of a water supply system, in which it is estimated the Southern Pacific Railroad system will be a customer for 64,000,000 gallons a year. The pipe lines of the Cochise Utilities Company will be bought and electric power will be used for pumping. Material decrease of insurance costs is expected.

JULY BUSINESS IMPROVES

Federal Reserve Agent Reports Activity Higher Than in Recent Months; Loans in Slight Gain

During July, general business activity in the Twelfth Federal Reserve District was slightly above the levels of recent months, with no significant change in the prevailing strong banking and credit situation, according to the monthly review of business conditions in the district by Isaac B. Newton, chairman of the board and Federal reserve agent of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco.

Physical aspects of the agricultural situation continued encouraging. In general, crop yields have been satisfactory and live stock are in good condition. Prices for farm products have tended downward, however, both actually and in relation to prices of nonagricultural commodities, the report states.

Industry as a whole is operating at high seasonal levels, and volume of employment increased during July, a result chiefly of seasonal increases in activity in the food-products industries. The amount of building under construction continued large, but value of permits issued has recently shown a decrease as compared with the past three record years.

Lumber production during July was 11.3 per cent smaller than during June, due largely to the customary curtailment of lumbering operations in the first two weeks of the later month.

A high level of activity in mining of nonferrous metals was reported during July, 1926, and volume of production of copper, lead and zinc was greater than in June, 1926, or July, 1925. Estimated average daily production of petroleum in California decreased slightly during July, as compared with June, and as in the previous three months of this year, was below the output of the same month a year ago. Indicated average daily consumption was larger in both June and July, 1926, than during any month since December, 1923, and exceeded production during both months, so that stocks of crude oil decreased. This is the first time in the past four and one-half years that stocks of crude oil have decreased for two consecutive months.

Value of total sales at retail reported by sixty-nine stores in this district declined seasonally during July, 1926, but was 4.9 per cent larger than a year ago. Aggregate stocks, according to the report, were reduced 1.9 per cent during the month, and on August 1 were approximately equal in value to stocks held on the same date last year. Wholesale trade during July was less active than a year ago.

Total loans of sixty-five reporting member banks in the principal cities of the district increased slightly during the four weeks between July 14 and August 11. Since March of this year total loans of reporting banks have fluctuated about $1,200,000,000. The recent increase in volume of loans resulted from an increase in loans on securities, commercial loans declining slightly during the month.

Total earning assets of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco were relatively stable during July, but declined early in August.

RIPLEY ARTICLE DISCUSSED

Criticism of Some Corporations for Keeping Public in Dark as to Status Held Well Taken

BY PAUL WILLARD GARRETT

[Copyright, 1926, by New York Evening Post, Inc.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—William Z. Ripley's latest jab at Wall street, an article entitled "Stop, Look, Listen" in the September issue of the Atlantic Monthly, may or may not arouse the widespread interest occasioned by his comments on nonvoting stocks in the same magazine earlier in the year.

Whether or not a similar public reaction develops, it seems unreasonable to blame Prof. Ripley for the setback in the market in the last day or two. His censure of several prominent corporations for failing to keep their stockholders and the general public properly informed on financial affairs, will carry greater weight, of course, and conceivably may stimulate officials of the stock exchange to adopt greater safeguards for the public by tightening listing requirements. It is scarcely likely, however, that Prof. Ripley's suggesting that the Federal Trade Commission exercise the authority vested in it by law to demand more complete financial statements from corporations, will be either welcomed or immediately accepted.

Ample basis exists for many of Prof. Ripley's criticisms. Fault has frequently been found in the financial district with methods in vogue among many of the country's prominent industrial enterprises in presenting to their stockholders information of a financial nature. It has been said comparatively few stockholders understand balance sheets and income accounts. Too frequently they have been maliciously deceived, although the practice of falsifying such statements has been greatly curtailed.

Officials of the stock exchange long ago realized the necessity of greater vigilance in protecting the public, and through the years they have made steady progress in eliminating sharp practice and in providing more reliable information for the public about the companies whose shares are listed. Their position should be greatly strengthened by such constructive developments as may result from Prof. Ripley's article.

As a matter of fact, credit is given to the stock exchange by Prof. Ripley in his latest writing for its efforts in encouraging greater publicity on corporate affairs. The General Motors Corporation and the United States Steel Corporation are commended for their comprehensive statements to stockholders at regular intervals.

Regardless of the view taken by officials in large corporations of Prof. Ripley's remarks, they probably will be surprised to learn that the Federal Trade Commission has the power under the 1924 act to require submission of annual as well as special reports under oath in such form as the commission may prescribe concerning the organization, business and management of any large corporation engaged in commerce, except banks and common carriers.

Business men who might oppose the exercise of such broad power on the ground that the plan was revolutionary and paternalistic will find Prof. Ripley's articles interesting. He contends that the proposal is economically sound and that it is the most effective of all conceivable remedies for safeguarding investors.

HUPP MOTOR RETAIL SALES IN BIG GAIN

NEW YORK, Aug. 26. (AP)—Retail sales of Hupp Motor Car Corporation in the United States and Canada for the nine months ended July 31, last, were 83 per cent larger than in the corresponding period of 1925, O. C. Hutchinson, sales manager, reports. Factory shipments for the same period were 39,697 cars, an increase of 46 per cent.

DENVER STOCK YARDS ACQUIRED BY BROKERS

DENVER (Colo.) Aug. 26. (AP)—The Denver Union Stockyards, valued at approximately $4,500,000, have been purchased by Bosworth, Chanute & Co., Denver brokerage concern, from Armour & Co., Swift & Co., and associated interests, it was announced today.

SEVENTEEN STOCKS ADDED TO LISTINGS

NEW YORK, Aug. 26. (AP)—Seventeen new securities were admitted to trading on the New York Stock Exchange today. The number includes the new common and preferred stocks of the Central Alloy Steel Corporation, a merger of the United Alloy Steel Corporation and the Central Steel Co., and three classes of stock of the Continental Baking Corporation.

UTILITY SURPLUS UP

NEW YORK, Aug. 26. (AP)—Surplus of General Gas and Electric Corporation for the year ended July 31 advanced to $2,537,948 from $1,645,363 in the preceding year.

IMPROVED TONE ON STOCK MART

Course of Prices Turns Up on Renewal of Buying

Long List of Issues Active in Day's Trading

Bidding Confined Largely to Professional Group

NEW YORK, Aug. 26. (AP)—The selling movement in the stock market, which had been under way for about ten days, was halted today when operators of the rise resumed bidding for a wide assortment of stocks. The rally, which took place on a further stiffening of call money renewal rates, was not associated with anything in the day's news, although several more excellent July railroad earnings reports made their appearance. Speculators working for higher prices apparently decided that many stocks had been oversold, and succeeded in forcing active short covering throughout the list. Commission houses reported that public participation was on a small scale, the day's sales falling just short of 1,500,000 shares.

United States Steel common received better support on reports that pig-iron producers in Northern Ohio were preparing for a protracted run through the winter months, closing 1 3-8 points higher at 148 1-2. Other steels improved fractionally. Buying of railroad equipment shares was resumed on reports that several of the big systems were in the market for large quantities of rolling stock, Baldwin Locomotive and Pullman showing net gains of about 2 points each.

MOTORS ERRATIC

Price movements in the automotive group were erratic. General Motors closed 3 1-4 points higher at 209 1-4, after fluctuating between 206½ and 210 1-8, and Yellow Truck was bid up over 3 points to 33 3-8, but Chrysler, Dodge Brothers A, Hupp, Jordan, Pierce-Arrow common and Studebaker lost ground. Weakness also developed in some of the accessory issues, Stewart-Warner breaking nearly 5 points to a new 1926 low at 68 1-4, Stromberg Carburetor dropping 3 points to 62 on a couple of sales, and Hayes Wheel dipping to a new low at 29½ and then rallying a point.

Wide fluctuations took place in Warner Brothers A, which opened unchanged at 50, advanced nearly a point, broke suddenly to 43, rallied to a new record high at 54½, and then fell back to 48, off 2 points net. Bullish operations were successfully conducted, however, in a number of specialties, including Bruns-

WALL STREET PARAGRAPHS

Prices Up as Liquidation Appears to Have Run Course

(Copyright, 1926, by New York Evening Post, Inc.)

NEW YORK, Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—A distinctly improved tone was manifest throughout the list in the course of operations on the stock exchange today, and there were indications that the corrective readjustment which has been in progress for the last week or more had done much to eliminate the technical weaknesses that had prevailed heretofore. The bear element revealed little disposition to extend its commitments on the short side, and selling for profits was noticeably smaller in volume. The outcome was that in spite of the fixing of call-money renewals at the highest rate since the 10th inst., the trend of prices was toward higher levels.

The action of the industrial leaders was of a character which indicated that recent offerings had been absorbed by strong interests. Both Steel common and General Motors ruled higher throughout the day, under the influence of new buying and nervous covering by shorts. Specialties, as a rule, were in demand. The rails continued to hold a goodly part of speculative attention under the leadership of the Northwestern group. There was considerable irregularity at times, but on the whole the market appeared to have been placed in a much stronger technical position. Trading was light and interest dwindled toward the end of the day, but prices as a rule held around the best levels.

Specialties Show Strength

Apparently certain of the pools working in the market are well supplied with necessary credit for their operations. At any rate, the fixing of call money rate at 5 per cent on renewals for the first time in several weeks did not deter cliques working in some issues. Specialties developed many strong spots during the day, and buying in some instances was reported for strong interests. General Electric, for example, was said to be under accumulation by people well informed regarding its affairs. The Continental Baking shares, which made their debut after a long period of seasoning on the curb, were tremendously active, particularly the B shares. Consolidated Cigar was marked up briskly, despite the postponement of the directors' meeting which was to have taken place today, and National Enameling and Stamping issues provided the spectacular, advancing about 5 points each on reports that operations in the first half-year were very profitable.

Strength Marks Rails

While there was a good deal of irregularity in the industrials throughout the day, the rails continued to show independent strength. Under the leadership of the lately popular Northwestern group, the carriers generally were higher. Northern Pacific again monopolized the lion's share of attention among the granger stocks, moving forward to new high levels on further heavy buying. The other issues, however, like Chicago and Northwestern and Union Pacific, were by no means neglected, although three was marked contraction in demand for Great Northern. New York Central was responsive to the good showing of its July earnings, and sharp gains were registered by other roads, including Atchison, Atlantic Coast Line, Norfolk and Western, Lehigh Valley and Reading.

Texas Company and Oils

News of the Texas Company reorganization plan was received in quarters bullish on the petroleum stocks as likely to prove the signal for the long-awaited advance in that quarter of the market. Disappointment has been the lot of those who have followed the oil stocks during the last year or more, but the latest development, and particularly the reasons cited for the proposed change went far to revive the hopes of those who have been confident that the present bull market would not end without a real move in that group. Principal reason for the proposed reorganization of the Texas Company, according to the head of the corporation, is the limited powers under the laws of Texas, especially where the holding of stock of the corporation is concerned. Apparently the company has plans which call for broader privileges in that respect.

Patent Victory Helps Radio

Announcement that the Radio Corporation of America had been sustained in its litigation against a competitor to restrain infringement on certain of its patents, furnished the basis for a heavy buying movement in the stock. One of the most active of the specialties, it ran up sharply in early dealings, getting close to the high levels established earlier in the year. The patent in question is owned by the General Electric Company, with the Radio Corporation licensed to manufacture and market the products involved.

Reaccumulating U. S. Rubber

Strength in United States Rubber, which had been more or less neglected for a spell, was reported due to the return to the bull side of important interests who had been large sellers some 15 or 20 points higher. Replacement of long lines was understood to have been introduced by the forecasts that earnings for the final half-year will show up surprisingly well, inasmuch as heavy write-offs on its high cost rubber inventories had been taken care of in the first half-year. Beyond question, however, a sleeping short interest was decidedly helpful in bringing about the advance. In well-informed quarters it was said officials of the company were confident that higher crude rubber prices would materialize before the end of the year.

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—The cotton market was stronger and higher early today as a result of the Gulf storm of hurricane force accompanied by heavy rain, having passed into the belt from east of New Orleans overnight.

There were eight and one-half inches of rain officially reported at Pensacola, overnight and two and five-eighths at New Orleans. The rainfall between those points and up to Vicksburg and east to Wilmington and Savannah on the Atlantic Coast section and along the Gulf to Montgomery, Thomasville and Jacksonville ranged from one and one-half to two and one-half inches.

This heavy rainfall with the official forecast for further general rains over the East Gulf and Atlantic States today and through the night, attracted much attention in the cotton trade.

As the downfall supplements the too frequent rains over most sections of the belt since the last government report was compiled to the 16th inst., there is every reason to expect the next government report to September 1 will be bullish by showing a further reduction in the crop prospects.

On the rise October went up to 18.18c; December, 18.10c; January, 18.09c; March, 18.23c, and May, 18.51-c. As this range equaled the last previous high level from the season's low range of 16c for October to January deliveries, there was a great deal of profit-taking and fresh southern selling. The market reacted from it to 10 and 15 points below yesterday's closing by early in the afternoon.

Much of this selling was influenced by official forecasts for clearing weather in Louisiana tonight and for generally fair for most of Arkansas and all of Oklahoma and Texas. There was, however, still a good undertone to the market at the close, with some new trade buying the feature.

Liverpool futures closed steady at 6 to 8 of their points net advance on the day against 2 to 4 due.

GUIDING INSURANCE BUYERS

BY GRIFFIN M. LOVELACE

Professor of Insurance, New York University

This is one of a series of articles appearing in The Times three times a week dealing with all phases of insurance.

LXI.—THE LIFE ANNUITY

Several of our readers have written asking if we meant to say anything in this column on the subject of annuities. Indeed we do; not all at once, but from time to time; and perhaps we might as well speak of life annuities today.

To many of you the annuity is as familiar a topic as life insurance, but generally the annuity is not well understood in this country. It is, of course, an annual payment, usually for life, and therefore we usually speak of "life annuities."

Of course, the life income may be provided upon a semiannual, quarterly or monthly basis. Monthly payments are becoming more and more popular.

The life annuity is not a form of life insurance, although it is granted by some life insurance companies, but not by all. Indeed, the life annuity is often spoken of as being the "opposite of life insurance," though this statement will require some explanation.

The annuity is the opposite of life insurance only in the sense that it provides for payments to the annuitants as long as they live, ceasing when they die, whereas life insurance is payable not during the lifetime of the insured, but only upon his death.

Yet the annuity and life insurance have this point in common, that both are based upon tables of mortality which are the basis of our assumed death rates. The same mortality rates may be, though usually they are not, used in computing both life insurance and annuity net premiums, but for different purposes: (a) in life insurance, for the purpose of providing, say, $1000 at each death, and (b) in annuities, for the purpose of providing $100 every year as long as each person lives.

If we have a group of 100,000 persons of a given age insured for $1000 we must collect in net premiums enough money so that with a certain rate of compound interest we shall be able to pay out $1000 at each of 100,000 deaths. Our mortality table shows us how many deaths to expect each year, so we may readily determine how much we must collect in premiums.

On the other hand, if we have 100,000 persons of a given age who desire a life annuity of $100 our mortality table shows the number of persons surviving at the end of each year for whom $100 each must be provided. Thus, we may readily compute how much must be collected in premiums so that with a certain rate of compound interest we may be prepared at the end of each year to deliver $100 to each person living; of course, at the end of each year we have a smaller number of survivors than we had the year before.

One of the prime advantages of the life annuity is that, since both the assumed death rates and the assumed interest rate are conservative, the life insurance company is in no danger of failure to fulfill its annuity contracts so long as it is managed honestly and with a reasonable degree of skill. The mortality tables have been demonstrated over a long, long period of years to be safe.

The rate of interest assumed does not exceed 4 per cent, and this is as much as it is necessary to earn. The man or woman who has a certain amount of capital and whose chief financial concern is to be assured of a definite life income secures unparalleled comfort in the assurance given by the life annuity.

No matter how long you may live, your annuity will be paid to you every year, annually, semiannually, quarterly or monthly, as may have been agreed. The investment dangers to which you might be subject if you were obliged to manage your own capital are avoided. Your income will not be reduced, nor, of course, will it ever increase.

Annuities have long been extremely popular in England and on the continent, but in the United States they are only beginning to be widely used. There are reasons why the annuity is not advisable for all persons who have the means to purchase them.

On the other hand, there are people who are losing an opportunity for comfort and peace of mind by attempting to produce income through their own investments instead of purchasing a life annuity. In our next article we shall consider this phase of our annuity study.

FOREIGN TRADE FIGURES GIVEN

Favorable Balance in July Commerce Shown

Finished Products Constitute Bulk of Exports

Shipments of Crude Material and Foodstuffs Gain

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26. (AP)—Finished manufactured products constituted 46.1 per cent of the total exports of the United States for July, while crude materials maintained their leading position in merchandise purchases, making up 38.7 per cent of the total imports.

Final figures for the month announced by the Commerce Department today showed total exports to have brought $368,359,000 while $339,232,000 was paid out for imports.

Export values for July as compared with July, 1925, were:

Finished manufactures, $165,930,000 against $151,146,000.

Crude materials, $72,093,000 against $56,854,000.

Semimanufactures, $63,145,000 against $57,782,000.

Manufactured foodstuffs, $35,418,000 against $43,346,000.

Crude foodstuffs and food animals, $33,908,000 against $22,546,000.

Imports were:

Crude materials, $131,215,000 against $125,483,000; finished manufactures, $70,721,000 against $64,911,000; semimanufactures, $63,775,000 against $53,791,000; crude foodstuffs and food animals, $42,209,000 against $42,368,000, and manufactured foodstuffs, $29,312,000 against $34,095,000.

In a separate report the United States foreign trade in dairy products was shown to have decreased during the first six months of 1926 due to lower imports of milk, cream and butter. Imports were valued at $12,829,392 as against $13,233,526 for the first half of 1925. Exports were valued at $1,955,910 as compared with $3,183,966 in the 1925 period. The high export value last year was said to have been due to the large quantity of cheese shipped to Germany.

CREDITORS OF BANK GET SECOND DIVIDEND

PRESCOTT (Ariz.) Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—Under an order of the Superior Court, a second dividend, of 10 per cent, has been received by the creditors of the State Bank of Prescott and the Commercial Trust and Savings Bank, which closed November 25, last. The former now has paid 35 per cent and the latter 35 per cent. No dividend was ordered for the Bank of Jerome. About $200,000 of Bank of Prescott funds are being held, awaiting the result of a suit in which the city of Prescott demands preferential consideration of a large municipal deposit.

VULCAN DETINNING PAYS BACK DIVIDEND

NEW YORK, Aug. 26. (AP)—Vulcan Detinning Co. has declared a back dividend of 2 per cent on the preferred stock in addition to regular quarterly dividends of 1 3-4 per cent on the preferred and preferred A stocks, all payable October 20 to holders of record October 9.

PORTLAND MILL BURNS

PORTLAND (Or.) Aug. 26. (AP)—Fire of undetermined origin caused $120,000 damage to contents and the five-story building of the Goldenrod Mill of the Crown Flour Mills, owned by Balfour, Guthrie & Co., here, early today.

6% Loans

FIFTEEN-YEAR loans on private residences and ten-year loans on courts, flats, apartments, hotels, stores, etc., are now obtainable from this Company at 6% interest.

These loans are repayable at the rate of 3% semi-annually, in addition to which the borrower may arrange to pay off the entire balance, if desired, after a reasonable period.

Many people find important advantages in dealing direct with a home institution of known responsibility and large resources.

Personal conferences are invited.

It would be a hard government that should tax its people one-tenth part of their time, but idleness taxes us much more.

—FRANKLIN

The suggestion to save a tenth of the income for future use may seem hard to follow, but unless a careful budget of the income has been made it is most probable that at least this much is spent unnecessarily. Those who spend according to a budget find that their money goes farther, waste is reduced to a minimum and systematic saving becomes a joyous, easy game. It is certainly worth a trial.

BOND QUOTATIONS

NEW YORK, Aug. 26. (AP)—Prompt oversubscription of the $30,000,000 Westinghouse Electric 5 per cent bond issue and the offering of $10,000,000 Chilean government notes stimulated interest in today's bond market, which displayed a firm tone, despite a higher renewal rate on call money and indications of a further hardening before the end of the month. The widespread interest attracted by the new offerings was accepted as evidence that there was still a strong underlying investment demand which probably will be increased when the September interest and dividend payments come due.

Interest in the foreign group was confined to a relatively few issues. Argentine's 5 1-4's advanced over a point to 92, duplicating the year's high, and substantial gains were recorded by German General Electric 6 1-2's and Paulista Railway 7's, the latter also duplicating the year's top. Mexican government bonds held firm, pending further developments in the church controversy, and German 7's sold around the year's high price, coincident with the rise in German mar'- on the removal of the "peg" from that currency.

Railroad liens continued to reflect the unusually favorable earnings now being reported by most of the Class 1 carriers. Chesapeake and Ohio convertible 5's, which were heavy yesterday, rallied nearly 2 points, but most of the other gains were held to fractions. Heavy buying of New York Railway incomes 6's, which closed 2 5-8 points higher, was based on announcement that the State Transit Commission had approved the purchase of the entire common stock of that company by the Fifth Avenue Coach Company. Reading-Jersey Central 4's advanced 2 points to a new top at 91.

Industrial mortgages, presented few changes of importance. Liggett & Myers 7's recovered their 1 1-2 point loss of yesterday and Murray Body 6 1-2's moved up over a point despite the weakness of several of the motor accessory stocks.

United States government issues continued to fluctuate within narrow and irregular limits.

The quotations represent sales of bonds (in thousands of dollars,) and the high, low and closing prices in the order given. To expedite transactions, stock is quoted when same as low, and both low and close when same as high.

METAL MARKETS

CLEVELAND, Aug. 26 (Exclusive)—Daily Metal Trade today says: "Makers of steel sheets throughout Northern and Eastern Ohio, the backbone of the independent sheet steel industry in the Middle West, have approved the new schedule of double differentials and bases on black and galvanized sheets announced by the Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company, effective September 1. The basing are fixed at 24 gauge, instead of 28 gauge as heretofore. Blue annealed remains on a 10-gauge base. The change is made in differentials that they may more nearly correspond to the difference in manufacturing cost.

"Considerable reinforcing bar business is pending and sales continue in good volume, although small lots predominate. Building activity in the East is well maintained, steel fabricators being booked sixty days ahead. Pig iron buying is fair, with prices holding.

"Electrolytic copper is 14.25@14.37½c, Connecticut. Tin, spot Straits, 65.37½c. Lead, East St. Louis, 6.05. Zinc, East St. Louis, 7.37½@7.40c."

wick-Balke-Collender, Consolidated Cigar, Cushman, Foundation Company, National Enameling and Texas Gulf Sulphur, the last named responding to an increase from $2.50 to $3 in the quarterly dividend. The three Continental Baking Corporation issues were admitted to trading and were in brisk demand at prices above their final quotations on the New York curb market.

RAILS HIGHER

New peak prices for the year, or longer, were established in the railroad group by Omaha, Northern Pacific, Great Northern preferred, Union Pacific and Chicago Great Western preferred, while Canadian Pacific and Delaware and Hudson duplicated the year's highs. The strength of the northwestern shares was predicated on the belief that higher dividends are in store on some of those issues, if the wheat crop comes up to present expectations.

Commodity markets were irregular. Wheat prices drifted lower on the absence of an export demand and cotton showed net declines of 14 to 29 points after having established new high levels for the season in the early trading on unfavorable weather reports. Raw sugar advanced 1-32 of a cent a pound and coffee moved up 7 to 11 points on reports of a reduction in Brazilian crop estimates.

Call money renewed at 5 per cent and held steady at that figure all day. Time money and commercial paper rates held firm.

With the exception of German marks, which held firm above the recently "pegged" price, most of the principal foreign exchanges were easier. Demand sterling sold below $4.85 for the first time in several months and French francs were quoted just below 2.85 cents.

Wheat Futures Turn Off After Early Advance

CHICAGO, Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—Higher cables with Liverpool up ½d were responsible for firmer wheat market early, with a small advance, which was all lost at the last, owing to weakness in Winnipeg and Minneapolis, the latter leading the decline and carrying prices down to a close of around the lowest of the day. Bearishness was more pronounced in all grains, and buying support from the outside was most strikingly absent, making the markets largely professional.

At the close wheat showed net losses in Chicago of 1@1¼c, with Winnipeg off 2c and Minneapolis 1¾c for the day. Corn in Chicago finished at ¾@1c lower, oats ¼@⅝c lower, September leading, while rye was ⅝c lower. Trade sentiment is more bearish and the general disposition on the part of leaders is to go slow, awaiting the effect of the movement of spring wheat in the American and Canadian Northwest, the traders being anxious to see how the spring wheat will be taken, but in all they do not expect to have it absorbed as fast as the winter wheat was taken in the past two months.

While there was export buying on the breaks, hedging pressure was sufficient to satisfy the demand. The news favored lower prices, the most important of which was the reported shipment of 976,000 bushels of wheat from Russia, presumably to France. It was said that this was the largest movement from Russia in recent years. There were twenty cars of new wheat at Winnipeg, half of which graded contract. Minneapolis and Duluth reported increased country deliveries. The primary movement continued in excess of last year, but shows a decrease from a week ago.

September closed at 1.31⅝@.35; December, 1.34¼@1.34⅝; May, 1.43@1.43¾.

Local traders, who tried to bull corn early in the day, gave it up later when wheat started to break, and prices declined 1¼@1¾c. Liquidation in September was on, with the extreme discount under December 6c, the widest so far, and also the greatest discount known at this time in years. Crop news, while mixed, was generally construed as bearish. The country movement was light and cash demand limited. At the close September 77⅞@77½; December, 82@83¼, and May, 90⅝.

Longs sold September oats in a liberal way and there was buying of September and selling of December for cash interests and full offerings, while the changes from December to May were at 4c spread. Better weather in the country has permitted a resumption of threshing and the primary movement is increasing, although materially under last year. Shipments also show a heavy reduction from a year ago. September finished at 39@39¼; December, 42@42⅜; May, 46.

Rye was under pressure from longs in sympathy with the break in wheat late in the day, while in the early trading commission houses were good buyers, making a fair advance, which was more than lost at the last, with September 97⅝ and December 1.02.

An increased tone in the lard market was noticeable, with one of the largest packers a liberal buyer of all deliveries, which advanced prices, and although there was increased selling pressure on the bulge, offerings were well taken, with shorts good buyers. Lard bar had big declines for several months, and the feeling in the trade is that prices are low enough. It closed at gains of 12½c on September and 7½c on the deferred futures. Ribs closed unchanged to 7½c higher and September bellies were up 17½c and October 7½c lower. Loose lard sold at 9½c under September, against 1.00 discount previous day.

OIL BUILDING LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

predicting that a test for oil will be performed in the area northeast of Grove in Orange County, followed by the leasing of acreage in that district by the Pacific Company of California. Leases cover about 250 acres and with the terms of the lease all for the commencement of drilling within ninety days.

Oil men interested in the project are the Chaffee brothers; Waller Clark, Harold S. Woodside, John McLeod, Boggs, James Smith, Gordon Grove and J. A. Bodenhamer.

It is said that the leasing of the property was preceded by a complete survey of the district by geological survey parties, and also that a drilling barge, a device not used extensively by the company in California, and which is said to have shown good results in some fields of the state, has been shipped to the Grove district.

The company began using the barge in the Weed district of Kern county about a year ago, and it is understood that surveys in Southern California for the most months. The development apparatus based on the physical law of attraction

The output of oil in the new field west and of the city of Long Beach is averaging about 1,000 barrels, according to unofficial reports. The production is coming from the Superior Oil Company's lease No. 1, the discovery well of the Petroleum Exploration Company's Pacific Electric No. 1 and the Petroleum Corporation's test well.

Other activities in the district include:

Alta Petroleum Corporation No. 1 well one and one-half miles northwest of the old well of the Huntington Beach Company is said to be making a slight but steady increase in production, according to reports, and is flowing approximately 100 barrels a day. The initial flow of the well was about 250 barrels an hour, but has been showing a steady decline in recent weeks.

Getty Wells

The Getty, Inc., has spudded in two wells in the west end of Long Beach in the past few days. The new wells are Getty No. 4 and No. 5. Getty has also spotted two other wells, Getty No. 6 and No. 7.

Goldfields

Goldfield at 5060 feet, the deepest well at Los Cerritos, Alamitos avenue and Thirty-fifth street, is putting through gray sand and indications of being water according to field reports.

Signal No. 8 is one of the newer projects which is looking for oil, which is expected to reach around 5700 feet. No reports of the deep zone have yet come up, and something considered encouraging than anything has yet been found will be necessary to justify drilling below 5000 feet, it is said.

Signal Hill Operator

Signal Hill Company, the first well in the west end of the Huntington Beach field, is drilling more than any other operator in the district, according to unofficial reports.

In addition to its Jones well, which is drilling ahead on 3000 feet, and has derricks under construction and locations staked for Huntington Beach Oil Company is having deeper than was expected to find oil and in its first well in the east end of Huntington Beach, according to field reports. The hole is now 3000 feet and is the formation at that point is hard shell. The Standard Oil of the field all drilling and at least 100 feet below this depth.

Bond

Pacific Southwest Securities Company announces that the test of 9425 feet in hard formation No. 1, the Donald well in the Santa Fe-Signal field, near Zelzah, according to reports. The Semand dropped the drill pipe in the hole last week, and things up for a time but the tools were extracted without difficulty, and work

Petroleum Securities Corporation plans to have two wells on property before the extension of the oil field in the next few months. The wells are the Bryant well on Pine avenue and Bixby road, which is also standing cemented to the oil sand zone, and the Long Beach well, which is also standing cemented for the deep zone.

Signal Hill

Signal Hill Company has had little success in drilling its Long Beach to Ventura county, near Saticoy, according to official reports. It drilled to 5900 feet, and only unimportant showings.

Despite mechanical considerations Signal Canyon well is said to be working effectively the efficiency of mechanical equipment, very little water on account of the many oil sands having been found.

"THANK YOU!"

When a person gives a present
It is really most unpleasant
If he isn't thanked politely,
So be sure to do it rightly.
Nothing is so rude and hateful
As a Goop, who is ungrateful.

Chinese Rebels Pursue Fleeing Federal Forces

HANKOW (China) Aug. 26. (AP)—It is reported that the Cantonese Red army has followed up its recent successes against the Yangtse Valley forces of the allied Hunan army, commanded by Marshal Wu Pei-Fu, overlord of Central China.

The Red army, commanded by Tang Seng-Chi, is said to have captured Yo-Chow and to be advancing toward Wu Chang, on the southern side of the Yangtse opposite Hankow, where Marshal Wu sought refuge a few days ago to reorganize the southern allied army.

BRILLIANT BLAZERS NEW PARIS FASHION

DEAUVILLE (France) Aug. 26. (AP) Blazer coats of bright-colored velvets have made their appearance here in ultrafashionable circles. These are worn with white and light-colored frocks. Bright amber beige seems to be the most favored color. Some women have the blazes in tones to match their gowns. Occasionally one is seen without sleeves.

Noticias de Washington

WASHINGTON, Agosto 26.—El Negociado de Navegación ha puesto a la venta las líneas de vapores del gobierno norteamericano.

El embajador Herrick ha discutido sobre cuestiones de Francia con el ministro Kellogg.

Los funcionarios de Hacienda se han opuesto a que se haga uso de los intereses sobre deudas de guerra para reducir las contribuciones.

Se Evitará que Suelten los Barcos Petróleo Crudo en las Costas

WASHINGTON, Agosto 26.—Se ha prohibido a los buques del Negociado de Navegación de los Estados Unidos que dejen caer petróleo o mezclas petrolíferas a distancias de cincuenta millas, o menos, de nuestras costas. Tal fue el acuerdo tomado ayer por dicho negociado, y forma parte del plan que se está estudiando para evitar, o, al menos, reducir la contaminación del agua de nuestras costas con los desperdicios de petróleo crudo de las embarcaciones.

Causa Graves Daños el el Huracán en Luisiana

NUEVA ORLEANS, Agosto 26.—Según las noticias llegadas hoy, el temporal que sopló anoche en la Luisiana oriental ha causado daños materiales, que se estiman en más de $1,000.000, dos muertes, e innumerables averías de menor cuantía.

Calcula el periódico "New Orleans State" que subirán a $1,000.000 las pérdidas originadas por daños a los plantíos de arroz, maíz, caña de azúcar y algodón, de La Fourche, Terrebonne, Jefferson, Plaquemines, Asumption y St. Mary. Los edificios de negocios y las casas particulares de Morgan City sufrieron daños por valor de más de $150,000. En Lockport destechó muchas casas el huracán, y echó abajo muchos hogares en Houma. El ingenio azucarero de Raceland resintió graves averías, y resultó con serios desperfectos el vapor Houma, de la Compañía de Trasportes de Bradford.

MORGAN CITY (Luisiana), Agosto 26.—Morgan City puede decirse que se halla en ruinas esta noche. Ha causado estragos enormes el temporal que sopló anoche del Golfo de Méjico. El vendabal adquirió una velocidad de 100 millas por hora.

La fuerza del viento era tal, que hubo edificios arrancados de cuajo, ventanas hechas pedazos, techumbres arrebatadas, y hasta ladrillos desprendidos de los muros. En lo más rudo de la tormenta estalló el incendio, y a no ser por la lluvia torrencial que acarreó el temporal, la destrucción de esta población habría sido completa. Con todo, antes de que pudiera extinguirse el fuego, quedaron dos edificios destruídos por éste.

El "ferry boat" que trafica entre Morgan City y Berwick fue arrancado de sus amarras, precipitado contra el puente de acero del Sudpacífico, y demolido.

Puede decirse que todos los edificios de la ciudad, tanto los de negocios como las casas habitación, sufrieron daños con el temporal.

Extraña Travesía a Catalina en una Especie de Cámara Neumática

El señor W. Winder Scott va a hacer la tentativa de navegar mañana entre Los Angeles y Catalina, a bordo de lo que él llama su "balsa neumática." Lo irá convoyando un bote automóvil, a fin de prestarle rápido auxilio, en caso de que la cámara se desinfle, o reciba un pinchо de alguna medusa de mar. La extraña embarcación, como puede verse en la primera plana de este diario, se asemeja a una cámara de llanta "balloon," y lleva al borde un motor, que será el mecanismo propulsor. La curiosa balsa puede desinflarse al llegar a la costa, y llevarse a casa bajo el brazo.

Dice Scott que puede navegar en su aparato a la no despreciable velocidad de ocho millas por hora; agrega que no se ha visto nunca en el mundo cosa semejante, y que, si logra cruzar el canal en el, habrá dejado sentado un record en ese género de viajes.

Santa Bárbara se Entrega a la Alegría

La mañana de ayer dio comienzo la fiesta española de Santa Bárbara, y la bella población playera se halla convertida en el jardín de recreo de California, pues ofrece a sus visitantes toda clase de diversiones, desde el tranquilo goce del bello y curioso espectáculo que presenta, hasta aquellos pasatiempos en que reina el alegre retozo, la risa loca y la diversión ruidosa.

A las diez de la mañana de ayer pisó allí tierra Juan Rodríguez Cabrillo, y proclamó a Santa Bárbara el jardín del Nuevo Mundo. Fresco y embalsamado estaba ayer el ambiente, y una ligera brisa marina impulsó hacia la costa al San Salvador, la nave de Cabrillo.

Quería agarrarlo cuando paraba un instante (He tried to catch it when it kept quiet for an instant); pero al acercar su manecita, la trucha dabo un salto (but on approaching his little hand, the trout made a jump), y el chico, estremecido, la retiraba vivamente (and the kid, startled, quickly withdrew it). Intentaba nuevamente asirla, lanzando chillidos alegres, y otro salto de la trucha le asustaba y le ponía súbito grave (Again he attempted to seize it, uttering merry screams, and a new leap of the trout frightened and suddenly turned him grave).

Estaba nervioso; gritaba, reía, hablaba, lloraba a un mismo tiempo, mientras su padre, embelesado, nadaba suavemente contemplándole (He was nervous; he shouted, laughed, talked, wept, all at one, while his father, full of bliss, softly swam looking at him).

Angeleno's Rites Await Return of Husband Abroad

CHICAGO, Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—Funeral services for Mrs. John Dick, former Chicagoan, late of Hollywood, whose death occurred Monday at the home of her sister, Mrs. H. A. Hadley, 3149 Warren avenue, are awaiting the arrival in New York Saturday of Mr. Dick, who is returning on the Berengaria from a visit to his boyhood home in Scotland.

Mrs. Dick, who before her marriage wa Alice J. Langston, was born in 1859 in the Langston home on Dearborn street between Madison and Monroe streets. She was married June 15, 1884 to John Dick who was connected with the Building and Traders' Exchange in Chicago. In 1907 the Dicks moved to Hollywood.

NEGRO CASE EXECUTION TO BE RAPID

Gafford to Pay Extreme Penalty Five Months After Slaying ex-Slave

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 26 (AP)—Death on the gallows at Folsom prison will be the portion of Henry Gafford, alias Charles Peevia, negro, barely five months after the murder to which he pleaded guilty. He will be hanged at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning for the killing of J. G. Scott, aged negro ex-farmer slave, on a farm near Shafter, Kern county, last March.

Gafford's execution, the Governor's office pointed out today, will be the swiftest extreme penalty meted out to a murderer in California in many years. Ordinarily about two years elapse between the killing of the victim and the hanging of the killer if he is hanged. The scheduled hanging of Isaac Wolfgang on September 10, for instance, will take place almost four years after the "mill of the murder" of which he was convicted.

Gafford, who is a native of Missouri, fled after shooting Scott with a shotgun loaned him for rabbit hunting. He joined a circus and traveled north, but about a month later he was arrested at Aberdeen, Wash., and returned to Bakersfield where, after a plea of guilty, Judge J. W. Mitchell sentenced him to the gallows. Gafford said he shot his 80-year-old victim unintentionally during a struggle for possession of the shotgun, adding that the quarrel which ended in the shooting grew out of the old man's habit of "nagging too much."

Adams Ouster as Dry Agent Up to Andrews

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26. (AP)—Assistant Secretary Andrews, in charge of prohibition enforcement, took under consideration today an appeal by Ray Adams, discharged prohibition agent of Los Angeles, for a clearing of his record.

Adams, who was discharged "for the good of the service," asked Secretary Andrews to investigate his record and clear him of any charges. Prohibition headquarters reported there were no charges against him.

ARIZONA WEATHER CONDITIONS EXTREME

PHOENIX, Aug. 26. (Exclusive)—Central Arizona now is experiencing a peculiar season of weather, with nights in Phoenix that run down to the 64 deg., and days on which the thermometer registers up to 116. This is followed what is believed to be only a temporary cessation of summer rains. Forest Service officials again are becoming anxious over the dryness of the timbered area, which was somewhat dampened in July. From Santa Cruz county comes a story of an area, ten miles square, that has had no rain this year and that is dry and parched hard, without suspicion of grass.

A LETTER TO "THE TIMES"

The following letter to The Times is published without superfluous comment:

LOS ANGELES, August 26.

[To the Editor of The Times:]

I notice that C. C. Julian is using a lot of large black type in the newspapers to tell the "folks" to vote for C. C. Young at the primaries next Tuesday.

Will you tell me, Mister Editor, how this guy Julian gets that way? He testified at the Corporation Commissioner's hearing on his Western Lead enterprise THAT HE IS NOT EVEN A CITIZEN OF THE UNITED STATES. He is a Canadian, not naturalized in this country. But he has the monumental gall to presume to tell real Americans how to vote! Can you tie that? Hearst is another man who makes his money out of Californians and has his home in New York—but he is telling us how to vote in California, too.

Julian took millions out of this community in support of his oil enterprise before he was ousted—and when the units hit the toboggan a lot of us lost a pile of good money. Then he came back again with his Western Lead that he sold up to $3.30 a share with his newspaper ballyhoo—that stock went down to 50 cents before it was finally kicked off the Stock Exchange; and a lot more people lost their money—on Julian's say-so.

I'm glad to know how this foreigner would like us to vote—because I'll vote the other way. And, by the way, here's a limerick about C. C. Young and C. C. Julian that you can use if you want to.

There was a YOUNG man named C. C.
Who said: "Folks, you leave it to me;
"I know all about oil
"And political spoil—"
That's why C. C. is for C. C.

TAX RATE FIXED TODAY

Ordinance Will Establish Levy at $1.53; City Employees to Be Retained

The City Council this morning will receive from City Attorney Stephens the ordinance establishing the municipal tax rates for this tax year in a various parts of the city, including the rate of $1.53 per $100 of property valuation in the "old city," or central part of Los Angeles.

The Council, as required by the provisions of the law, will adopted the annual tax ordinance on or before next Monday. Due to the increased property valuation of $106,496,989 this year, the tax rate in the "old city" will be 1 cent less per $100 property valuation than last year. The rate last year was $1.54 per $100. The rate, $1.53, is made up of the $1.25 charter rate for general city government purposes and 28 cents for the payment of interest and sinking-fund charges on municipal bonds.

As reported to the City Council yesterday by Controller Myers and Chief Accountant Abbott of the Controller's office, the rates for the sixteen taxation districts into which the city is divided will be as follows, the variation between the rates in the districts being due to the district bond issues outstanding:

No. 1—Old city	$1.53
No. 2—Gardena	1.53
No. 3—Shoestring	1.51
No. 4—Belvedere	1.50
No. 5—Colegrove and Hollywood	1.48
No. 6—Sundry annexations	1.51
No. 7—Palms	1.50
No. 8—Hollywood	1.48
Nos. 9 and 10—San Pedro	1.49
No. 11—Sawtelle	1.50
No. 12—Wilmington	1.50
No. 13—Sundry annexations	1.50
No. 14—Eagle Rock	1.50
No. 15—Venice	1.47
No. 16—Watts	1.57

The accuracy of Controller Myers and Chief Accountant Abbott in forecasting the probable income from taxation this year last May for budget-making purposes was shown in the Controller's tax-rate report to the Council, filed yesterday. In May the Controller's office, with no data available as to the assessed property valuation, estimated the city's tax return this year from the $1.25 general governmental levy at $19,680,000. The report filed yesterday showed that the actual tax return to the city will be $19,671,000, or only $9000 difference from the Controller's estimate last May.

As a result of the more cheerful financial outlook of the city government this year than the Council had in May, when the budget was adopted and it was decided to drop almost 700 city employees on September 1 on account of lack of funds, the Council yesterday adopted its Finance Committee's report retaining these employees for the remainder of the fiscal year and allocating $1,006,527 to pay their salaries. This total was divided thus: Police department, $505,828; engineering department, $410,704, and health department, $89,995. The health department total, by the Finance Committee's report, included salaries for the personnel of a "skeleton" permanent rodent-control division to make effective the work done during the recent intensive rodent-extermination, plague-prevention campaign conducted by the United States Public Health Service.

AID SOUGHT IN IDENTITY BY WOMAN

South Pasadenan Expresses Belief She May be Victim of Kidnaping in 1889

Her childhood life shrouded in a veil of mystery, with no memory of her own parents, Miss Lulu Barker, 1225 Monterey Road, South Pasadena, has turned to San Francisco police in an effort to possibly identify herself as Annie Mooney, San Francisco girl whose kidnaping many years ago was a sensation rivaled only by the disappearance of Charlie Ross at Philadelphia in 1875.

LULU M. BARKER

Miss Barker, who last night expressed the belief that she is about 48 years of age, came to California from Memphis, Tenn., twelve years ago after a life of travel and sojourns of various periods with different families in the South.

The Mooney youngster disappeared from a picnic in Belmont Park, San Mateo, in 1889. Nothing has ever been heard of the child since then although the parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Mooney of San Francisco, searched everywhere for her. The child was 6 when she disappeared.

Miss Barker recalls hazily many incidents that have caused her to believe she might have been kidnaped. Her first memory, she says, is of being taken from a boat by a man and a woman and later taken by train and boat to Kentucky.

GOVERNMENT SENDS ALIENS TO HOMES

Fifteen aliens yesterday were deported from Los Angeles by the United States Immigration Department to Manzanita, Mex., Iquique, Chile, and Callao, Peru. The aliens were taken aboard the Raquyo Maru, a Japanese steamer, at Los Angeles Harbor and will be dropped along the coast as the vessel cruises around the Horn.

REALTY MAN WEDS

Adlai Goldschmidt Home with Chicago Bride

Adlai Goldschmidt, Los Angeles real-estate man, is expected to arrive here Sunday with his bride, whom he married in Chicago Wednesday. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Goldsmith of the Aragon Hotel, Chicago.

Mr. Goldschmidt lives at 1206 South Alvarado street.

"Enough evidence has now been read into the public records to demand immediate action for a major civic operation. The time has arrived to take public improvements out of politics. The open book of 100 per cent extras, crammed down the throats of the West Adams-street property owners and a like attempt to give the West Jefferson-street folks a like cramming, calls for immediate action on the part of every civic organization—else you are likely to be the next victim."

THREE VICTIMS OF HEAT IN CITY

Temperature Goes Only to 87 Throughout Day

Continued Warm Weather in Prospect for Today

Although the mercury in Los Angeles thermometers yesterday fell to 15 deg. lower than the season's record heat of 102 deg. reached Wednesday, three heat prostrations were reported in the downtown district. The three victims, a woman and two men, were revived at Receiving Hospital and later were returned to their homes. Yesterday's maximum temperature was but 87 deg. at 1 p.m.

Mrs. Bernice Taylor, 30 years of age, of 313 West Farrington street, Huntington Park, was stricken at Fifth and Spring streets; Raymond De Lavabiere, 22, of 1110 Venice Boulevard, was prostrated at Fourth and Broadway, and Seth Francis, 51, of 1478 Atchison street, Pasadena, at Sixth and Main streets. None of the prostrations was severe and all were revived after but short treatment.

Following Wednesday's freak "scorcher" yesterday opened auspiciously with the government thermometer registering 67 deg. at 6 a.m. From this point the climb was gradual until the maximum of 87 deg. was reached at 1 o'clock.

While United States Weather Bureau officials would give no official statement that the end of the heat spell was near, it was indicated that a return to normal summer temperature is to be expected.

The official forecast for Friday as given yesterday by the Weather Bureau calls for continued fair and warm weather.

That Los Angeles has sweltered in the spell of hot weather is attested by the way the city turned to its many methods for relief from sultry weather.

Most of the reliable time-honored methods for cooling off were available, especially among the youngsters. The swimming pools maintained by the City Playground Department literally were seething with youngsters of every size, shape and age. It was estimated that approximately 1800 children were in the Exposition Park pools yesterday. In sections where no pool was available the garden hose was a popular remedy; ice wagons seem never to lose their lure and many a housewife's lemons and sugar were disappearing over the counter of some ambitious son's lemonade stand yesterday.

City Playground Celebrations to be Begun Today

Special celebrations at each of the municipal playgrounds are to mark the closing days of summer school vacation. Festivals, "whirls of fun," parades and activities typical of recreation centers have been arranged by the Los Angeles Playground and Recreation Department and the various playground directors.

First of the special events will be held today at Hazard Playground.

Tomorrow the playground revelry will be greatest at Exposition, South Park and Manchester.

COAST CITIES EXHIBIT

Hawaiian Territorial Fair Space Already Spoken For

HONOLULU, Aug. 26. (AP)—All of the important ports on the Pacific Coast will have exhibits at the Hawaiian Territorial Fair here next month, the Fair Commission announced.

Seattle and Tacoma, Wash., each have taken an entire building in the commercial division for their exhibits.

Commercial organizations of San Francisco, Oakland and Los Angeles also plan participation.

EARLY DAYS HOTEL MAN DIES HERE

C. L. Whipple, Pioneer, to be Buried Tomorrow from Family Home

Funeral services for Charles Lee Whipple will be conducted at 10 a.m. tomorrow from his late home at 687 South Westlake avenue and at the Church of the Immaculate Conception on Green street between Eighth and Ninth streets.

Mr. Whipple, who died from a stroke of apoplexy had been a resident of Los Angeles thirty-five years. He was born in Deerfield, Ind., Aug. 31, 1866.

In his earlier career he was identified with the management of some of the leading hotels here, later turning his attention to real estate development.

On January 3, 1895, he was married to Miss Lucile Mesmer, sister of Joseph Mesmer and Mrs. M. A. C. Mesmer Griffith. He leaves his widow, his brother-in-law and sister-in-law, two brothers, Clyde S. Whipple of Los Angeles and Roy C. Whipple of Boswell, Ind., and two sisters, Mrs. Cara Stewart of Dayton, O., and Mrs Elgin Miller of Milwaukee.

MARY McCAREY ARRIVES

A baby girl, Mary Virginia, was born to Mrs. Leo McCarey, whose husband is a director of Hal Roach comedies, yesterday. Simultaneously Mrs. McCarey was receiving letters of congratulation on her own birthday. Mother and child are reported doing splendidly.

"TIMES" ELECTION CONTEST

As a slight diversion in the heat of the primary election contest, The Times offers cash prizes of $50 each to the man and the woman who guesses nearest to the total vote in California which will be received by each of the Republican gubernatorial candidates at next Tuesday's election.

Any reader of The Times, except Times employees, may compete.

No contestant is entitled to more than one set of guesses.

No entry will be considered unless it is made on the blank printed herewith and is sent by mail so as to be postmarked before midnight August 30, addressed to the Election Contest Editor, The Times, Los Angeles, Cal.

For your information, the registered Republican vote of California for the primary is 1,262,480. Past primary votes have ranged from 30 per cent of the registered vote upward. Registrar Kerr estimates that next Tuesday's primary will bring out about 40 per cent of the registration.

SAILING TO CATALINA ON "SPARE TIRE"

Navigator's Only Fear is Puncture to "Airaft" on High Seas

[Eyre Powell Photo]

Will Bounce to Avalon

W. Winder Scott, Frances Zimmerman and Helen Steinbeck aboard airaft.

CONVOYED by a power boat to rush to the rescue in the event of a blow-out or a jellyfish puncture, W. Winder Scott will attempt to travel briskly from Los Angeles Harbor to Catalina Island tomorrow in what he calls his "airaft." The queer equipage, as may be noted in the accompanying picture, resembles a balloon tire with an outboard motor; a strange water freak that can be dashed and toted home under the yachtsman's arm.

Scott says he can "airaft" himself along at the not-to-be-sneezed-at speed of eight miles an hour; declares the world never saw such a craft before and adds that a world record will be positively established if he succeeds in crossing the channel.

The Misses Frances Zimmerman and Helen Steinbeck of Long Beach are pictured taking a pleasure ride on Mr. Scott's "spare." But they don't intend to be with him when he starts for Avalon from the California Yacht Club tomorrow at 4 a.m. It's too early, for one thing they assert, and for another Mr. Wrigley isn't offering any $25,000 for this particular channel swim.

NOACK SAYS HE DID NOT RESIGN POST

"I Was Ousted and Given No Reason," Ex-Master of Philharmonic States

Sylvain Noack declared yesterday he had not resigned, but had been removed from his position of concert master and assistant conductor of the Philharmonic Orchestra, which he has held since its foundation in 1919.

SYLVAIN NOACK.

"I would like to correct the impression I resigned," said Noack, who also has been concert master of the Hollywood Bowl orchestra this season.

Noack blamed "personalities" for being relieved of his duties. He disclosed a letter sent him by Walter Henry Rothwell, conductor of the orchestra, in which Rothwell informed Noack that the conductor had "come to the conclusion that for many reasons not unknown to you, I would it best not to enter into any agreement of re-engagement with you as concert master of the Philharmonic Orchestra at present."

"I was ousted," Noack continued, "for reasons which have never been given to me, but supposedly were known to me, as the letter indicates. The management has refused to give me the reasons in writing."

Rothwell in his letter expressed appreciation of Noack's services, saying he considered "the development and success of the Philharmonic Orchestra was to a great part due to your untiring efforts."

Noack has been engaged as concert master of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Rudolph Ganz, and, with Mrs. Noack, will leave for that city early in October. They will return after the season.

Temperamental differences between Noack and Rothwell and the management are said to have been responsible for the failure to renew Noack's contract. Rothwell's notification is said to have been sent several weeks ago. In denying reports he had resigned, Noack said these emanated from the offices of the orchestra, but it was stated there no public announcement had been made that Noack is no longer connected with the orchestra. Noack lives at 120 South Oxford street.

CONSULS OF SOUTHLAND BANQUETED

Diplomatic Corps of Los Angeles Dinner Guests of Chamber of Commerce

The Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce had as its guests at luncheon yesterday members of the Consular corps, made brief talks.

Twenty representatives of the twenty-nine foreign countries maintaining consulates in this city attended. Louis Sentous, Consul of France, and dean of the corps, presided. Clarence Matson, manager of the trade extension department of the chamber, and Dr. Henry C. Niese, Vice-Consul of Argentina and treasurer of the the corps, both of whom made brief talks.

The Consular Corps is growing, two nations — Uruguay and Venezuela — having recently appointed representatives here. This leaves only two South American countries without representation here—Brazil and Paraguay. It is reported that some of the newly formed European countries soon will open consulates as Los Angeles is by far the largest city on the West Coast of the three Americas and its foreign trade is growing at a remarkably fast rate.

Speaker Bureau Chief Selected for Chest Drive

Walter L. Thornton, educator, yesterday was appointed to the post of chairman of the speakers' bureau for the forthcoming third annual appeal of the Community Chest, scheduled for November 9 to 23.

WALTER L. THORNTON

Comprising his staff will be 300 speakers, it is planned, who will appear before leading organizations, clubs and gatherings of various sorts prior to and during the days of appeal.

Thornton formerly was head of the department of economics at Occidental College and on the faculty of the University of Texas and the University of California.

LIGHT PROTESTS DENIED

Protests against the installation of ornamental lighting posts on Vermont avenue from Slauson avenue to Manchester avenue were denied by the City Council yesterday. The protests represented 35 per cent of the property to be assessed for the posts.

FINAL RALLY OF GOODCELL ON TONIGHT

"Will Lift Political Veil in Every Direction," His Backers Declare

Rex B. Goodcell, candidate for Governor, his headquarters announced yesterday, "will go behind the smoke screen of his opponents" in the last Los Angeles rally of his campaign for Governor to be held tonight at 8 o'clock at Trinity Auditorium, Ninth and Grand avenue. Goodcell's speech, it is announced, "will lift the political veil in every direction."

"Goodcell will turn his guns especially on Senator Hiram W. Johnson and his renegade Republican candidate for Governor, C. C. Young," it is asserted.

Gov. Richardson's position regarding the Boulder Dam issue "will be revealed," Judge Goodcell promises, and says that the so-called sinister influences behind the Governor's candidacy will be laid bare.

The warfare between hostile banking interests and its disastrous effect on the business life of California will be dealt with by the speaker.

It is promised that Ross Kent Parrott's deal with Young by which if Young is elected the Los Angeles boss is to control the awarding of not only city and county contracts but those for State highways as well will be thoroughly aired by Judge Goodcell. The Parrott machine's "despicable methods in employing its underworld lieutenants to acts of lawlessness and intimidation" will be attacked.

Just why Mr. Hearst and Senator Johnson are so interested in electing a Governor who hails from Berkeley to champion the Boulder Canyon Dam, a peculiarly Southern California problem, will be exposed, according to Mr. Goodcell.

Managers of the Goodcell campaign promise that the truth will be told no matter where the chips may fly.

LIFE GUARDS ROW CRAFT TO AVALON

Trip from Balboa Made in Ten Hours and Half With Storm Against Them

BALBOA, Aug. 26. (Exclusive) Four Newport Beach lifeguards yesterday rowed from Balboa to Catalina Island, a distance of thirty-five miles, in ten hours and thirty-eight minutes. They used a nineteen-foot rowboat, and rowed nearly all the way against a storm.

They left at 2:20 a.m. and encountered the storm three miles out on their way to Avalon. The last three hours they rowed in a heavy fog. Several fishing boats proffered assistance and were surprised when the occupants of the rowboat insisted on continuing their way.

The men who made the journey are Antar Deraga, chief of the Newport Beach lifeguard service and a weather observer for the University of Southern California; Blanchard Beatty, Gordon Thomas and Nick Samoff.

Straw Voters Favor Governor for Re-election

CONGRESSIONAL: Crail, 23; Criswell, 10 and Price 1.

SUPERVISORS: Barnes, 5; Graves 12; Conoway 11 and Pratt 8.

SHERIFF: Traeger, 20; Kelly, 3; Home, 12 and Sam Browne, 2.

SIXTY-THIRD ASSEMBLY: Alber, 32; Perkins, 6 and Noon, 8.

The Lancer

by Harry Carr

THE liar who entertains a shuddering world with yarns about Hollywood dies hard—and lingeringly.

A special correspondent of a Berlin newspaper recently came through with a prize package.

He said that life in Hollywood was charming enough, but that if one wanted to go to Pasadena once in a while, it was very perilous. One had to pass through a place called Griffith Park which was infested with wild animals. Only the brave, accordingly, ever attempted the trip.

Presumably the road between Hollywood and Pasadena was deserted of nights except for a few valiant souls like Tom Mix.

FAKERS APLENTY

As they can't get away with stories about wild parties, I suppose they find wild animals a pleasant relief.

The only place from which more bunk was ever sent out was El Paso. Hollywood is absolutely infested with space writers of doubtful standing.

Every day or so I meet some one who pulls out "credentials" ponderous and solemn looking enough for the Grand Begum. They intimate that they have been sent out here by the Berlin Wiener Wurst or the Pittsburgh Evening Bugle to look over Hollywood.

They seem to be about equally divided as to species—imposing gents with spats, and scared-looking old maids.

ARE THEY REAL?

In about ninety-nine cases out of a hundred they weren't sent anywhere by anybody. They have a cousin whose wife knows the city editor, and he accommodatingly gave them letters that would enable them to shake the mitt of Mary Pickford.

It costs a lot of money to send a correspondent to Hollywood from Berlin—even quite a lot from Pittsburgh. Far too much for any such slender and vague errand as looking at Hollywood—which has been pretty well looked over already.

VALENTINO'S ARMS

It will be interesting to see what becomes of Rudolph Valentino's magnificent collection of arms and old armor.

It was the most complete and intelligently selected I have ever seen. In it was represented almost every period of knighthood. Not to mention every phase of the grim trade of soldiering.

Some of the weapons he kept at his studio bungalow; some at his home in Beverly Hills; but he told me that the best part of the collection was in the villa of his relatives in France.

Some of the museums in Los Angeles really should buy this collection, for it contains rare and unusual treasures; Valentino spent years and a young fortune on the collection.

HIDDEN GEMS

Although it must be confessed that it wouldn't be much use if they were not to make a better display of it than the Otis collection of war weapons now at Exposition Park. The last time I saw them they were huddled together in a dark place in the museum—without sense or reason. Most of the Otis collection came from the Philippines—relics of the Spanish occupation.

TORN-UP STREETS

The condition of the streets in Los Angeles is getting beyond the joke class. I defy any motorist to get from anywhere to anywhere else street, Long Beach, and leaves his widow and three children. Miller leaves his widow and Law leaves one son, it was reported. The latter lived at the Keystone Apartments and Miller at 1130 Hoffman street, Long Beach.

McKinley was a cousin of President McKinley. He was admitted to the bar in this State in 1914. He lost his sight in a gun explosion in Cuba during the Spanish-American War. Mrs. McKinley, who is also blind as the result of a childhood accident, is now en route home with their children from Boise, Idaho, the former home of Mr. McKinley.

DEFINITE CLEW

Although when first disclosed yesterday morning it was believed the new information obtained from the Los Angeles man was the first to form a definite clew to the asserted kidnaping, Mrs. McPherson, when informed of the new, declared that it dovetails perfectly with the information obtained by Mr. McKinley.

The clew, which was being carefully guarded by both Detectives Harris and Taylor, coincide remarkably with the accounts of the abduction as given by Mrs. McPherson, Mr. Harris said.

The Los Angeles man, whose name is being closely guarded, told the officers that he believed his ranch, which is in the desert more than 100 miles from Los Angeles, is either the place, or near the house where Mrs. McPherson was first taken after her disappearance from the beach at Ocean Park, May 18, last.

In relating the account of circumstances which leads him to believe he may have played an unknowing part in the evangelist's abduction, the man names another man whose first name is "Steve."

DICKERS FOR RANCH

Early last spring, the man told Harris and Taylor, he met "Steve" at the home of Eddie "Blondy" Hannon, who was killed last April 6 in what police declared was a bootlegger's feud.

Shortly after the meeting the man known as "Steve" learned of the ranch owned by his new acquaintance, and at that time made the latter a mystery offer of $1500 to pay off the balance due on the place for its use for a month. Although not inclined to accept the offer, the ranch owner said, the man insisted that he was in need of just such a place, which is remotely located, because he was in a deal from which he stood to make from $100,000 to $500,000.

"It's not murder," he quoted the would-be renter as saying, "but it's the biggest deal framed in Southern California for years and will make the country hum."

Shortly after the meeting the ranch owner left for the desert, where he and his wife remained until May 18. On this date they received a letter postmarked two days before from Los Angeles, and in which "Steve" announced he would be there that night, outlining a plan to meet him and escort him to the ranch. A warning against talking also was written on the message.

"STEVE" DISAPPEARS

Because he did not want to become involved in the deal, the ranch owner left within an hour after receipt of the letter, leaving notice with a neighboring rancher to watch out for the house.

The Los Angeles man has since returned to the ranch but has not seen signs of it having been occupied, he said. However, he states, it is possible that after finding him gone some other house was used, Mr. Harris said. The country in that district is oppressively hot, such as described by Mrs. McPherson as the condition she first encountered after regaining consciousness, according to her statement given to police after her reappearance in Mexico.

According to detectives, the new story was obtained only after considerable pressure had been brought to bear, they said. The Los Angeles man's name, as well as the name of the would-be renter, is being withheld until an investigation, which was launched yesterday, is completed. The man known as "Steve" has not been seen in his usual haunts, nor his home, since the morning of May 18, Harris said.

Shortly before the meeting at Angelus Temple started last night, another conference between the temple leader, her mother and Miss Morris was held, but the nature of the conference was not disclosed.

LINES CUT OFF

It was learned in Long Beach yesterday that the dead attorney's secretary visited the morgue where his body lay and was given two pieces of paper from McKinley's clothes, after an order to allow Miss Morris to take them was issued by the Coroner's office.

When questioned as to what effect the death of the attorney will have on the pursuance of the kidnaping investigation, Mrs. Kennedy said:

"We fear that the passing of Mr. McKinley may cut off our line of communication. We only hope that the persons themselves who have the information will come directly to us. It is not expected, nor do we ask, that these persons come forward to put themselves in the hand of the law, but just to be men enough to vindicate the woman, who without fault of her own, has suffered as no human being has been known to suffer before."

Stepfather of Girl Arrested in Statutory Case

Fred Wyman, 54 years of age, a private detective employed by a local agency, was arrested yesterday by James Smith, a District Attorney's investigator, on a charge of having committed a statutory offense against his stepdaughter.

A complaint was issued by Dep. Dist. Atty. Hahn and Wyman was taken to the County Jail. The offense was said to have been committed July 26, last.

CARELESSNESS DID IT!

A BURNING match, a cigarette heedlessly tossed aside, a campfire left uncovered—and thousands upon thousands of acres are flame-swept and destroyed in the raging holocaust that follows—the result of carelessness that is directly responsible for more than 71% of all our forest fires!

Let us all, by rigidly observing a few simple out-of-door precautions do our part to help preserve our great national heritage. Never throw aside a blazing match or toss away a burning cigarette—never leave your campfire uncovered!

VON KRUPP MAY HAVE LAST LAUGH

Albuquerque Police No Longer Certain Touring "Baron" Isn't Genuine

In the face of reiterations that the self-styled Baron George Friedrich Exeter Von Krupp is in no way connected with the noted arms manufacturing family of Essen, as he claims to be, the young man sat calmly in a cell of the Albuquerque, N. M., jail last night while police of that city brushed nervous hands through tousled hair and wondered if, in common parlance, they're going to be left "holding the sack."

After touring the entire West on assertedly spurious credentials, being quietly feted by officials of the Ford Motor Company branches from Detroit, west, as the result of a letter purporting to bear the signature of Henry Ford, the young "baron" was apprehended at Albuquerque Wednesday night on a telegraphic warrant from Denver charging him with the issuance there of one or more worthless checks.

Last night, however, Denver police withdrew from the case with the announcement that the O'Mears-Young Motor Company, admittedly holding a worthless $100 check, refused to prosecute.

But about the same time Albuquerque police received telegrams from police at Pittsburgh and Wilmington, Del., that they want the so-called baron to answer to warrants in the East.

Then a Yale student declared young "Von Krupp" had left noncashable checks on the campus at New Haven under the name of George A. Dorgan.

Love Too Cool, Wife Asking for Divorce Says

After six months of married life Harry Z. Weil, motion-picture production manager, told his wife, Eunice, that she did not appeal to him so he took all the money they had and went to New York, Mrs. Weil testified yesterday in Judge Walton J. Wood's court where she was granted a divorce.

The wife also charged that on one occasion Weil was discharged from his employment because of his attentions to a woman employee of the studio in which he worked. Mrs. Weil stated her husband failed to show her the proper affection that reasonably might be expected from a husband. She was represented by Attorney Roger Marchetti.

Voters Urged to Send Wood Back to Bench

The following statement was issued yesterday by the undersigned:

"On account of his ability integrity and devotion to duty the undersigned urgently request the voters to return Walton J. Wood to the office he now occupies as judge of the Superior Court of Los Angeles county.

"W. H. Anderson, Andrew J. Copp, Jr., Frank P. Doherty, W. Joseph Ford, Jefferson P. Chandler, Milton Cohen, Clinton E. Miller, Sylvester L. Weaver, Maynard McFie, George Feagans, Richard Kittrelle and W. H. Dehm."

AUTO HITS TRUCKMAN, FRACTURING HIS SKULL

Howard Hays, 19 years of age, of 316 Oregon street, El Segundo, employed as a truck driver by the Hollywood Granite Company, 1137 North Orange Grove avenue, suffered a fractured skull when he was struck by an automobile driven by C. F. Mathews, 1515 North Avenue 50, at Verdugo Road and Glassel avenue yesterday, police reported. Hays had parked his truck and was crossing Verdugo Road when struck, it was reported. He was taken to the Receiving Hospital and later removed to the Angelus Hospital in a critical condition.

YOUTH ARRESTED AS BURGLARY SUSPECT

Danny Cushing, 19 years of age, was arrested on suspicion of burglary and grand larceny by Police Officers Conner and Frank yesterday, according to the police report. Cushing is suspected of several burglaries in Venice and Hollenbeck Heights, and of the theft of an automobile belonging to K. H. Cloud, 123 North San Pedro street, from an auto park at 128½ South San Pedro street Wednesday night, it was said.

SECRET SERVICE FUND FOR POLICE APPROVED

The request of Police Chief Davis for an appropriation of $2500 a month as a secret service fund to be used exclusively in the enforcement of the liquor laws was approved by the Board of Police Commissioners in a letter received yesterday by the City Council asking for the appropriation. The commission also approved of the chief's request for an appropriation to purchase two armored automobiles to be used in "waging warfare against hijackers and gunmen," and asked the Council to purchase the cars.

ARMOUR MAN SPEAKS

More than 800 retail meat dealers of Los Angeles heard Charles Myers, director of trade relations, Armour & Co., Chicago, at a special meeting held in the Chamber of Commerce last night under the auspices of the Los Angeles Retail Meat Dealers' Association. Mr. Myers, who is making a special educational tour of forty-five Pacific Coast cities, had as his subject: "What is the Future of the Meat Industry?"

STREET WIDENING REVIVED

City Engineer Shaw has been instructed by the City Council to start new proceedings for the widening of Second street from Figueroa street to Glendale Boulevard. The previous proceedings were declared invalid by the courts on account of technical errors.

GEN. STORY ESTATE SUIT CONTINUED

Sister Files Opposition to Guard Officer Handling Millionaire's Property

Charges involving the administration of the estate of the late Nelson Story, Montana millionaire, are scheduled to be heard in Judge Willis's court September 30, when the contest between Brig.-Gen. Walter P. Story, Los Angeles capitalist and National Guard officer, and his sister Mrs. Garrett Lansing Hogan, will be called for trial. The case was to have come up yesterday but was continued owing to the pressure of other business.

The contest was precipitated when Mrs. Hogan filed an opposition to the appointment of Gen. Story as California administrator for the estate. She stated that when her father died here March 15, last, he had $65,000 worth of securities in addition to his Montana estate. Some time later, she charges, her brother offered to give her these securities if she would not question his administration of the estate. Gen. Story denied this charge and asserted that at the time of the death of the elder Story all the estate was confined to Montana.

Mrs. Hogan also charged that Story was disqualified as administrator on the ground that he and two brothers, Thomas B. Story and Nelson Story, Jr., entered an agreement in 1924 to renounce all claim to securities left by their father in favor of Mrs. Hogan. Three days before the asserted agreement was made, Mrs. Hogan said, Gen. Story and his two brothers took $66,000 worth of securities from their father's strong box. Mrs. Hogan stated she has not seen them since.

Gen. Story also entered a denial of these charges.

ACCOUNTING BY MOERS ASKED FOR

Administrator for Estate Sues Husband for Asserted Diverted Securities

Recalling the tragic death of Teresa W. Moers August 13, 1924, Louis P. Boardman, recently appointed special administrator of her estate, yesterday filed suit for an accounting against Albert A. Moers, her husband; Mors, Inc.; Marjorie Moers and Samuel Stern, who, with Moers, are said to be officers and directors of Mors, Inc. Moers had served as executor of his wife's estate until June 16, last, when he was removed.

Normal Selby (Kid McCoy) is now serving a sentence in San Quentin for manslaughter in connection with the slaying of Mrs. Moers.

Boardman charged that Moers, during the time he served as executor of his wife's estate, turned $61,111 of the estate funds over to Mors, Inc., and also withdrew quantities of merchandise from the store of Mors, Inc., and held them in his own possession.

HEART BALM SUIT BATTLE IN PROSPECT

Business Man Asks Court for Right to Take Girl's Deposition Against Him

Indicating he will fight the unusual heart balm suit brought against him by 21-year-old May Belle Medley, Frank Sebastian Fenole, said to be a well-to-do business man, yesterday filed an application in Presiding Judge Stephens's court for permission to take Miss Medley's deposition in the case.

Miss Medley, who sued for $50,000, charged that Fenole, who also was said to be known as Frank Sebastian, wooed her and induced her to go through a marriage ceremony with him for the purpose of deceiving and betraying her.

Attorneys B. Rey Schauer and Phil Gibson filed the complaint for Miss Medley, while Verge, Cooney & Kearney filed the application to take Miss Medley's deposition.

REDUCTION OF BAIL FOR FOX VETOED

Judge Burnell Refuses Plea of Defendant in Schwartz Slaying Case

Judge Burnell yesterday refused to reduce the $100,000 bail in which James S. Fox, self-admitted worker for Tony Cornero, is being held on the charge of having murdered Harry Schwartz in the St. Regis Hotel on the 4th inst., in a gun battle between rival hi-jackers.

Fox's attorney, Arthur C. Verge, made a vain plea that Fox is "worth only $15,000" and that he shot Schwartz, alias Harry Munson, in self-defense.

The same gun battle that ended the liquor activities of Schwartz also brought death to Harry "Cuter" Moran, declared by the police to be a bootlegger. Theodore Eggers and Ernest Schultz, said to be members of a gang at loggerheads with the Cornero clique, have since been sought vainly by the police for questioning in connection with the Fox case.

CARS AVERAGE $35 IN POLICE AUCTION

Twenty-four automobiles brought in $824 to the City Treasury in the police auction sale conducted at Lincoln Heights stockade yesterday in charge of Capt. Ammon, chief property clerk. The sale price averaged $34.33.

ONE KILLED IN COLLISION, ONE INJURED

Pasadena Sales Manager Dies in Hollywood Crash; Third Man Flees Scene

One man was killed and another suffered serious injuries in a spectacular automobile collision shortly before midnight last night at the intersection of Santa Monica Boulevard and Sycamore avenue, Hollywood.

The dead man was identified as J. William Davis, 30 years of age, sales manager for the O'Neill Motors Company, El Molino and East Colorado streets, Pasadena. Although police were unable to definitely ascertain the identity of the injured man, an electric light bill in his clothing led them to believe he is B. A. Anderson, a pharmacist, 410 North Euclid avenue. Besides shock and serious cuts he received a broken arm.

Police last night were searching for a third man, believed to have been the driver of one of the wrecked cars and who was believed to have fled from the scene following the accident.

COGSWELL RAPS UNION ROCK CHIEF

Supervisor Says Rogers Trying to Force County to Buy His Materials

Charging an attempted obstruction of building the Sawpit Canyon dam, near Monrovia, on the part of the Union Rock Company, headed by George Rogers, Supervisor Cogswell yesterday issued a statement denouncing "such tactics, designed for personal gain at the expense of the people of this county."

The Supervisor declared at a meeting at Monrovia that "George Rogers, through influence and injunctions, threatened to prevent the contractors of the Sawpit dam from developing their own rock and sand on the dam site costing 45 cents per ton, and said he would force these builders to buy such material from him at $2.25 per ton."

Councilmen Crump and Allen of Monrovia substantiated the statement of Supervisor Cogswell when they said:

"Rogers had us in a jack-pot; he made his threat at a time when the contractors were taking rock and sand from a channel that had been filled in the April floods and, by so doing, were clearing that channel so that future rains might pass on without damage. He declared he would 'show us'; this work could not be done. Supervisor Cogswell, in standing firm for the citizens of Monrovia, saved the taxpayers of that city at least $25,000 in this one action."

Long Resident of Los Angeles Taken by Death

Mrs. Mary E. Bergin, 90 years of age, died yesterday at her home at 269 South Manhattan Place, after several months' illness. She had been a resident of the city twenty-six years, and for many years had been affiliated with charitable work.

Mrs. Bergin came to this country from Scotland in 1841. In Alabama in 1854, she married John Bergin, who later became a captain in the Confederate Army. She later moved to Texas where her husband died.

Mrs. Bergin leaves three sons, Charles Bergin, secretary of the Los Angeles Soap Company; Leo P. Bergin, vice-president of the same company and William P. of Merced; one daughter, Mrs. Carrie Curran of Los Angeles, a sister, Regis, who is a nun in Porto Rico, and fifteen grandchildren.

Mrs. Bergin will be buried from St. Brenda's Catholic Church tomorrow morning. Cunningham and O'Connor will have charge of funeral arrangements.

without having to wade through war trenches.

Street work has to be done, but contractors are allowed to gum up traffic for absolutely unreasonable periods. They show ruthless indifference about putting the streets back in condition after they get through smearing them up. In the neighborhood in which I live everybody has been obliged for months to leave his car on the curb—shut out from the garages—a genial invitation to any automobile thief who feels like taking one.

There has been a huge pile of earth in the middle of Los Feliz Boulevard so long it has come to be a landmark for surveyors. And this is one of the most heavily trafficked streets in the city.

LOS ANGELES SPENDS $3000 FOR CONVICTION

Los Angeles county spent $3000 yesterday convicting and sending to jail for forty-five days Josefa Campo for selling two pints of liquor. The sentence was imposed by Municipal Judge Edmonds. Mrs. Campo was tried three times, the jury disagreeing twice. Her husband, Joe Campo, also was tried, but acquitted.

DAMAGE SUIT FILED FOR IMPRISONMENT

Charging he was maliciously prosecuted on a misdemeanor complaint for administering medicine to his wife, Charles H. Wuth yesterday filed suit for $50,700 damages against Emma MacIntyre, Millie Solomon, Gladys L. Johannes, Martin H. Johannes, Frederica E. Haun, George A. Crawford and Minna B. Viets.

ORNAMENTAL LIGHTS URGED

The granting of a property owner's petition asking for the installation of ornamental lighting posts on Eighty-third street from Central avenue and McKinley avenue has been recommended to the City Council by the Board of Public Works.

Stage Ready for Presentation of Church Pageant

Following the final dress rehearsal last night of more than a thousand people who will appear in the production, every preparation has been completed for the presentation tonight at the Shrine Civic Auditorium of "Down in Alabam," the huge musical pageant to be staged by the Federated Church Brotherhoods of California, according to J. Bassett Willard, author and stage director.

HER DREAM OF BLISS WINDS UP IN COURT

Childhood illusions of Mrs. Ruby Williams about matrimonial happiness soon went scurrying before a gale of domestic disquietude that blew into her life when she married Harry Williams, she told Judge Craig yesterday in her plea for divorce.

"He spent his money on other women and wouldn't support me," declared Mrs. Williams. The decree was granted on ground of nonsupport. She was represented by Attorney S. J. Hahn.

Preliminary examination of Clarence Barber, garage foreman accused of the murder of Israel Grosher, was continued over to today by Municipal Judge Westover following the testimony of County Autopsy Surgeon Wagner and several other prosecution witnesses yesterday.

BEACH RIDE VICTIM SUES FOR DAMAGES

The collision July 7, 1925, of two scooters in a Santa Monica concession yesterday resulted in Dorothy Carroll, 7 years of age, filing suit for $50,000 damages against O. Merritt Jones and other owners of the concession. The girl said she suffered burns from an electric wire and other injuries.

C. T. PAYTON GOES EAST

As an initial step toward enlarging the capacity of their factory, C. T. Payton, president of the Standard Nut Margarine Company, has left on a trip east to purchase additional machinery. While East Mr. Payton will visit his son, Jack, who is attending the Culver Military Academy.

LLNERS IN KHJ PROGRAM

Throngs to Hear Popular Quartet

German Classics Given by String Artists

Baritone Find Made in Kenneth Rogers

BY MILE PRICE BROOKS

the warm evening the gallery was filled to capacity for Thursday's concert hour, by those delightful musicians, Zoellners. This string quartet ising Joseph Zoellner, Sr., Miss Zoellner, Joseph, Jr., and Amandus such a part of our famous that it needs no introduction to you.

Last night they gave an all-German program which was artistically varied and charming in arrangement. Their opening number was the Beethoven Quartet, Op. 18, No. 5, allegretto con brio, and the Menuetto non troppo movements. Another from the Schumann Quartet, Op. 41, was beautifully played by a much-loved Mozart theme, and a canzonetta, Haydn. The Zoellners were forced to comply with a request for the Austrian national hymn with variations, which gave a fine closing to the program.

Another baritone voice new to radio was that of Kenneth Rogers. His tones are round and full, and one is conscious of the artist back of his renditions. It indeed a joy to have this artist in our midst and anticipate hearing more of his work in the near future. Among his spirited selections were Adam's "Bells of the Sea," "Ship Deep," by Jude, and another number, "The Turnkey's Dream."

MESSAGE IN SONG

Miss Harriet Andrews in song would be a pleasure, even if she did not sing a note, but when she puts out her lovely message it brings to you something of the holiness of spirit which the radio family, have learned to "sing" was the subject chosen by Phillip M. Lovell for his talk. Preceding this the reading for the evening was by Rev. Guy McBride, of the Chesterfield Square Episcopal Church.

Recommended Jeanne De Bard, the "child teacher," laid her gifts at the feet during the children's hour. Cecil Cnad, the small Metro-Goldwyn star of vibrant personality, is known to her KHJ friends as "Red Riding Hood," told the story "Story About a Smile," by "Ruth." We were glad to see Dickie Brandon with us after his absence while on the James Foley's "Let Us Be Gay" and some jokes were Dickie's own.

GIFTED CHILD

The exceedingly gifted child is Neva Nelson, who is but 11 years of age, whose pianologues and songs are splendidly done. Nelita Nelson, 11-year-old singer, pleased with her numbers.

The noon hour presented to them two of your favorites, Miss Soprano, and Mabel Lenemann. Miss Lenemann has found another champion in Royal Wallace, who sings popular songs to his own accompaniment on this Hawaiian instrument.

Joseph Taccati, baritone, brought to the noon hour two new compositions of his own, "Flower of the Moon" and "Wond'rin' What's Become of You," both of them very tuneful and catchy.

Perle Davis, pianist, who comes to us from the Largo Theater, where she is the organist, is one who can play jazz in an entertaining, melodious way—something rare to find. This young lady has a sunny smile and a sweetness which has made her very popular among her radio friends.

From the lovely Marigold Gardens out on the Foothill Boulevard Al Johnson brought his orchestra, who gave the closing hour of dance music, completing a happy day's broadcast.

BANK of AMERICA

PROGRESS

OLD FASHIONED, stereotyped banking methods do not characterize this bank's service.

Complete metropolitan facilities, the quick adoption of new ideas, flexibility, tolerance and consideration, instead of hard as-granite conservatism—these are Bank of America features which are in line with the new spirit of business.

FREE GRAND OPERA

New York is going to have free performances of grand opera. New York being largely made up of Yiddish, Italian, German and other foreign-born people, the experiment may be successful. But most "100 per cent Americans" wouldn't dream of attending grand opera unless they either had to pay a high price for it or were paid a high price for it.

WOULD HELP

Some other newspapers smile because The Times, on its editorial page, daily reminds its readers that the name of this city properly should be pronounced Loce Ahng-hayl-ais. But just think how much embarrassment the traveling public would be saved if a few dozen other towns and cities would follow the idea—towns like Too-son, Ariz., La Hoya, Cal., and so on.

ONCE IN A WHILE

Los Angeles weather has just had an attack of tantrums. Perhaps our climate once in a great while grows tired of being commended for its even disposition and gets hot under the collar as it did Wednesday morning. It must be noted, however, that, while the mercury touched 102 shortly before noon, an hour later it had dropped to 87. Just a transitory exhibition of temper and no damage done.

SOME ROYAL ROADS

All the world is showing active interest in the creation and keep of smooth and permanent roads. The international road congress will be held in Milan in September and it is likely that Mussolini himself will line up with the gathering. America will send delegates and nearly all the governments of Europe expect to be represented. The extension of motor traffic into all corners of the globe assures a permanent interest in real road building.

FAKE FOREIGN TITLES

Why do Americans, otherwise blessed with good judgment and sound business sense, fall so easily for supposed foreign titles? Why did so astute a financier as Henry Ford present a fine touring car to an alleged German baron without thoroughly investigating his credentials? Genuine titles mean nothing to the citizens of a free republic, yet fake ones are still used to conjure with. They used to get by in Hollywood, but Hollywood is all fed up on them. Perhaps that is why they are switching to Detroit.

THE MICROBE OF MORBIDITY

It is illustrative of the spirit of the morbid abroad in the land today that S. George Ullman has been obliged to close the chapel to the public where the body of Valentino was lying in state. The lack of reverence and the disorderly conduct of the crowds permitted to view the remains rendered this course inevitable. The passing of a soul should call forth the deepest and holiest in human nature. Those who have in them nothing that is deep or holy are unable to distinguish between an obsequy and an orgy.

ALMOND GROWERS, ATTENTION

California almond growers owe to Senator Samuel M. Shortridge an everlasting debt of gratitude. Four years ago, when the tariff on almonds was under consideration in Congress and the future of the almond industry in California hung in the balance, it was Senator Shortridge who proved himself a staunch friend of the growers. He insisted on a protective tariff for that industry and one that would keep out foreign competition. A vote for him in the primary is a vote for the retention of those tariff rates.

NEEDED PRECAUTION

Following so closely after the Lake Denmark horror, the explosion of the Pig Point army magazine on the James River in Virginia would seem to indicate the necessity of far greater precautions than are now being taken to prevent such tragic occurrences. Experiments with artificial lightning made recently at Pittsfield, Mass., showed conclusively that miniature oil tanks can be protected from electric bolts by wires strung horizontally above them and well grounded at each end. If this sort of device can be made effective in the protection of oil tanks, why not in the case of munitions magazines?

The most significant item in the findings of the board of inquiry which investigated the Lake Denmark disaster was that by far too many high explosives were stored in the depot there. The board recommended a wider distribution of munitions used by the Navy and indicated by its report that it did not consider the number of depots by any means sufficient for such distribution. One of its recommendations calls for the establishment of a new depot on the Pacific Coast to be located on barren land, no habitation to be erected within two miles of it in any direction.

If the scattering of these munitions depots about the country and the reduction of the quantity of explosives in each depot is going to lessen the chances of the repetition of such awful disasters as that at Lake Denmark it certainly would seem wise to adopt this plan without delay.

BANKS AND POLITICS

The most damaging blow that could be dealt to the candidacy of C. C. Young for Governor was the announcement that A. P. Giannini, who controls the Bank of Italy and associated banking institutions, has thrown those banks actively into politics and has directed that every effort be made to give Young the Republican nomination.

Mr. Giannini's action appears to have been prompted by pique at Gov. Richardson's State banking department, and it is asserted that he has the promise of Young's backers that a banking department favorable to the Bank of Italy shall be appointed if Young wins.

It is easy to understand why the Young forces should enter into such an arrangement. Like a drowning man clutching at straws, they are willing to seize anything that looks like an opportunity of saving their candidate from the overwhelming tide of Richardson sentiment. Probably they did not expect the arrangement to become public. It is less easy to understand why an astute business man like Mr. Giannini should have become a party to it. He is well acquainted with the banking traditions which dictate that banks should stay out of politics.

The merits of the controversy between Mr. Giannini and the banking department are to be determined in the courts and call for no comment here. It may be said without impropriety, however, that the unwritten law which requires banks to be neutral politically insists that there shall be regulated competition between banks and that the public will resent any political attempt to gain monopoly in this as in other fields. This tradition has been established ever since the memorable fight between Jackson and the United States Bank. The disastrous results of that fight have long since passed away, but the principles established are still kept in mind and seem likely to last as long as the republic.

The incident offers further proof of what already was evident, that the Young candidacy is an indecent scramble for offices and spoils and nothing else. Finn, McCabe, Johnson and Parrot are determined to gain power at no matter what cost to the public interest; they look upon California as territory to be plundered as Los Angeles is now being plundered for the benefit of Parrot and his friends.

The voters who can now see so clearly the purposes that the backers of Young have in mind will carry their knowledge with them to the polls next Tuesday and will act in accordance with it. The result should be an overwhelming indorsement of Gov. Richardson for re-election.

GOOD-BY, DOBBIN!

Horse-drawn vehicles have been barred from the principal thoroughfares of the national capital. A horse is now a bit of news, a buggy ride, a song.

The mounts of Los Angeles policemen have been sold. The city of Portland, Or., has motorized all its departments. Old Dobbin's days are numbered.

In the Oregon city in 1910, 200 teams crossed the Morrison-street bridge between 5:15 and 5:45, the peak of traffic. Recently but one lonely team made the journey in the same period, writes Robert C. Notson in the Oregonian.

The horse still holds his own on the farm and in the rural districts, but on the city streets progress has side-swiped him.

The first automobile created a sensation and drew a mob on the street. Today a horse and buggy draw a crowd to the movie location. A horse never got into the dispatches until this hour.

When the first automobile honked down the big road horses snorted and kicked viciously. They seemed to have a premonition of the end. They succeeded in kicking it completely off the highway and old Dobbin gave a long and hearty horse-laugh.

But the motor car returned to stay. As some one said, old Dobbin did not know the worm-gears could turn.

Along with the old nag have gone dust roads and steep grades, surveyed by the deer and cows. With the motor car have come stone highways as well engineered as railroads.

"Hoss-racing" is largely a memory, and the motor furnishes thrills the like of which the "old hoss" never dreamed. The garage has supplanted the barn, and the blacksmith appears only in poetry.

The time may come when the only place to see the horse will be in the museum along with the mastodon, the dinosaur and other prehistoric mammoths.

THEY SHALL NOT PASS

Forest fires—a seemingly irradicable curse set on nature's bounty by human wastrels—have lately been wreaking havoc among our finest California timber, the damage threatening to exceed that of the disastrous year of 1924. This year's conflagration brings home to us the horror with additional force because our grove of giant redwoods in the Sequoia National Park has been placed in jeopardy.

A possible disaster of this magnitude has aroused the public and the authorities to the futility of relying on the conscience of the individual to be as careful of the nation's resources as he is of his own skin and belongings. Millions are still sacrificed to the smoldering cigarette stub tossed negligently into a carpet of dry pine spires or to the camp fire left unquenched by the motorist in a hurry.

When the flames were sweeping forward toward the Sequoia National Park a rush order to close the government timber reserves for the remainder of the dry season to campers and picnickers was contemplated, while smoking in national parks has already been prohibited. But it requires a possible calamity of national portent to induce careless twentieth-century humanity to close the stable door before the horses have gone.

Yet it is encouraging to note the quick response when the appeal is to sentiment rather than to materialism and when the heart is touched before the brain. In actual dollars and cents or the number of linear feet of lumber involved forest fires have consumed more valuable material than could be sawed from the big trees in the Muir Grove. But our giant redwoods are loved and cherished for their magnificent living selves and as soon as they are menaced human action in their defense becomes fast and furious.

Our California redwoods have gone through many ordeals. Their own powers of resistance to the fire fiend aid their human friends in a battle with the onslaught of the flame. These big sequoias run up scores of feet to the first branches, while the protecting bark on their massive trunks is thick, fibrous and spongy. Some of them for thousands of years have defied lightning, storm and tempest and the wear and tear of forest life. They are not to be the victims of the fool with the cigarette. Imagination boggles at so inglorious a climax.

THE EXILE

Fame is fleeting for dogs as well as for men. It has been a long time now since the world rang with the exploit of Balto, leader of the dog team that carried the life-saving serum to plague-stricken Nome.

Yet, deep in the romantic hearts of men, the memory of that heroic feat survives undimmed. For it was no small service that Balto and his mates and master rendered to a world wherein the ancient flesh-and-blood virtues of courage and hardihood were in danger of being subordinated to the cold, matter-of-fact efficiency of the machine.

In Nome's hour of agony men awoke to the fact that man is greater than the creations of his hand and brain. For a few brief days we reverted to the primitive. Human lives again depended upon the skill and daring of man and his four-footed comrade whose alliance was joined before the dawn of history. For a moment man again ruled godlike, unsustained by artificial aids, over the malignancy of elemental forces.

Balto survives as a symbol, but he himself is well-nigh forgotten. It has been long since he came out of his native north to capitalize, through no fault of his own, that epic errand of mercy. Had it not been for the story that two of his mates had attacked a boy at Ocean Park, where they are being exhibited, few of the millions that once waited in breathless expectancy for word of his progress across the Arctic wastes would have known of his whereabouts.

Balto has merited a better fate at the hands of the race he served so well than being exhibited day after day in an alien land. Gunnar Kasson, his driver, has related that in the wild blizzard by the shores of the northern sea he put blind faith in Balto and, the great dog did not fail.

Balto's place is in the north. Even as the lama in "Kim" longed for the hills and the snow of the hills, so must his dog soul yearn for the wide white reaches shimmering under the frozen moon.

Where is the gratitude of Nome, where are the memories of the old sourdoughs scattered along the Pacific Coast? Some one should take Balto home.

TWO SEARCHES

On the first page of a recent issue of The Times were two human-interest news "stories," in character as far apart as the poles. One was the account of a successful search by hundreds of men and women for a 7-year-old lad lost in an Oregon wilderness. The other told of a search by hundreds of armed men, including Indians, for two desperate mail-car bandits.

When discovered, the little boy told his rescuers that he was not hungry because he had eaten three fish and a handful of huckleberries during his seventy-two hours of wandering in the wilds.

If the Wyoming bandits are caught they probably will not be allowed to give an account of their adventures. Their pursuers have been instructed to "shoot to kill," and it is probable that five minutes following the robbers' apprehension their blood will not be circulating very well.

If there is a "lesson" in these searches it is that parents shall keep such watch over the physical, mental and moral welfare of their children that the latter will never have to be hunted like tigers in the wilderness.

TREES AND BILLBOARDS

In the Maryland Free State the State Forester is planing large clumps of bushes or groups of trees in front of all the billboard sites.

As in California, the placing of advertising signs on the public right of way is forbidden in Maryland, but that does not prevent private owners in either place from renting space on which posters can be displayed. Moral suasion has convinced one prominent California corporation that billboard advertising, alienating as it does the good will of a considerable portion of the motoring public—and who does not motor in California?—should be given up, but the example thus set is not being as generally followed as it might well be.

The Maryland forester's plan, however, meets all the objections that have been urged against other antibillboard devices in that it has additional advantages and no drawbacks. Trees and bushes so disposed would obscure no view not already obscured by the unsightlier billboards; the plan is quite lawful, invading nobody's property rights; and we need more trees, anyhow—can hardly have too many of them.

It is not necessary, as the forester points out, that the billboard be entirely obscured; if the view of its more salient features is shut off, that is quite sufficient to defeat the purpose of the advertiser and discourage him from continuing.

BABY BANDITS

The baby bandit competition is getting keen. One town springs its baby b. and next day some other town boasts that it has captured a younger one. There really seems no way to settle it except to have a national baby bandit show.

FIGHTING BARDS
By James J. Montague

The poet of old was aware
That his trade wasn't highly esteemed,
He knew that all men didn't care
For the wonderful dreams that he dreamed.
And so when in rhyme he admonished the throng
To be brave in its griefs and keep smiling—
He always took care not to make it so long
That it couldn't be written on tiling.

When in public his verses he read
And his audience did not appear
To approve of the things that he said,
He had not a tremor of fear.
He calmly kept on with his metrical speech
In periods placidly flowing,
Till he noticed some chap in the lyceum reach
For some object well-suited for throwing.

Then, arrayed in a series of smiles
(No menace could scare or upset him)
He gathered together the tiles
And dared them to come up and get him.
In the fight that ensued many faces were marred
And the ambulance often was needed,
But the people who showed their dislike of the bard
Got more badly injured than he did.

The poets today are annoyed
When the critics and public proclaim
That they all would be better employed
In the blacksmith or bricklaying game.
But if they'd engrave their effusions on bombs
And keep good able guns to eject them,
They could write all they pleased and without any qualms
Lest the world might not love and respect them!

Politics in Indiana

[Robert G. Tucker is a veteran political writer for the Indianapolis press.]

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 24.—[To the Editor of The Times:] In recent speeches in behalf of his candidacy for the Republican nomination for United States Senator Judge Robert M. Clarke, the so-called anti-World Court candidate, has made frequent misleading references to what transpired in this year's primaries in some of the Midwestern and Eastern States. This is especially true of his statements regarding what happened in the Indiana primary last May in which Senator James E. Watson, for many years a figure of nation-wide interest in Congress, was renominated.

A staff correspondent for a Los Angeles paper which is supporting Judge Clarke quotes him on August 9 as having made the following statement at Bakersfield:

"The outstanding issue of this campaign is the World-Court issue. The junior Senator voted us into the World Court last January. Now he says that anyone who declares this involves us in European entanglements insults the intelligence of the American people.

"I presume, therefore, that the people of Illinois, Pennsylvania, Iowa, Indiana and other States who recently voted on this question are a lot of morons."

The truth is, the World Court was not an issue in the Indiana primary and is not an issue in the present campaign. The circumstances involving Senator Watson in Indiana are well known, not only among party managers on both sides, but among the people, inasmuch as the story was printed and reprinted in papers of general circulation in the Hoosier State. What Senator Watson and his personal organization sought for more than a year before the primary was to avoid a primary campaign with Albert J. Beveridge, on whom strong pressure was brought to get him into the race.

Mr. Beveridge is a strong opponent of the World Court, which loomed to the Watson managers as the only issue on which he might enter the campaign against their candidate. Senator Watson never committed himself on the World Court until the vote was taken in the Senate and then it was admitted and boasted by his managers that the vote kept Mr. Beveridge out of the race. The story was printed, as stated above, and never controverted.

Mr. Beveridge declined to become a candidate and the anti-Watson element brought out Clarice Adams, formerly Prosecuting Attorney in Indianapolis, to make the race against Senator Watson. It was a foregone conclusion that Senator Watson would carry every district—which he did. Mr. Adams is a young man of engaging personality, but scarcely known outside of his own city. Senator Watson had complete control of the State organization, the support of the State press, State officials and organization generally.

He made only one speech during the primary campaign and it is significant that he made no effort then to stress the World-Court matter. An interesting development came, however, toward the close of the primary fight, when Mr. Adams openly charged in a number of speeches that Senator Watson, while he voted against the World-Court resolution, quietly besought other Republicans in the State to vote for it. In spite of the seriousness and general interest in this charge, neither Senator Watson nor his chosen spokesmen denied it. The inference in Indiana was that Senator Watson, who always has been a regular and conservative in State and national politics, voted against the World Court resolution largely for the purpose of keeping Mr. Beveridge from becoming a candidate. Their strategy was to avoid an expensive primary campaign in the easiest manner open to them. Mr. Adams took no stand on the World Court.

Since then the Republican managers have outlined their campaign plans and their decision is that the Fordney-McCumber tariff, farm relief and economy shall be the issues. There is no plan in Indiana to inject the World Court into the campaign. This is due to the fact that the Republican managers desire to stand with the Coolidge administration.

There was nothing and is nothing in Indiana to warrant Judge Clarke in urging support of his candidacy on the ground that he and Indiana Republicans are in accord on the World Court matters.

Members of party organizations generally and newspaper men assigned regularly to cover politics in the Middle Western and Eastern States look upon the attack of the Johnsons, the Boraha, the Brookharts, the Nyes and others on the World Court as a thinly disguised move to create a division within the Republican party enabling some of them to defeat President Coolidge for renomination in 1928. The anti-World-Court drive against every man who stood by the President in support of the resolution coupled with much of the farm-relief legislation has been carried on largely with the hope of breaking down President Coolidge's hold on the people. This is so recognized elsewhere and one wonders why anyone should attempt it in a State like California, which gave President Coolidge such a decisive majority in 1924. ROBERT G. TUCKER.

Fortunately for stupid people the weather changes often enough to supply them with something to talk about.

HATED A...

BY ALMA W...

In an article dated June 17, Sir Philip Gibbs tells "why the United States is in favor in Europe." It is a delicate subject, for Sir Philip, like most Englishmen, knows little of America and Americans and needs to explain why we are so much disliked.

He carefully goes over the arguments about money and ideals don't seem to jibe with our actions and how a few loud spenders really represent us, presenting us as Shylocks and bondholders, we are found wanting in the most unfavorable light, deplores H. L. Mencken's counter-blast of wilful criticism of "British ideals" and the sarcasms of "writing Englishmen gutter-snipes."

"It is weak of Mencken," his distinguished critic, to gutter-snipes, but he is right of many Americans who are convinced that their country is most unpopular in Europe," he writes.

But all the same the "defense" amounts to an indictment and we admit the force of the French point when he says that "To excuse is to accuse."

But as against this we have article by J. L. Garvin, England's leading editorial writer which occupies three columns in the London Observer of June 27, which does far more than bitterness than any one could explaining could ever do.

This article is replete with facts and considered opinion of this republic, its lofty and astonishing achievements, the cycle of it and the world significance of its rise to power. No American could have written a finer tribute to his country than that published in the Observer on our great national days, July Fourth.

After enumerating our amazing talents, the growth of wealth, the multitude of our national resources and developments as "a giant among nations," Garvin says, "Let no one suppose that this is a spectacle of merely triumphant materialism." Those who take that view understand nothing. An increasing share of America's wealth is going where it should."

And then he proceeds to make a list of our worthier achievements in education, in science, in the arts and sciences, with such phrases as "The American mastery of steel is startling as the Greek mastery of bronze."

And again "Religious life in all kinds are more active and powerful in America than in any European country whatever. It is the old call 'fundamentalism' intolerant and intolerant—you cannot call it materialistic."

Or again "There are fundamental reasons for thinking that the religious success of the United States in making material wealth and diffusing it among the mass of people would have been impossible without the force of character and moral energy which have gone into the process."

This article goes on to list a score of "lessons" for Europe to be found in America and concludes "The real constructive work that is progressing in America." He points out conditions in Europe which Europe might emulate and finds no virtue in particulars where we are not open to doubt our own wisdom. He points out that a statue of Abraham Lincoln adorns London's Parliament Square "who speaks for all who use his memory as a political vision both inspiring and attainable." And he concludes with:

"Great as America is, she can only realize the infinite possibilities of her future when the world-wide influence of the English-speaking idea, the world policy of the planet and the biggest economic means an economic benefactor, incomparable creativeness, the surest aid and safeguard of higher causes and ideal are at stake in our time."

Such a recognition of the country's power and place and worthiness, coming from England, must comfort us. Columns of what Sir Philip calls "the gutter-snipe" on both sides of the Atlantic wipe out the infinite pettiness of "those hated Americans" and their sions.

JAPANESE HIGHWAY

The Home Department of the Japanese government has drawn tentative construction plans for the improvement of highways, particularly for motor traffic, the cost of which is estimated at [illegible] 000,000 yen, to be spread over a period of about ten years, according to Commerce Reports.

The government will contribute toward this fund approximately 000,000 yen, the remainder to be supplied by the prefectures and cities benefitting. There are now about 000 miles of highways in Japan, of which 14,500 miles have been recommended as main roads for motor vehicles, and 4000 miles have been set aside as important highways for automotive traffic. It is the latter which will be placed in order first.

But however that may be,
One says his prayers through the long year's care
And fulfills his destiny.

The indorsements were in the form of a resolution unanimously approved by a rising vote of the executive committee of the Republican organization at a special session of the ... presided over which Mrs. Harriet ... Works, vice-chairman, presided in the absence of Ralph Arnold, who is in the East.

Termed an "Open Letter to the Republican Voter of Los Angeles County," the resolution follows:

TEXT OF RESOLUTION

In both the Ninth and Tenth congressional districts a situation exists that threatens the defeat of the Republican candidates and the election of men who, although nominally registered as Republicans, have been life-long Socialists or ... affiliated with political groups antagonistic to the Republican party.

The situation is an extremely serious one. The Republican County Central Committee does not ordinarily concern itself in a primary election. However, because of the serious menace of the Congressional contests the committee calls upon loyal Republicans to help prevent the nomination of men who, if elected, would

In the Ninth District a Republican Congressional conference was called to consider the situation, and it indorsed W. E. Evans.

In the Tenth District, also, a Republican Congressional conference was officially called, and it indorsed Joe Crail.

All candidates for Congress were invited to these conferences and were given due consideration.

The Republican County Central Committee, reviewing the action of these two Republican Congressional conferences, hereby indorses the candidates so selected and commends them to the earnest consideration of the Republican voters of the county.

W. E. Evans is splendidly qualified to represent his district at Washington. His principal opponent is Charles H. Randall, who has on several previous occasions, because of a multiplicity of Republican candidates, captured the Republican nomination, although himself the nominee of the Democratic and Socialist parties. The only way to prevent a repetition of that sort of thing is for all Republican voters to support Evans.

LIFE-LONG REPUBLICAN

Joe Crail is a life-long Republican and is opposed by Councilman Criswell, a life-long Socialist although now he has had himself registered as a "Republican." Crail, because of his fine personal character, his honesty, his ability and his courage, would make an ideal Congressman for the district.

Both Evans and Crail are aggressively right on the major issues of the campaign. Each is an earnest advocate of a high dam at Boulder Canyon, the all-American canal and rigid and honest law enforcement.

The nomination of either Randall or Criswell on the Republican ticket would be fraud on the party and a perversion of the primary election law.

As Republicans we owe it to our party to send to Congress only loyal and faithful Republicans. We want no Brookharts from California—men who solicit election as Republicans and then, when elected, stab the party in the back.

A victory next Tuesday for Joe Crail and W. E. Evans will be a victory for our party and for good government.

BOTANIST TO LECTURE HERE

Dr. Hill of Kew Gardens Will Speak Tomorrow Night Under Auspices of Commerce Chamber

Dr. Arthur W. Hill, director of the Royal Botanical Gardens, Kew, Eng., will give a lecture at the Chamber of Commerce Building tomorrow night at 8 o'clock. Dr. Hill, on his way to the university at Berkeley to give a series of lecture, has been induced to stop off at Los Angeles.

The lecture Saturday night will be under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce and no admission charge will be made. Prominent persons locally who are interested in the California Botanical Foundation, established for the purpose of furthering interest in horticulture and floriculture in Southern California, have been especially desirous of engaging Dr. Hill to lecture on the general subject.

TO VISIT SITE

While in Los Angeles over Sunday, Dr. Hill will be taken for a visit to Mandeville Canyon, just west of Brentwood, where it is proposed to establish one of the most remarkable botanical gardens known anywhere. The primary purpose of the California Botanical Foundation is to establish this garden and to provide ways for its upkeep. The Foundation is a nonprofit organization. The organization has received a written proposition offering 1000 acres in Mandeville Canyon, stretching from Beverly Boulevard to Mulholland Drive.

The canyon site is said to be really remarkable in that it enjoys almost unrivaled climatic conditions and soil variations that will permit of the growing of a wide range of plant life. The site has been studied by some of the most expert horticulturists in the United States, including Dr. Swingle of the Department of Agriculture, Dr. Gleason, curator of the New York City Botanical Gardens, Frank Shearer, Superintendent of Parks for the City of Los Angeles, and others. All have been highly enthusiastic over its possibilities.

The establishment of such a botanical garden in Los Angeles will mean very much not only esthetically, but scientifically and commercially to the entire Southwest.

SPEAKS ON KEW

In his lecture, Dr. Hill will speak on the Royal Gardens at Kew, which is often referred to as the storehouse of the world's botany because of its enormous collection of botanical specimens, its extensive series of living plants and its wonderful library facilities. In size and value the herbarium, containing several million mounted specimens, is unsurpassed in the world, and no botanical library in the world is as complete as is the collection of publications on this subject at Kew.

Before his return to England, Dr. Hill intends to visit the Grand Canyon and a number of the larger American cities. He gave his lecture recently at the State university, where it was enthusiastically received.

LINEBERGER OPTION SUIT WITHDRAWN

Senatorial Aspirant Drops Litigation on 1923 Deal Near San Fernando

Details of an asserted transaction whereby Representative Lineberger, candidate for the United States Senate, was said to have become involved in an option to purchase in 1923 the Dr. Hayward Ranch near San Fernando and other property which at the time was said to have been under consideration by the Federal government as a possible location for a veterans' hospital, will not be aired in Superior Court.

This was disclosed yesterday when Attorneys Doyle, Clarke and Thomas, counsel for Lineberger, dismissed in Judge Crail's court a suit brought by Lineberger and his brother, John W. Lineberger, against Arthur J. Munn and M. J. Poppelman, San Fernando real estate dealers. The suit was to enforce collection of a promissory note for $2078 said to have been executed by Munn and Poppelman in favor of Lineberger and his brother.

After Representative Lineberger bought into the option, they declared, they failed to sell the property and Lineberger then was said to have demanded the $2078 he had paid in as his share of the expenses in the deal.

At that time, the defendant said, they were interested in another deal in Bear Valley and Representative Lineberger was asserted to have told them he knew of some parties he could interest in taking over the Bear Valley property at a large profit to Munn and Poppelman and himself.

While Munn and Poppelman denied they owed Lineberger any money, they said they executed the promissory note to him and his brother for fear he would not otherwise endeavor to consummate the Bear Valley transaction. After they executed the note, Munn and Poppelman said, Representative Lineberger dropped all contact with the proposed Bear Valley deal.

Terms of a settlement, out of court, if any, were not revealed in any of the papers on file in the case.

It was revealed that an affidavit of sensational nature, said to have been made by Munn and Poppelman in connection with the case, had not been filed.

MAYWOOD TAG DAY PLAN DISAPPROVED

The Social Service Commission yesterday recommended that the Maywood Woman's Club adopt some other method than a "tag day" for raising funds to pay off the mortgage on its clubhouse. The club asked for permission to conduct the tag day in the recently annexed Bell district, and the commmission reported that while it had no authority to prohibit the "tag day," the commission disapproved of this method of solicitation.

SOCIETY

BY MYRA NYE

Mrs. Anna Gilligan has issued 400 invitations for the wedding of her daughter, Miss Zita Ruth Gilligan, and Harold J. Cashin which will be celebrated Wednesday, September 1, at St. Paul's Cathedral on West Washington.

Bride-elect Honoree

Miss Gilligan, popular bride-elect, was honored Wednesday when her sister, Mrs. Robert Lel and Watson of 1722 Crenshaw Boulevard, entertained fifty guests at a beautifully appointed bridge-tea. Mrs. Anna Gilligan and Mrs. Raphael Brennan assisted Mrs. Watson.

Tuesday Miss Gilligan was honored by Mrs. George Binder who entertained with a bridge-tea at the Edgewater Club. Mrs. Binder was assisted by her two neices, Miss Mabel Claire McMillan and Miss June McMillan.

oday Miss Gilligan will again be honor guest at the Edgewater Club when Miss Margaret Creighton will entertain wit h a bridge party. Mrs. Thomas Scott has arranged for a bridge party at her home on Arapahoe street tomorrow in honor of this much feted bride-elect.

Tomorrow evening Miss Helen Woodward will be hostess at a dinner bridge party in honor of Miss Gilligan and her fiance, Mr. Cashin.

At the Bowl

Society was well represented at the Hollywood Bowl last night with the presentation of Richard Bonelli, baritone artist of the Los Angeles Grand Opera Association and the Chicago Civic Opera Company, as soloist. Bonelli is the first of a group of world-famous artists of this season's opera to arrive here.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Atherton Irish entertained with Mayor and Mrs. Michel of Santa Monica, Mr. and Mrs. J. Edgar Brown, Dr. and Mrs. F. J. Wagner and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Braun as guests.

Former Judge and Mrs. B. P. Bledsoe, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Armitage, Mr. and Mrs. George Leslie Smith entertained with box parties. Among those who entertained were:

Mmes. R. D. Shepherd, Charles Modini Wood, Albert Sherman Hoyt, Sloan-Orcutt, Fred Pennington Newport, Harry H. Culver, Howard Verbec, Edwin Rufus Collins, Georgia Keating Kennedy, Elizabeth DeJeans, Ida Koverman, Ura Louise Welch, Mattison Boyd Jones, Alice Pike Barney, J. Warren Tatum, C. P. Wasmer, Elizabeth Wood-Stack, William Dashiela, Judson Claudius Rives, William Booth Guyton, Arthur Wright, Irwin H. Furman, West Hughes, C. C. Carpenter, Charles Jeffras and E. J. Benedict, and the Misses Margaret Bourne, Jean Hill and Mona Wood.

At the Cliff

With all the travel across the seas, Californians still remain true to their own State as the alluring playground for vacation days. San Franciscans come to Los Angeles and Angelenos visit the Bay cities with pleasure and State loyalty. Just now there are many from this city stopping at The Cliff. Among them were noted early this week: Mrs. B. L. Williams, Mrs. H. A. Cable, Miss Martha P. Simonds, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Fauler, K. B. Stack, Norman Newmark, Mrs. P. L. Newmark, Mrs. O. E. Morris, C. A. Inglis, Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Rominger, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Rothbart, Miss Betty Kirchhoffer, Emil Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Ayres, Mr. and Mrs. Sigmund J. James, E. D. Elliott, Jr., and Mrs. C. G. Skinner.

Wed in Cincinnati

On Wednesday the wedding of Miss Marella Hadder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hadder of Hollywood to the Rev. Edward Kroencke at the home of the bride's sister in Ohio. Mrs. Herbert H. Hackstedde, took place. Another sister, Miss Margaret Hadder, went from Hollywood to serve as maid of honor. Other attendants were Mary Louise Hackstedde and Martha Hadder, flower girls; Master Paul Hackstedde, ring bearer and Fred Kroencke served his brother as best man. Rev. Fred Kroencke, father of the bridegroom and rector of the Norwood Lutheran Church of the Ohio city, officiated.

At Breakfast

Miss Dorothy Haldeman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Haldeman, of 1732 North Wilton Place, entertained Wednesday at a breakfast at the Uplifters' clubhouse. Sixty guests were bidden to honor Miss Katherine Spangler, Miss Florence Mullin and Miss Mildred Moir, all of whom, including the attractive young hostess, are sorority sisters, members of Pi Beta Phi.

Miss Hammond Hostess

Miss Doris Hammond of West Adams street was the hostess Saturday at La Venta Palo Verdes, entertaining Miss Spangler and Miss Ethel Huff. These debutantes are also of the Pi Beta Phi Sorority.

Sisters Honored

At a bridge-tea given by Mrs. R. R. Fischer at her home, 1969½ West Twenty-third street, last week, Misses Florence, Lida and Mina Kamp of St. Louis were honored.

The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Robert E. Fischer, Mrs. Charles Kick and Mrs. Robert McKinney.

Among the guests were Mrs. I. A. McCarty, Mrs. George Hottinger, Mrs. William Brooks, Mrs. D. Hollet, Mrs. C. Harschman, Mrs. J. D. Cooke, Mrs. C. Fischer, Mrs. H. MacGregor. Mrs. W. Taylor, Mrs. R. E. Fischer, Mrs. Charles Kick, Mrs. Robert McKinney, Miss Alice Arthur and Miss Roberta Taylor.

Miss Dauk Honored

The home of Miss Jeanne Bissinette of Monterey Park was the scene of a pretty bridal shower last Sunday evening in honor of Miss Agnes Dauk of 3562 Ellison avenue, and Leopold Leveque of Winnipeg, Can., who will be married Sunday, September 5, at Sacred Heart Church on Sichel street. The house was elaborately decorated with white asters and pink dahlias, the walls being nearly covered with the flowers and foliage.

After the honeymoon the young people will make their home at Miss Dauk's home on Ellison avenue.

Tea at Club

Mrs. Carl Green of Hollywood was hostess last week at a bridge-tea given at the Gables Club in Santa Monica. The affair was in honor of Mrs. J. W. Willis of Toledo, who is a house guest of Mrs. Owen Reeves.

Mrs. Green and Mrs. Willis, who was Dorothy Copelin, were members of the Pi Beta Phi Sorority at the University of Southern California.

Illinois Pair Wed

Miss Hazel Moore, daughter of Edward W. Moore of Rushville, Ill., and Charles D. Howk, son of John Howk of Assumption, Ill., were united in marriage Tuesday, the 24th inst., at the Little Church of the Flowers in Glendale.

Rev. Walter C. Buckner of the Lake-avenue Methodist Church of Pasadena officiated.

Raymond McFeeters, well-known Pasadena musician and cousin of the bride, played the wedding march.

The bride was unattended. She appeared to charming advantage in a dark blue traveling gown and hat. She carried a hand bouquet of multi-colored flowers.

Mrs. Howk is a graduate of Northwestern University and the University of Southern California, where she was a member of the Alpha Chi Omega.

The groom is a graduate of the University of Illinois.

After a brief honeymoon, the couple will take up their residence in Pasadena.

Bridge-Tea

Mrs. K. Merton Adams and her daughter, Miss Evelyn Adams, left last week for Catalina Island, where they will spend the week at the Hotel St. Catherine.

Engagements Announced

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Blumia Levy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Levy of San Jose, to Herbert Cohen, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. Cohen of this city.

The wedding will take place some time this fall.

From Catalina

Mrs. Lena West and Mrs. Willodeane West Wright of 434 South Rampart Boulevard have returned from Catalina Island, where they were registered at the Hotel St. Catherine.

Both will leave shortly for San Francisco, where Mrs. Wright will visit college friends. Returning to the city by motor, a few days will be spent in Santa Barbara.

Bridge-Tea

Miss Leila McGee was hostess Saturday afternoon at a bridge-tea given at her home, 1504 South St. Andrews Place.

Miss McGee entertained the following classmates: Alice Beal, Mariott Daw, Marian Abbott, Dorothy De Witt, Amelia Shacher, Margaret Hochuli, Mary Fitchon, Barbara Blackburn, Louise Dixon, Marian Fluard, Dorothy Sawyers and Bobbie Blue.

The tea table for decorated in orchid and green, with corsage bouquets as favors.

SNATCH-THIEF GETS PURSE HOLDING $400

Mrs. Victoria Alonzo, 1048 1-2 Macy street, reported to police that a man snatched her purse containing $400 while she was walking near the Macy-street bridge yesterday after a visit to her tank. The man ran into the river bed and, after removing the money from her purse, disappeared.

AIDS MOTHER AT GARDEN TEA

Affair Honors Opera Group Members

Miss Jean Burke

ASSISTING her mother, Mrs. William E. Burke, at a smart tea in the gardens of their home today, Miss Jean Burke one of the subdebs of the Southland is in turn serving with three of her friends: the Misses Mabel Dean Crandall, Margaret Clark and Dorothy Hollingsworth. The affair is in honor of the newly named members of the South Pasadena committee of the Los Angeles Grand Opera Association. Mrs. J. Edward Haley is chairman of this group. The Burke home is at 1934 Oak street, South Pasadena.

Wipe steak, remove fat and cut lean meat in three-fourths-inch cubes. Soak, pare, trim and cut kidneys in one-fourth-inch cubes. Try out fat, remove from steak; add onion and stir constantly until well browned. Add one tablespoonful of butter, beef and kidneys and stir constantly until entire surface of meat is well seared and browned; then remove to stewpan. To fat remaining in pan, add boiling water and strain; then add Worcestershire sauce, salt and pepper. Pour over meat, cover tightly and let cook over gas flame (over which is placed an asbestos cover,) until meat is tender. Strain off liquid remaining in pan and thicken with remaining butter and flour mixed together. When meat is cold, turn into an elliptical shaped granite ware baking dish (having a half-inch rim,) in the center of which is placed an earthen cup, and pour over one-half the sauce, reserving the remainder to pass separately, when pie is served. Place on rim of pan a three-fourths-inch strip of paste, brush over with cold water and put on a cover from the center of which a circular piece has been cut. Around edge make a row of parallel creases, one-half inch apart, using the back of a knife. Between each two creases snip paste three times, using scissors. Bake in a hot oven.

Lakenan Asks Dismissal of Divorce Suit

Possibility that the entire proceedings in the hotly contested divorce suit of Robert F. Lakenan, motion-picture gag man and scion of a wealthy Kansas City family, and Leota Crider Lakenan, motion-picture actress, will be dismissed loomed yesterday in Judge Wood's court when it developed that O. E. Munger, named co-respondent by Lakenan, had not been served with a copy of the complaint.

Newton Kendall, attorney for Lakenan, filed a motion for dismissal of the entire proceedings, while Attorneys Milton Cohen and O. O. Bacon, representing Mrs. Lakenan, moved for exclusion of all testimony already taken in which Munger is mentioned. Judge Wood will rule on both motions today.

Cooling Baby

One Mother Says:

Baby must be kept as cool as possible during the hot summer months. I found that hanging a sheet dampened in water in front of the window of the room in which he was sleeping, cooled the air and still kept him out of a direct draught. Newspapers placed in the bottom of the crib or or buggy under the sheet will also help keep his body cool.

CEMETERY WAR ON IN COUNCIL

Hollywood Lot Owners Again Protest Business Zone

Attorney for W. A. Clark Leads Objectors

Proponents of Measure Urge Financial Needs

The war over the placing of business buildings not exceeding four stories in height on the Santa Monica Boulevard frontage of Hollywood Cemetery for a depth of 102 feet was resumed at the City Hall yesterday afternoon before the City Planning Commission, with W. A. Clark, Jr., through his attorney, A. J. Verheyen, leading the large number of lot owners who filled the Council chamber in protest against the granting of the cemetery association's application for Sec. No. 4 business zoning permits.

The original application for the business zoning was filed by the cemetery association a year ago and disapproved by the commission. The amended application was heard yesterday.

Speakers on behalf of granting the cemetery association's application included Frank Heron, manager of the cemetery; M. L. Garrigue of the South Hollywood Improvement Association and the West Hollywood Betterment League, H. E. Holbrook of the Sunset Boulevard Association, Charles T. Sutton, Lorraine Beyer and H. C. Edwards.

OPPOSE APPLICATION

Strongly opposing the granting of the application were Attorney Verheyen on behalf of Mr. Clark, whose investment in a mausoleum, lake and landscaped grounds represents several hundred thousand dollars; J. W. Wisehart, E. H. Nebit, representing J. Harvey McCarthy; Henry Shafer, Jr., representing the Arthur Letts estate; W. A. Cummings and Mrs. E. S. Grifer.

Manager Heron said the association's needs for a $400,000 perpetual-care fund and to pay stockholders a return on their investment required the use of the Santa Monica Boulevard front for business buildings. These, he said, would be ornamental and would not injure the beauty of the cemetery. Unless the permit was granted, Mr. Herron said, the cemetery association faced ruin and the future of the cemetery would be jeopardized.

Representing W. A. Clark, Jr., Attorney Verheyen said:

PLEADS NO NECESSITY

"No public necessity requires the granting of this permit and the conditions are exactly the same as one year ago, when the commission decided the business zoning was not necessary. The business buildings there will be detrimental to the cemetery and against the interests of those who have their loved ones buried there.

"There should be enough money in the association's perpetual-care fund to meet the requirements of the cemetery, and if there is not the association and the lot owners may rest assured that Mr. Clark will not permit the cemetery to go to weeds, as has been predicted if this application is not granted.

"If the association is in financial straits then every lot owner will help out, but first of all the cemetery must be protected from this threatened invasion of commercialism and disregard of the sentiments and the feelings and rights of those who own lots in the cemetery. If Mr. Heron will call a meeting of the 4000 lot owners he will find them willing to help him work out his problems to insure perpetual care for the cemetery without the necessity of these business buildings."

George H. Bishop said the association was guilty of breach of faith with the lot owners in seeking to "fringe the cemetery with business buildings."

The commission took the matter under advisement.

He Spent Their Vacation Alone, Wife Declares

George E. Armstrong took his wife, Grace, on a trip to San Francisco and left her across the bay with a friend while he spent his time in the city, according to testimony yesterday in Judge Walton J. Wood's court, where Mrs. Armstrong was granted a divorce.

HOUSEMAN ACCUSED OF THEFTS AT HOTEL

Accused of stealing rugs, silverware and linens valued at several thousand dollars, Max Seibert, for ten years head houseman at the Alexandria Hotel, was arrested and lodged in the County Jail last evening on a complaint charging grand larceny. According to Dep. Dist.-Atty. Murray, goods belonging to the hotel were found in Seibert's home by Frank J. Shannessy, Alexandria house detective.

STILL CRUSADE BRINGS RESULTS

Plummer Seizes Outfits for Making Liquor

Squad of Police Works With Federal Agents

Druggist and Others Held in Local Clean-up

Following orders from Chief Davis to "get the stills," Police Captain Plummer, co-operating with Federal prohibition agents, yesterday began his crusade by arresting Charles Neergard and confiscating two large stills, five copper tanks with fittings and five gallons of moonshine.

The paraphernalia was discovered, according to the raiding officers, at the plant of the Neergard Cornice Works, 3306 South Main street. Evidence was uncovered, they added, tending to show the wholesale manufacture of stills. Neergard was arraigned before United States Commissioner Mead and held in bond of $2000.

Accused of selling moonshine whisky on government prescription, Louis Cohen was arrested at the Pico-Bond Drug Store, and held in $3500 bond. He was charged with the possession of liquor and the possession of internal revenue strip stamps.

Louis Burgia, alias Tom Bruno, was taken into custody at 130 West Sixty-sixth street, where officers declared they found fifteen gallons of moonshine, ten gallons of gin and five gallons of alcohol. A liquor "cutting plant" and labels also were found the agents reported. Burgia was turned over to the local police for trial.

John M. Champ and George Hudson also fell afoul of the law during the day's activities of the combined police and Federal forces. Champ was arrested at 1417 North Normandie avenue after officers stated they found three cases of gin and two cases of Scotch in his automobile. Hudson, accused of having in his possession a case of Scotch, was arrested at 1724½ West Sixty-third street. Both he and Champ will face trial in Police Court.

SUIT BUYING LEADS TO ALIMONY ORDER

William H. Blanton's ability to purchase a new suit offset his tale of being "broke" and out of work, when he appeared before Judge Oates yesterday to answer the assertion of his wife, Ruth, that he has failed to provide alimony.

After questioning him somewhat at detail regarding the new clothing, Judge Oates gave Blanton until September 1 to raise $100 for his wife. If he fails a sentence of five days in jail will be imposed, the court added.

COUNCIL COMMITTEE FAVORS PARK PLANS

The proposed purchase for public park purposes under the assessment district plan of the fifty-two acres of land formerly known as Scheutzen Park in the Rose Hill district again came before the City Council yesterday in an approved report from the Council Parks and Playgrounds Committee. The land will cost $140,000. Previous attempts to purchase the land under the district plan had been defeated at elections by the district. The Council told the committee to ascertain if the property owners in the district desired that new proceedings for the land purchase be started.

Capt. Gifford to Substitute for Longuevan

Capt. Clifford, second in command of the police traffic bureau, yesterday was detailed to head the vice division, while Acting Captain Longuevan absents himself for a combination vacation and honeymoon.

Police Chief Davis, denying earlier rumors, stated that Gifford has not been transferred, but will merely "bat for" Longuevan in the latter's absence. Lieut. Schofield will hold down Capt. Gifford's traffic position.

Keeping Your Schoolgirl Complexion

By IRENE CASTLE

Copyrighted 1926 by P. C. Beauty Features

Risk Anything

But not your precious complexion. Use a soap made to protect it

This simple rule in skin care is bringing natural charm to thousands

IN skin care, above all things, it is better to be safe than sorry. Remember this when tempted to use a probably too harsh soap on your face.

To protect your skin, use a soap made to protect it. A soap made to be used freely, lavishly on the skin.

That is why, largely on expert advice, the world has turned to Palmolive. A soap made for ONE purpose only, to foster good complexions. A soap made by experts in beauty with 60 years of complexion study behind it.

The rule to natural loveliness is a simple one. Just the balmy olive and palm lather of Palmolive used in this way.

The daily rule in skin care . . . Try for one week

Wash your face gently with Palmolive Soap, massaging it softly into the skin. Rinse thoroughly, first with warm water, then with cold. If your skin is inclined to be dry, apply a touch of good cold cream—that is all.

Do this regularly, and particularly in the evening. Use powder and rouge if you wish. But never leave them on over night. They clog the pores, often enlarge them. Blackheads and disfigurements often follow. They must be washed away.

Get real Palmolive

Do not use ordinary soaps in the treatment given above. Do not think any green soap, or represented as of palm and olive oils, is the same as Palmolive.

It costs but 10c the cake! — so little that millions let it do for their faces, bodies what it does for their faces. Obtain a cake today. Then note what an amazing difference one week makes. The Palmolive Company (Del. Corp.), Chicago, Illinois.

FINANCIER HERE ON TOUR

'Arthur W. Straus, Chicago Investment Authority, Praises California Business Prospects

Continued prosperity for the balance of 1926 was predicted yesterday by Arthur W. Straus of Chicago, vice-president of S. W. Straus & Co., nationally known bond house, and the corporation that owns the Ambassador and Alexandria hotels in Los Angeles. Mr. Straus is on a tour of the West to confer with the managers of the Straus branches in various cities. He will remain in Los Angeles for about two weeks.

"Business conditions throughout the country are excellent and there is no sign of slowing down," said Mr. Straus. "There is every reason to believe that 1926 will go down in history as the most prosperous year the country has ever had.

Straus & Co. conducts an extensive bonding business all over the United States. It maintains an investigation bureau that keeps in constant touch with financial and business conditions, and several government bureaus have found these reports so accurate that they are used for reference in different departments, Mr. Straus said.

"During the first six months of the present year our company has financed California enterprises to the amount of about $12,000,000," said the financier. "About 50 per cent of this has been invested in Los Angeles and its immediate vicinity. It is probable that our financing operations in this section during the last half of the year will exceed those of the first half, and that the total of our business this year in California will be greater than that of any previous year.

"These figures show that Straus & Co. continues to regard this State as an excellent investment field. The company during the last five years has financed enterprises in California representing investments in excess of $50,000,000. Most of this money has gone into office and apartment buildings and apartment-hotels.

"We have not as yet done much in the way of industrial financing in this section, but with the industrial growth now taking place here, it is probable that we shall eventually go into this line."

Fear of Money Loss Blamed as Cause in Suicide

William Meredith, 70 years of age, a retired business man, committed suicide last night by shooting himself through the head. His body was found in a bedroom at 924 South Alma street, South Belvedere, where he lived with R. H. Copp.

Deputy Sheriffs Modie, Stewart and Allensworth, who investigated the case, reported that the man's daughter, Mrs. Flora Eggleston of 3619 1-2 Percy street, believed her father had been moved to end his life because of worry over an investment of his life's savings—approximately $44,000. The body was removed to the County Mortuary.

REPUBLICAN CLUB MEETS

Burglar Suspect Located at Jail After Long Hunt

After deputy sheriffs spent several days searching for Herbert Wright, said to be one of two burglars who plundered the store of Thomas P. Smith at Whittier, it was learned yesterday he had been in the County Jail for several days on suspicion of burglary.

The discovery was made yesterday by Deputy Purrier.

CAFE NOTES

The Montmartre Cafe in Hollywood will hold a filmland frolic tonight in honor of the Hollywood film artists. Roy Stewart, the well-known leading man of the screen, will be the guest of honor.

A number of entertainment features have been arranged for this evening, including the filmland frolic dancing contest, the winning couple of which will be awarded with a Montmartre silver loving cup. Stewart will act as judge of the dancing contest and award the prize to the winning couple.

Proff Moore, leader of the Montmartre Orchestra, will act as master of ceremonies.

Since Brandstatter has arranged for dancing during the luncheon period on Friday this day has been growing almost as popular as Wednesday and Saturday for matinee dansants.

Dave Wolf has announced that Sunday night will be known as movie night at the Plantation Cafe. Popular film celebrities will be guests of honor and each Sunday night's dancing prize winner will be awarded a trophy by a film actor.

With the introduction of Movie Night next Sunday evening, Mr. Wolf will present Bob Cook's Orchestra, the new Plantation band. This noted ten-piece orchestra has just completed a tour of the Publix Theaters and previously played at the Chase Hotel, St. Louis, and Rainbow Gardens, Chicago. Besides offering the best in syncopated music, Bob Cook and three members of the band make up a quartet of clever singers.

Roberts Camp in the Sierra Madre Mountains announces a free barbecue tomorrow for all guests and visitors at that popular resort. Those who were present at the barbecue prepared at Roberts Camp several months ago, will not soon forget the appetizing food and hospitality extended.

The Jail Cafes at 1207 West Sixth street, and 4313 Sunset Boulevard, are entertaining nightly with an admirable program of fun and music—not to mention the excellent chicken dinner served.

Gladys Thomas, often referred to as the "Princess of Pep," lives up to her sobriquet by singing blue and jazzy songs and accompanying herself on the piano.

Lou Harris, the Australian tenor, appears in his own original songs, while Will Popper, the "Kubelik in Stripes," continues to meet with merited approval.

CAST CHOSEN FOR MURNAU FILM

Janet Gaynor, Margaret Livingston Selected After Tests; Production Will Begin September 15; De Mille Signs Joseph Striker for "King of Kings"

BY HERBERT MOULTON

HOLLYWOOD'S curiosity as to the players F. W. Murnau would select for his first American picture was satisfied yesterday with the announcement that the German director had decided upon two artists on the Fox lot, where the picture is to be filmed.

The fortunate girls are Janet Gaynor and Margaret Livingston, who, with George O'Brien, will comprise the trio of principals in the Murnau production. The name of the picture, incidentally, has been changed to "Sunrise," from "A Tale of Two Humans." Its original title was "A Trip to Tilsit," from the Hermann Suderman story.

F. W. MURNAU

The selection of Miss Gaynor and Miss Livingston puts at rest rumors that have circulated around Hollywood ever since Murnau arrived here in July. Many prominent names have been mentioned in connection with the film, the roles in which are considered among the choicest of the year.

Janet Gaynor

Murnau has been making screen tests for some time, but eventually found that he didn't have to seek outside of the Fox studio for talent when he tried out the Misses Livingston and Gaynor.

Margaret Livingston

The former will play the sirenic creature who attempts to lure the young peasant-husband, played by O'Brien, away from his little flaxen-haired wife, played by Miss Gaynor.

This will mark the latter's first appearance as a blond heroine. Since joining the Fox organization less than a year ago she has made phenomenal success in "straight" roles. Her role in the Murnau film will mark her first effort in a definite characterization.

Production of "Sunrise" is scheduled to begin September 15, next. Many of the exterior scenes will be filmed at Lake Arrowhead and Catalina Island. Charles Rosher, who photographed Mary Pickford in many of her most successful pictures, and who has been working in Paris and Berlin for the past two years, will handle the cameras for Murnau.

Gladys Unger Departs

Cecil B. De Mille's search for an actor to portray John, the Disciple, in his production of "The King of Kings," culminated yesterday in the signing of Joseph Striker for the part.

Striker's characterization is one of the most important in the play and a score of players were under consideration before the final selection was made.

Inasmuch as Striker has just completed a featured part in Lillian Gish's "Annie Laurie," which called for a thick growth of hair, he is in a position to start right off with his delineation of John.

Signed for Biblical Role

When the cry "Author! author!" is heard at John Golden's new theater in New York next week, the audience isn't going to be disappointed. For Gladys Unger, whose latest play, "Two Girls Wanted," which will be the inaugural offering at the new Golden house, obtained a temporary leave of absence from the Paramount studio yesterday and left for New York.

Before leaving she turned over to studio executives the completed script for Pola Negri's next starring picture. On her return to Hollywood she will resume writing original stories and adaptations for Paramount.

Buck in Scout Film

BUCK BLACK

That enterprising young Rompers Romeo, Buck Black, had no sooner finished his work in a picture for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer than he hurried over to F. B. O. and had himself signed up for one of the featured roles in Fred Thompson's new picture, "A Regular Scout."

F. B. O. plans to make this one its most ambitious productions of the season. It will have the indorsement of the executive head of the Boy Scouts organization, it is said.

David Kirkland, who has directed several of Thompson's features of late, will handle the megaphone on the new one.

LIFE SENTENCE REQUESTED

Prosecutors Ask Leniency For O'Brien After Judge Fixes Confessed Murder as First Degree

Life imprisonment was recommended by the District Attorney's office yesterday for John Patrick O'Brien, who appeared before Judge Burnell and pleaded guilty to the murder of Thomas E. Welch, Los Angeles accountant, on the night of June 13, last. O'Brien is said to have beaten Welch to death with an automobile robe rail and to have hidden his body behind a billboard in the Wilshire District, where it was found a week later.

O'Brien declared he was attacked by Welch with a bottle and a knife after the two had spent a night of drinking. After Welch was dead O'Brien took his clothing and automobile. The finding of the clothes and car in O'Brien's possession resulted later in his arrest and confession.

Judge Burnell, after fixing the crime as first-degree murder, set Monday for sentence with no comment on the leniency recommendation.

Wilshire Plot Sold to Mayer for $270,000

Louis B. Mayer, vice-president of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Studios, has purchased the southwest corner of Wilshire Boulevard and Irolo street for $270,000. This announcement was given out by Mr. Mayer last night at the studio.

"The site fronts 135 feet on Wilshire and 195 feet on Irolo," Mr. Mayer said. "I purchased it from Mabel Edna Burns. The property was bought as an investment."

Mr. Mayer declared that the rumor that he intended to build a thirteen-story, 320-room hotel was groundless. He said that the property might be improved at a future date, but at present he was only interested in it as a real-estate investment.

Presentation of Colors Made to Artillery Unit

Regimental colors were presented to the Six Hundred and Fourth Coast Artillery Railway Division, United States Reserves, now in training at Fort MacArthur, at the fort yesterday. The colors were presented by Maj. Lincoln B. Chambers, commandant at Fort MacArthur and commander of the Third Coast Artillery, U. S. A., and received by Col. H. G. Mathewson, commander of the Six Hundred and Fourth Coast Artillery.

It was fitting, Maj. Chambers said, that the colors should be presented by one of the oldest and most honorable units in the service to one of the newest units, from which much is expected. The Six Hundred and Fourth Coast Artillery was represented by thirty reserve officers in training, who formed a reviewing body before which the entire personnel of the fort passed in review.

The new 14-inch railway rifle will be used in training by the unit.

BOY SHOT WHILE AT PLAY

Billie Martinez, 12 years of age, yesterday was the victim of another gun that "wasn't loaded." He and Sylvester Marago, 11, were playing near the latter's home at 416 Jackson street when the rifle which had played so important a part in the afternoon's fun was discharged while in Sylvester's hands. The bullet pierced the right cheek of the Martinez boy knocking out a tooth.

Hubby Played 'Possum Game, Wife Charges

Charges that her husband "played dead" in order to cause her mental anguish were made yesterday by Janet Holsinger in Judge Crail's court, where she obtained a divorce from Marvin W. Holsinger.

On one occasion, she said, her husband pretended to eat some poison and then ran into a field and lay down on his back, simulating death.

FUNERAL TODAY FOR LAWYER E. H. SMITH

Funeral services for Earle H. Smith, 41 years of age, member of the law firm of Smith & Byres with offices in Loew's State Building, will be conducted today at 3 p.m. from the undertaking parlors of W. A. Brown, 1915 South Flower street. Mr. Smith died of heart disease Wednesday afternoon at his home, 842 South Highland avenue. He was born in Indianapolis and was a graduate of De Pauw University and of the college of law of the University of Southern California. He was a member of the Phi Gamma Delta and Masonic Lodge. He leaves his widow, Mrs. Mary Francis Smith; a son, Gordan Galey Smith, and a daughter Virginia Smith. Services will be in charge of the Masonic Lodge followed by cremation at Forest Lawn Cemetery.

TEXAS VISITOR'S AUTO HITS OFFICER'S SON

Dick Young, 7-year-old son of Police Officer Russell Young of 1649 1-2 Shatto street, suffered a fractured skull and serious lacerations last night when at Sixth street and Burlington avenue he was struck by an automobile driven by Miss Mary Moss, Texas visitor, who lives at the Barbara Hotel. Nearly a year ago, Officer Young suffered a broken back, which left him in a paralyzed condition, when he was caught between two street cars.

INDICTMENTS AGAINST TEXANS DISMISSED

Acting upon recommendation of Asst. U. S. Atty. Neville, United States Judge McCormick yesterday dismissed a four-year old indictment for using the mails in a scheme to defraud against Frank L. Moorman, James C. Foster, Jr., A. C. Moore, A. M. Beeman and G. T. Edgell, all former officials of the Jim Hogg Oil Company of Fort Worth, Tex.

ILLINOISANS INVITED

All former residents of Illinois are invited to attend the regular monthly meeting of the Illinois State Society of Southern California at the auditorium of the States Societies Club, 1137 South Hope street, Saturday evening. A special program has been arranged.

Frozen-Faced Comedian Gets in Difficulties

"Battling Butler," the new Buster Keaton mirth-provoker, opens today at Loew's State.

Buster Keaton

Keaton is said to excel himself in "Battling Butler," for the picture is reported to have a real plot. Also, Buster has surrounded himself with an unusually capable cast. Sally O'Neil, Walter James, Tom Wilson, Francis McDonald, Mary O'Brien have important parts.

"Battling Butler" was a stage play before it was brought to the screen. Keaton portrays a rich, pampered youth who goes to the country for an outing—and finds adventure.

He falls in love, masquerades as a famous boxer to win the lady of his choice, whose family detests weaklings, and suddenly discovers himself hailed as a hero—the world's champion middleweight pugilist.

To confess a deception imperils his status as a bridegroom; to go through with it endangers his heretofore lazy carcass. How he "saves face" and retains his wife's love provides the denouement.

Rooney Wants to Open School for Dance Here

Pat Rooney will spread the famous Pat Rooney dance and many other steps all over the United States before another year.

Pat announced yesterday in his dressing room at the Orpheum that plans are rapidly being completed to open up a chain of Pat Rooney Dancing Schools and "that the first to be established would be in Los Angeles.

"For a long time I have had the idea of organizing schools which will teach dancing for stage purposes and teach everyone the value of dancing as a healthful pastime," said the Irish dancer.

According to the present plans a four months course will be given in each city and if the pupil progresses properly and to the satisfaction of the school he or she will be admitted to the main school in New York and prepared, if they care to be, for stage appearances.

"After a four months course we will be able to tell if a pupil has talent for dancing and if they have we will expend every effort to complete their course and place them in some New York production," says Pat.

"Devil Horse" Starring Rex Comes to Screen

The Figueroa Theater begins today its engagement of "The Devil Horse" in which is starred Rex, the untamed, wild horse that Hal Roach has brought to the screen for the third time, in a production directed by Fred Jackman.

"The Devil Horse" is a drama written by Hal Roach and inspired by the history of the crimson trails of the pioneer west. From the wrath of the slaying steed the Indians prayed to their Gods, for deliverance. Strange terrible tales they told of a great black horse whose hoofs dealt death to the redskins.

"The Devil Horse" has in its cast Yakima Canutt, the world's champion cowboy, Gladys McConnell, Robert Kortman and hundreds of Crow Indians, cowboys and wild horses.

Jack Laughlin provides a unique and clever stage presentation to "The Devil Horse" and the usual news and comic reels complete the program.

Romance of Gay Vienna Remains Over at Forum

The picturization of Oscar Strauss's operetta "The Waltz Dream," which is now playing at the Forum Theater is to be held over for a second week's showing, according to an announcement made today by John P. Goring, managing director of that theater.

Different from any other foreign picture that has been shown in this country, "The Waltz Dream" is a gay romance of Vienna in the days before the war. The players in this picture although practically unknown in America are said to be among the greatest cinema stars of Europe. Mady Christians, Xenia Desni and Willie Fritsch play the leading roles.

Ludwig Berger directed the picture for the UFA corporation and it is being released in this country by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

ANNOUNCE POLITICAL RESULTS AT THEATER

Modern politics will mix with the seventeenth century brand, when the Borgias held sway over Rome, Tuesday night when election returns from all parts of the State will be given at the night presentation of John Barrymore in "Don Juan" at Grauman's Egyptian Theater.

Through arrangements just completed by Sid Grauman direct wire service will be had to the theater from the political centers of the State reporting the balloting on the candidates for the important offices, as well as the latest returns on local contests.

Sid Grauman presages "Don Juan" with a prologue spectacle, titled "A Venetian Festival."

RICHARD INTENDS TO REPEAT HIS SUCCESS

Richard Wallace, the youthful director, is ingenious if nothing else. After having praises heaped upon his shoulders by studio officials for his success in directing Corinne Griffith in "Syncopating Sue," he determined that his next picture "McFadden's Flats" should be a repeater.

So in company with Jack Wagner, gag-man, they have forsaken the city for the beach and are combining business with pleasure by working on the adaptation and continuity at a bungalow which they have rented right on the beach.

"Nostromo" Brought to Screen

Joan Renee and George O'Brien

Appearing in "The Silver Treasure," an adaptation of Conrad's novel "Nostromo," opening today at the Criterion.

'DIPLOMACY' ADAPTED FROM VICTORIEN SARDOU ROMANCE

Blanche Sweet

Its chief theme is a struggle for supremacy between a young woman of the world, schooled in intrigue, and an unsophisticated girl, Dora, the part taken by Blanche Sweet. Neil Hamilton is seen as Julian Beauclerc, with whom both women are in love.

Appearing in the cast with Miss Sweet and Hamilton are Matt Moore, Arthur Edmund Carewe, Arlette Marchal, Earle Williams, Julia Swayne Gordon, Gustav von Seyffertitz, David Mir, Charles "Buddy" Post and others. Benjamin Glazer wrote the scenario.

On the magic stages at the Metropolitan this week Managing Director Frank L. Newman announces an unusually interesting Jack Partington Production, "Rubeville Follies," featuring Jimmy Ellard, master of ceremonies in the absence of Eddie Peabody, who returns next Friday; the triumphant return of the Foursome; the first week of Al Jolson's "world's worst voice girl," Peggy Bernier; Don Cummings, the Junior Will Rogers;" Charles Levy Wells, Max Curry, Luella Lee and Ruth Stanley, the Metropolitan Girls, and Bozo, the trained goose.

Pauline Says That Hard Work is Good for Her

If hard work is the secret of success, then Pauline Frederick's achievements can easily be understood. Hard work is as natural to her as breathing. In fact she thrives on it, and even confessed that she gained six pounds.

Miss Frederick is seen on the stage in Louis O. Macloon's production of "Madame X" at the Playhouse this week.

At times Miss Frederick works all day at the picture studio, then comes down to the theater to appear in a stage play at night.

"It's hard work," she admitted, "but I love it and there doesn't seem to be any ill effects. Leaves me just a little tired, but I steal an hour or so for a canter on my horse and I'm full of energy again.

WOODS WILL MENACE THOMSON'S HAPPINESS

HARRY LEWIS WOODS

Woods started his screen career four years ago as the heavy in Ruth Roland's serial, "Ruth of the Range." He had entered the industry as a technical man, but owing to his fine physique and personal appearance he was almost literally thrust before the camera.

He has recently joined the freelance ranks.

HONORS COUNTRYMAN

Secretary of Labor Davis Visits Gareth Hughes

Secretary of Labor James J. Davis, accompanied by his son and a party of fifteen occupied boxes at the El Capitan Theater last night. It was a gathering of the Welsh clan arranged by Secretary Davis as a compliment to Gareth Hughes, who has a conspicuous role in Edward D. Smith's production of "The Green Hat."

The Cabinet officer and Hughes are natives of the same town in Wales and last night's affair was the realization of a promise made by the Secretary of the actor several years ago. Being greatly interested in Hughes's career on the stage, Secretary Davis, long before he became a government official, told Hughes that the first opportunity he had to attend a performance in which he took part would be made the most of.

After the performance Secretary Davis and his guests were taken behind the scenes and presented to Ruth Chatterton, Ralph Forbes and other members of the company.

OLD FAVORITES REPEATED

Three one-act plays, that were received with enthusiasm at previous Garret presentations, will be repeated on the next bill, dates of production to be announced at a later date. "Dope," will be a highlight of the show. "Not Smart," a comedy of the Cape Cod district, will open the bill. "Release," a crook play, is also included.

Orange Grove Will Present Play Premiere

The cast of "Know Your Onions" which will have its world premiere at the Orange Grove on Wednesday will feature Henry Hall and Jessie Arnold in the leading roles.

Other members of the cast are Will G. Gregory, Fay Life, Cliff Lancaster, Arthur Foster, Jack Hutchison, Norman Feusier and others.

"Know Your Onions" is by Norman Feusier and was written especially for Henry Hall. The character of Hank Tucker, a dreamer, the family dilemma, is much like the part Hall played when he was starred in "The Man From Home."

Arthur Freed, the producer is making plans for a gala opening night on Wednesday which will be in keeping with the world premiere of this play.

SALLY WORKS WITH FOREIGN DIRECTOR

IRISH LEADING LADY PLAYS RUSSIAN GIRL FOR SCANDINAVIAN

Sally O'Neil will have her first experience at working with a foreign director when she starts work in "The Mysterious Island," under the direction of Benjamin Christianson.

Already motion picture people are speculating as to whether Christianson will find another personality in the lively Irish girl, as so many foreign directors have when given American celebrities to direct.

Sally began her career under the direction of Marshall Neilan in "Mike," and consequently worked for Edmund and Alf Goulding, and later for Hobart Henley in "The Auction Block," and "A Certain Young Man." It is interesting to note that all of her portrayals to date have been American girls.

In "The Mysterious Island," Sally will work under a Danish director, and will play the part of "Nita," the little Russian girl who is brought up by her father "Dakkar," played by Lionel Barrymore, on "the mysterious island."

MOROSCO AUDIENCES ENJOY "APPLESAUCE"

Applesauce is perfectly proper, according to the Morosco Theater where "Applesauce" enters its second week beginning Sunday matinee. "That Los Angeles likes 'Applesauce' and plenty of it, is proved by our attendance," said Manager Henry Schroeder. "We certainly believe in 'Applesauce.'"

Charlotte Treadway, Galvin Gordon, J. Morris Foster, and Jane Morgan head the cast.

Beginning September 5, the Morosco will present "Dancing Mothers," with Alma Tell, John Litel, Mitchell Harris, and Elizabeth Allen. Rehearsals for "Dancing Mothers," are progressing under the direction of James Durkin.

"VARIETY" AT RIALTO

"Variety," one of the most discussed pictures of the year, and the one which will possibly change many of the present standards of close-ups will open at the Rialto today. Emil Jannings and Lya De Putti are the featured players in this story of back stage life in Europe. E. A. Dupont directed the picture for U. F. A. and as a result of his work was brought to America to direct in Hollywood.

MODERN DRAMA TO BE STUDIED

Modern drama will be discussed, analyzed, studied, and debated in a series of twelve lectures by Mrs. Laurabelle Dietrick during the fall quarter of metropolitan college, U. S. C., according to the September schedule just issued by Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie, director of the downtown evening school of the University of Southern California in the Transportation Building.

Ibsen, Shaw, Galsworthy, Yeats, Synge, Lady Gregory, Tchekhov, Wilde, Drinkwater, Lord Dunsany, and Eugene O'Neill are but a few of the dramatists whose particular plays will be the basis of discussion by the group, which will meet from 4:20 to 6:40 on Wednesday afternoons for a period of eighteen weeks beginning next month.

MUSICAL

HUGE BOWL AUDIENCE ENJOYS OPERA BARITONE

By Edwin Schallert

Summery weather, the "New World" Symphony, conducted by Alfred Hertz, and the presence of Richard Bonelli, operatic baritone, as featured soloist, were an ideal threefold attraction last night at the Hollywood Bowl.

The concert was the greatest in point of attendance during the entire season, the total audience being estimated at 19,000 persons.

Enthusiasm was marked for the Bonelli solos, and he was recalled to sing two encores following the Prologue to "Il Pagliacci" at the close of the program.

Bonelli's was a very notable popular triumph. It was in the nature of a homecoming for him, for he was at one time identified with music here.

He is now singing in opera in Chicago, and will be heard here with the Los Angeles Grand Opera Association this year.

Barring the one circumstance that the orchestra at times overshadowed his singing, largely because it was not kept sufficiently subdued in the climaxes, the impression that he attained was splendid. His phrasing, the smoothness of his voice, and the fine clear enunciation, were all ample proof of superior training.

His voice is not one of tremendous power (although singing in the Bowl is a test for the power of any voice,) but he uses it with distinction.

The audience lingered after the final encore, and would have demanded more. All in all, Bonelli was one of the most successful of the singers yet heard in the Hollywood amphitheater.

The first solo number that he gave was the "Eri Tu" from "Il Ballo en Maschera," sung with dignity and finish.

The Rossini song was notably difficult.

The beauty of the "New World" symphony was strikingly disclosed under the Hertz baton in every changing mood of this romantic and always alluring composition. The various instruments of the orchestra wove richly the harmonies of the work.

The Largo and the Scherzo perhaps had the greatest effect on the hearers, the former because it is well loved and was exquisitely played, and the latter, because the rendition was exceptionally brilliant.

In the "Peer Gynt" Suite, the "Asa's Death" excerpt and "In the Hall of the Mountain King" stood out very affectually, although this suite as a whole was attractively interpreted.

The Overture to "The Bartered Bride" by Smetana, the only other instrumental number, pleased by virtue of its vibrancy.

The encores were "Mama Mia" by Rossini and the familiar "Tommy Lad."

The two remaining concerts promise great popular interest.

Studio AND Stage

A much-desired convenience for patrons of Fred Miller's Carthay Circle Theater now screening "The Volga Boatman" has materialized and beginning September 1, the bus service on Wilshire Boulevard will be extended to McCarthy Vista and Eulalia Boulevard. The new terminus will be known as Carthay Center and bus destination signs will be designated as such.

"Hit the deck" has been added to the vocabularies of Wallace Beery and Raymond Hatton. The pair who stumbled ludicrously at the command of "fall in" when they enacted the roles of dumb doughboys in "Behind the Front" are launching a boatload of laughs in their latest sea-going comedy vehicle, "We're in the Navy Now," for Paramount.

Lenore J. Coffee is rapidly nearing the completion of an original story which she is writing for Samuel Goldwyn, having been loaned to this producer by Cecil B. De Mille, to whom she is under contract. Miss Coffee, recently was revealed as the author of "The Battalion of Death," which Gloria Swanson is to make as a feature production.

To John Ford, Fox Films director and maker of the newest Fox epic of the west "Three Bad Men," which comes to the Figueroa Theater early in September, goes the honor of filming for the first time the mighty Teton Range in Wyoming, scenes of which appear in the picture.

Alexander Oumansky is searching for 100 experienced dancers to appear in the ballet he is staging for the production of "Julius Caesar," which will be given in the Hollywood Bowl September 17 and 18. Oumansky is starting rehearsals at once for this spectacle and states that any girls who would like to appear in this production should get in touch with him at once at his Studio de Dance on West Seventh street. All the artists are donating their services as the money obtained from this production will go toward the building of the Art Theater in the bowl.

IMPRESSIONS
On approaching Beverly's best boy. Simplicity of true artistry, accentuated by dash of gay color in draped awnings. Stately welcome of entrance and reception hall. "At home" feeling in distinctive living room. Social chatter at tea and bridge in attractive Roomiless of master bedroom, beauty and convenience of attendant bath. Marvelous vista by day and night from sewing room and veranda. Romance, safety for the wee ones, goastings and toastings in open hearth, all can be sensed in secluded family playground, lawned and shrubbed by expert botanist. Five bedrooms, four baths, $50,000.

SAN DIEGO ACREAGE
MR. INVESTOR,
MR. SUBDIVIDER,
Two hundred and fifty acres
5 miles from ocean,
5 miles from San Diego's shopping district.

Its geographical location affords both marine and mountain view.

Location ideal for high class residences or home sites.

One of San Diego's leading streets will be paved through this property. Contracts to be let shortly.

Why is it ideal? Because it is just outside the city limits, has water, and adjoins city school-park property.

Price is right and plenty of room to make some money.

POLITICS
THE WATCHMAN
Trend of Political Thought and Action
BY THE SENTRY ON HIS BEAT

When Friend W. Richardson became Governor of California, January 1, 1923, there was nothing even resembling a surplus in the treasury, and only the drastic retrenchments in the budget, and the vetoing of bills carrying special appropriations of millions of dollars, saved the taxpayers from an ad valorem tax upon their property, or an increase in franchise rates.

The 1925 budget provided so amply and so fairly for the various branches of the State government that it was adopted without a single dissenting vote in the Assembly and the Senate.

Gov. Richardson's program of economy and efficiency has resulted in a decrease in State expenditures amounting to many millions, and still there has been a constant constructive improvement in the State's humanitarian institutions, costing $7,259,967. This is more than three times as much as was ever allowed for construction during a like period in the history of California.

And yet, the people are being told by the Governor's opponents that he has skimped and retrenched to such an extent that it was necessary to sell the cows at the State Institute for the Blind.

A new institution for the feebleminded is being constructed at Pomona, the initial appropriation for which was $468,000.

Every State hospital has had new buildings.

The Department of Public Welfare, organized by Gov. Richardson, has combined the efforts of several Independent organizations, thereby eliminating duplications and effecting large savings.

Under the administration of Gov. Richardson allotments for educational purposes have been the largest in the history of the State. All the needs of the teachers' colleges, University of California, elementary and secondary schools have been provided for amply.

These are only a few of the accomplishments of Gov. Richardson's administration, but they are sufficient to indicate why he should be retained in office.

H. G. Redwine will be one of a number of speakers who will address a neighborhood gathering of Richardson for Governor supporters to be held at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening at the Granada Hotel, 419 South Grand avenue. Mrs. Forest F. Vrooman will preside.

Facts concerning the administration of Gov. Richardson to refute insidious statements issued by his political opponents will be discussed by the speakers.

Mrs. Vrooman said today that assurances had been received already from many of the Governor's warmest friends in Southern California that they will attend the meeting, to which the general public is invited.

"Having a vacation in order to speak on behalf of Frank F. Merriam, Republican nomination candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, Mrs. Dora A. Stearns, president of the Woman's Political League and leading civic worker, was the principal speaker at a neighborhood meeting held in the home of Mrs. Jean Strickler, 14151 East Sherman Way. Before a large gathering of women, Mrs. Stearns explained the need of the State for a man of experience in the position of Lieutenant-Governor, and pointed to Mr. Merriam's record as proof of his splendid qualifications for the post.

At Merriam headquarters it was announced that Robert A. Condee, president of the State Board of Agriculture, has sent the following letter to farm bureau officials and to farmers and agriculturists throughout the State.

"If you have visited the California Legislature
